D. J. HOSTETTER'S
FOR THE CURE OF

Dyspepsia. Indigestion, Nausea, Constipation Flatulency, Loss of Appetite or any Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels producing Cramps Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c. &c.

All of these ills yield like magic to its vilifying influence upon the system, and for a person in advanced years, or recovering from sickness of any kind, nothing can be more conducive to their convalescence than the use of these Bitters as per directions on the bottles,

Scarcely four years have elapsed since the first introduction of "Dr. J Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters" to the public, and such has been the success of this article after its tested efficacy by a discriminating public, that during the last year nearly half a million bottles were sold, with a continuous demand in excess of the supply with all the facilities the proprietors have been able to command in its preparation.

Are you dyspeptic? Then take these Stomach Bitters.

Are you billious? Try one bottle of these Bitters, and be relieved at once.

Are you annoyed by Indigestion or constipation? Remove the cause by the free use of these Bitters.

Have you fever and ague? How many thousands in the West and South have been cured of this constitution-destroying disease by the free use of these Bitters!

All should try this great Anidote. We venture to affirm that, when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are used, a case of Fever and Ague cannot occur; therefore, no family consulting their own interest can afford to do without it.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

In recommending to your use Dr J Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, it is but just to state that as a stimulant to the system, in imparting strength and vigor, preparatory to periodical stages, which are of times attended with much pain and trouble, we know of no preperation more happily adapted to all afflictions consequent upon this cause, and for crampts in stomach, cholera morbus, and all ailments arising from over indulgence in fruits, vegetables, ice creams, &c., it is certain and alwost instantaneous remedy, and no family should be without it.

One wineglassful taken three times each before meals, or half the quantity if the patients are in a weak condition, and increased in proportion to their strength, will be found a great tonic agent, which all will appreciate when personally satisfied of the facts, as they will be by giving the Bitters one trial.

☞ CAUTION. ☜

Carefulness should be our study, but more particularly when the health is at stake. Since these Bitters have, from their medical qualities, become so popular, there have been a great many concoctions called Stomach Bitters, and often represented to be the same in virtue as Dr. Hostetter's, palmed upon the public. Be careful of these vilainous compounds! Our Bitters are put up in square quart bottles, and covered with the patent metallic cap, stamped "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," and Dr. J Hostetter blown on the glass. All others are imitation.

Proceedings of the City Council.
CITY OF FORT WAYNE, June 8th, 1858.

At a meeting of the Common Council of the city of Fort Wayne, held in the Council Room, on the 8th day of June, 1858, the following, with other business of general interest, was transacted:

The Board of Health made the following report:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

The undersigned, the Board of Health of the City of Fort Wayne, respectfully report, that the health of the City is now good, but that it cannot be expected to remain so, unless immediate steps be taken to improve the condition of the Streets, Alleys, Privies, Sewers, and Cess-pools; and remove the immense accumulation of filth of various kinds which exists in the City.

The Board made a tolerably thorough examination of the Streets and Alleys on yesterday, the 7th inst., and found that they were generally in a very bad condition; and therefore we would suggest—that the gutters of all those Streets which are obstructed with grass and other things, and which contain stagnant water, should be immediately cleaned out, and kept so.

The Board particularly urge the necessity of doing those things now, as more injury than good to the health of the City would result, by stirring up the filth a few weeks hence, as repeated experience and observation have demonstrated

The Alleys also require immediate attention. The manure and other impurities which exist in almost all of them, should be removed and not allowed to accumulate. We would call the attention of the Mayor and Council to some particularly bad places which we examined. Viz:

The vacant lots on Berry Street, next Mrs. Thompson's Residence, and the Alley back of them, which receives the drainage of the Leeman House, and the Alley back of the Leeman House, appeared to be the worst places that your board saw.

The Alley between Columbia and Main Streets, from Barr to Calhoun Streets, is also in a very filthy condition; some of the lots also adjoining this Alley contain considerable stagnant water and filth, which ought to be immediately removed.

A portion of Ewing Street, between Berry and Wayne Streets, opposite Fisher's, is always filthy and offensive.

In the west end, on account of the nature of the soil, there are not so many wet and filthy places, but there are some spots that need attention, viz:

A pond on Jefferson Street, near the Bluffton Road and Mr. John H. Cochran's residence, ought to be drained or filled up; and those ponds near Mr. Withers' should be attended to, as the present ditch does not seem to perfectly drain them.

A pond opposite the Rockhill House, is caused Mr. Rumsey informed us, by obstruction of the ditch opposite Humphrey & Hurd's shop.

Some other places which contain stagnant water and filth, we noticed viz:

The cellar on the corner of Calhoun and Berry Streets.

The Lot on Berry Street opposite the Court House.

The Alley between Wayne and Washington Streets, back of the School House.

The Alley between Wayne and Washington Streets, from Calhoun to Harrison Streets.

The large drain which crosses Main and Harrison Streets, also requires some attention.

J. B. ROBINSON, President.
L. MEINDERMAN.
B. S. WOODWORTH, Sec'ry,

Dr. John S. Irwin, member of council, presented the following petition, which was referred to the committee on Streets, Nuisances, &c:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

Your petitioner would respectfully request your honorable body to call the attention of the Street Committee to the condition of lots No. 14, and 15 Taber's Addition, on south side of Berry St., between Lafayette and Clay Sts. The said lots are now in such a condition as to be extremely detrimental to the health of all persons in the neighborhood, and as the warm weather progresses must become much more so. And your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

JOHN S IRWIN.

Hon. Wm. Rockhill having made a proposal to Council to sell two lots in his addition to Fort Wayne, for a Market Space, the matter was referred to the Committee on Finance with instruction to purchase. The following remonstrance against the proposed action of council in the premises was presented, read, and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

Your petitioners, residents of said city, beg leave respectfully to remonstrate against the proposed action of said council, in locating a Market House on the the lots on the north west corner of Wayne and Broadway Streets in said city. Many reasons against said action of common council might be urged,—among which might be named the following: It will convert one of the finest locations for private residences in the city, into a market space, which from its very nature will render it unpleasant as a place of residence. It will be immediately opposite to one of the principal churches of the city, where a large congregation meet for worship, and who will feel particularly annoyed by its location at that point. It will annoy many other and good citizens who have already selected that locality for their future homes, not expecting such occupation of said lots; while a better location for a Market, can be had in the large commons south of this, where there are no present residents whatever.

Signed by W. C. Shoaff and 41 others:

L. T. Bourie, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, made the following report, which he read, and on motion, it was received and ordered on file, and the accompanying ordinances referred to the committee on Fire Department:

To his Honor the Mayor and Honorable Common Council, of the City of Fort Wayne:

GENTLEMEN:—I return you my thanks for giving me the honorable office of Chief Engineer, which I will endeavor to fill to the best of my ability, with pleasure to myself and hope may prove satisfactory to you and the citizens of Fort Wayne. I have appointed George Humphrey 1st asst. and George Nelson 2nd asst Engineers, subject to your approval, both of whom agree to serve in this capacity if agreeable to you.

No Fire Department can well get along without a Fire Association, and it has been my desire, and what I have and will strive for, to get up a well governed and well organized Fire Department, which we unfortunately have not got, but very fortunately have not required, but there is no knowing how soon the hour may be when we shall, and it is best to be prepared, or in other words, "Lock the stable door before the horse is stolen." The Firemen risk their lives and health for the protection of other men's lives and property, and by so doing do not reap the laurels of the soldier, nor are they recompensed for their labor. No! they ask it not; it is voluntary on their part, and they should be encouraged as long as they are deserving and work for a good cause. It is true, they have and expect to have something in the way of amusement sometimes, and they should not be censured if they should expend any of their funds in so doing; for if that privilege was refused them, I could not expect a Fire Department to keep up in any other way, than a hired or paid Department which would be much more expensive than volunteer Department in a city like our own.

I hope the Council will be prudent, and that it will procure all additional and necessary apparatus &c to make our Fire Department complete, and not be behind our sister cities; and I further hope they will extend their liberality to the several Fire Companies, coming under the provisions of the Fire Ordinance of the city; and in conclusion would say that all Firemen require encouragement, and they look first to you, the City Fathers, to show such encouragement as an example to our citizens that they may do likewise. In speaking thus I do not wish to be understood they have not done so already, but that they may ever do so from time to time when required.

I herewith present you a form of ordinances for your inspection and approval or disapproval, as you may deem proper, after examination and consideration, relative to the Fire Department of this city, and I would recommend their adoption.

L. T. BOURIE, Chief Eng'r.

Fort Wayne, June 8th, 1858.

The Difficulty with Paraguay.
Everybody knows that we have a difficulty with Paraguay, but very few know what it is or what is the cause of it. The history of the case, from the documents recently published, appears to be this:

Twelve years ago the Paraguayan Government issued a decree encouraging and inviting foreigners to settle there, and engage in trade—by offering them lands, monopolies, &c This was done for the purpose of developing the resources and increasing the commerce of the country. "The Yankees" are always on the look out for such openings, and the invitation was responded to by the formation of an Emigrant Company in Rhode Island. The Legislature incorporated it with a capital of $300,000. The company bought and took to Paraguay steam engines, sugar mills, brick machine, rice mills, agricultural implements, &c., enough for a large colony. A large number of mechanics, farmers and others, embarked in the enterprise, and the colony was formally planted in 1853. The government received them, bestowed the promised privileges upon them, and encouraged them to enter upon a large business.

Paraguay is one of the finest timbered countries in the world, and has some of the best tobacco land in America. The company soon found that their saw mill, (the first ever built south of the Amazon and east of the Andes,) was a most lucrative property, and the cigar factory was equally profitable. It happened that President Lopez found it out also.

Though nominally a Republic, Paraguay, is in fact, a despotism, and the President is an absolute dictator. With him, to covet the property and thriving business of "los Yankees" was as natural as to seize it was practicable. He fulminated three decrees, revoking their title to their lands, repudiating his contracts with them and confiscating their privileges for his own benefit. He seized their mills, vessels and machinery, and would not even let them leave the country alive, unless they would formally relinquish everything to him. It happened that an American man of war, the Water witch, Commodore Page, came along just then, took the Americans on board, in defiance of the President, and brought them home. They now demand reparation. Lopez, in reply, declares that the Water witch committed a "scandalous hostility" in taking them off, and sets up, in justification of his conduct, the plea that they had practiced fraud in obtaining the title to their lands. A little prompt and firm action on the part of our Government would bring President Lopez to terms quite easy.

The Indiana Senators—We congratulate our readers upon the decisive vote by which the Senate on Saturday confirmed the election to that body of Hons. Jesse D. Bright and Graham N. Fitch. The republican press has been accustomed, for some time, to sneer at these gentlemen as usurpers of seats to which they were not entitled, and this has been especially the case whenever their votes have had a controlling influence in deciding important questions. At such times, the Senate has been urged to a prompt determination of the contested seats, as if the determination was sure to result in the defeat of the sitting members, however, have awaited the result with dignity, calmness, and patience. Conscious of the justice of their position, they were contented to await the triumph which they knew would not fail to come. This triumph has now been achieved, and by a most gratifying vote the Senate have decided that they are the legally elected senators from Indiana. Mr. Bright remains, therefore in the distinguished body in which he has already become eminent, and Mr. Fitch, who is associated with him, will falsify the promise of his career in the House if he does not occupy a most important position in the Senate by gentlemen as able, industrious, and faithful as Messrs. Bright and Fitch, while the Democracy of the whole country cannot but look with interest upon a result which continues to unswearing democrats in positions of the highest consequence.

The Vote on the Indiana Senatorial Contested Election Case.—The vote in the United States Senate, on the motion of Mr Trumbull, of Ill., declaring that Senators Bright and Fitch of Indiana, were NOT legally elected Senators, was as follows

"YEAS—Broderick, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Dixon, Doolittle, Douglas, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, Houston, King, Mason, Pearce, Seward, Simmons, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson—23.

"NAYS—Allen, Benjamin, Bigler, Brown, Clay, Clingman, Davis, Fitzpatrick, Green, Gwin, Hayne, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson of Tennessee, Jones, Kennedy, Mallory, Polk Pugh, Rice, Reid, Sebastian, Slidell, Thompson of Kentucky, Thompson of New Jersey, Toombs, Wright, Yulee—30"

They were then declared unanimously elected The vote was not strictly a party one. Senators Mason of Virginia, Douglas of Illinois, Pearce of Maryland, Broderick of California, Democrats, voted against Messrs. Bright and Fitch's right to their seats, while Kennedy of Maryland and Thompson of Kentucky, two "American" Senators, voted in their favor. This decision of the Senate will have a most wholesome effect in encouraging scenes of anarchy and violence in State Legislatures, and stop minorities from resorting to violence and revolutionary means to prevent majorities in those bodies from choosing Senators. It is high time the practice received it quietus.—Cin. Enq.

Tiffin & Fort Wayne and Clinton Line Railroads.—We noticed in a recent issue that a consolidation had been affected between those two roads, with a view to their speedy completion. By the stipulations entered into, the Tiffin & Ft. W. Company obtain to a certain extent the control of the eastern division, between Tiffin and New London. An arrangement has been entered into with certain Eastern capitalists, by which the latter agree to complete the grading and furnish the iron for the entire route, providing two companies can sell bonds enough to pay for the iron, when delivered, in installments of one-third each. The amount necessary to be raised, we understand, is about $100,000, and payment is made conditional upon the actual delivery of the iron on the track. The payment of the first installment secures the speedy completion of the entire road. In consideration of the amount paid, the subscribers are to receive first class 70 per cent. mortgage bonds of the road As they will be given only in event that the road is completed, they will be worth, to the holder, at least what they cost and possibly more. We hope that all interested in the completion of this important link in the great chain of thoroughfares, stretching from the Atlantic on the east, to the Missouri river on the West, will come up and subscribe liberally. As payment is only required in case the road is built, there is no risk run. To the City of Tiffin and the people of Seneca Co. this road will be of incalculable advantage bringing us in direct communication with Cleveland and Philadelphia on the East and Chicago on the West.—Tiffin Tribune.

We have too few Holidays.
We have on several occasions called the attention of our readers to the fact that we have in this country too few holidays, too few rational and innocent amusements, too much artificial sanctity and puritanical gloom, too much devotion to unceasing drudgery and scraping up dollars, too little attention paid to social and intellectual enjoyment. A contemporary comes to our aid in this matter. He says a capital opening presents itself for any one who can invent and introduce new holidays We have just four days in the year besides Sundays, on which by poetic license (for even then it is only half true) we may say labor is generally suspended; one of them, the Fourth of July, two others serve to link the closing with the opening year, and the fourth day—Thanksgiving—comes at the gubernatorial recommendation. We want more holidays. Every month should have its day for secular amusements and relaxation from business.

Holidays now are so rare that our people hardly knew how to enjoy them. Think for example, how most people spend our national anniversary. Those who labor to get up displays for the public gratification, certainly deserve credit.—Many seek for enjoyment where they too often get only disgrace—in sinks of dissipation. Others in littlelessness doze away the day. While a wise few quietly delight the eye by the public display, and the ear and mind by the literary festivities, and end in quiet pleasures at home; or with appreciating companions seek at once the charms of nature and of social intercourse, by a pic-nic in some secluded grove The very rarity of a day of relaxation makes it to many an irksome task to get through its hours So it is, too, in a different way, but even more generally, on Chrismas and New Years, as well as on Thanksgiving. People eat, and the holiday centers and passes with the dinner.

Those who are more used to holidays can make a better use of them. A great many are like the cook who once having a day given her as her own, never once rose from her bed, but slept the whole twenty-four hours Aristotle's remark that a bow should not always be bent it you would retain its spring, contains the explanation of this failure to use the season of relaxation well. Habits are formed so stubbornly, that when the pressure of business is removed, the mind cannot put on native elasticity. The truth is, men with us become mere drudges, and allow themselves to be swallowed up in business. More particularly is this true of the middle classes, measured by wealth, and of those who have made or are rapidly making their own fortunes. We have do doubt that this lack of relaxation is one cause of the alleged inferiority of the inhabitants of this country, as compared with others more addicted to amusements.

Give us a holiday a month. Let the youth of both sexes calculate upon it for the four weeks preceding. They will project excursions; they will invent diversions; they will learn to enjoy themselves. As in consequence they will have a fresher spirit, a more buoyant and more firmly knitted frame, and the labors of life will be much more cheerfully performed. We are not sure either, but that every one would be as rich at the end of the year, after enjoying a dozen holidays, as if stinted to two or three. The doctor's bill would be less, and there would be vastly less of the dissipation and beastilness too prevalent now on a day of festivity.

The call of the country is for more holidays He who shall introduce them will certainly have more title to the public gratitude than many who are enjoying honors to which they have no legitimate claim. Who will enter the lists to introduce more holidays?

"Floating Down the River Ohio."—The pilot of the Strader, Joseph Guthrie, on Wednesday night last was somewhat startled by the warblings of a juvenile voice, soon after the boat had passed Warsaw. There was not a house visible on either side of the river, and from whence the voice emanated would have been a mystery had not a cry been heard of "Take me on board!" The engines were immediately stopped, the yawl sent out and a youngster relieved from a small raft upon which he was floating all alone. Dr Dunning took him in charge, and on questioning him, he said his name was Thomas Wright; that he lived in Patriot, and while playing upon some floating boards in the Ohio, he got into the current and was unable to regain the shore. When asked how he felt when in the middle of the river, and in the night, upon such a frail vessel, his reply was: "God wouldn't let me get hurt" He said he was singing "Floating down the river on the Ohio," to pass the lonely time. He was brought to the city and was yesterday delivered into the hands of his parents, at Patriot, who were greatly distressed at his absence. The little fellow would do for an Arctic explorer

A Serenade.—The Indianans in Washington turned out en masse on Saturday night, with Esputa's celebrated band, to serenade their Senators, Messrs. Bright and Fitch At about eleven o'clock they proceeded to the mansion of Mr. Bright. A son of Mr. B, a manly young lad of sixteen came out and announced that his father had not yet returned from the Senate chamber, but in his name he would return his thanks for the compliment they had paid him. The company were then invited into the house, where, where they partook of the good things set before them.

They were fortunate enough to catch Senator Fitch at home, who, after repeated calls, came forth and said:

"Indianians! I know at least half of you. My friends, I thank you for this compliment. It is late I am fatigued, and will only say that I shall fullfil the promise made to my political friends at the time I was elected: 'If God lets me live, I will serve out the full term for which I was elected:' and with such a constituency as I represent, and in such a cause as we are engaged, I feel that He WILL let me live Again, I thank you for this compliment. Good night!"

The company then gave three hearty cheers for Fitch.

The company then proceeded to the mansions and serenaded W. W Corcoran Esq.; Senators Pugh, Toombs, Benjamin, Slidell. Green and Sebastian. They only succeeded in catching Mr. Green at home, though he had retired to bed. He plead exhaustion; he had been at work over eleven hours, and he knew the Hooiers—always generous—would excuse him. Missouri and Indiana were neighbors and friends, and he hoped they always would be.

After three cheers for Green, given with a will, the company, at a late hour, dispersed.—Washington Star.

Truth in a Nutshell.—The Washington Union of the 3d, says:

What we have quarreled about since the organization of the Government in point of fact, has been the disposition of slavery in the public territories. This question has been fiercely discussed in Congress and throughout the North on one side, and the South on the other; and yet the North has no interest in it—no power to decide it, no right to interfere with it. The South had no more just claim over it and authority to control it than the North. Congress had no business with it—could not shape it, dislodge it, prohibit it. The people of the territories were its governors They could create or abolish it when they came up to man's estate. Thus this fright abstraction—this miserable bone of contention—this lifeless and inanimate spector—has been permitted to overshadow all the great interests of the Union, and embroil the industry of one section against the other.

☞ The French Gazette Medicale states that, by an accident, charcoal has been discovered to be a cure for burns. By laying a piece of cold charcoal upon the burn, the pain subsides immediately. By leaving the charcoal on one hour the wound is healed, as has been demonstrated on several occasions. The remedy is cheap and simple, and certainly deserves a trial.

Allege Murderess Arrested.—Yesterday afternoon Marshal Rehm and officer Kauffman, of the detective force, arrested Caroline Katrina Frederika Schwarts, upon a charge of poisoning a man in Buffalo, N. Y., and will send her to that city to day, for trial. It appears that she came to Buffalo three weeks ago, in company with a paramour, and stopped at a German boarding house. Twelve days afterwards her paramour died in great agony At first it was supposed that he was suffering from delirum tremens, but from some symptom in the case it was suspected he might have been poisoned and a post mortem examination was held which showed that these suspicions were correct. Mrs Schwars had left during the man's sickness, and a description of her was sent to Marshal Rehm. Yesterday afternoon she was found in the street near the Post Office, and taken into custody. She was boarding here in a house on South Canal street, near Niemeyor's Hotel.

Mrs Schwars, from her own account, is a remarkable women, and has passed through adventures enough to make a startlingly novel, and the Ledger or Police Gazette should not permit such an eligible opportunity to escape them. She states that her father is a Major General in the army of Baden, Germany; that she has served as an officer, wearing male apparel, in the German, Russian, and French armies; that she has fought the Circassians, and the Arabs in Algiers; that she has fought four duels, and exhibits scars received in three of them; that her father is worth four millions of guilders, and that she expects to receive, within a short time, $40.000 from Germany; that she came to this country ten years ago, and three years afterwards was married, and until recently has lived with her husband on a farm two miles from Danville, N. Y.; that she left him three or four weeks ago, because another wife with three children came over from Germany and claimed her faithless spouse.

She appears to be a highly educated woman and has a large quantity of elegant clothing. She states that the poison was administered in a glass of wine, but denies having given it herself. Last night she wept bitterly, and said she would be forced to stand a trial without the advice of friends or means to defend herself.—Chicago Tribune.

A Thief's Potograph—Less tragical was the denouement or a larceny perpetrated the other day in the noble forest of Fontainebleau, on the great-coat and luncheon of an enthusiastic artist, who was to intent upon the work of photographing one of the loveliest sites in the picturesque solitudes of that renowned locality, to observe the cautious advance, successful operations, and triumphant retreat of a stroller, in possession of his property It was not until the conclusion of his picture that the enraptured artist bethought him of his "prog," and feeling that he had earned his refection, betook himself to a neighboring tree at whose foot he had deposited his surtout and his gouter Judge of the poor fellow's astonishment and dismay at the loss of his property, and the seeming impossibility of discovering the thief who had so completely "sold" him! But judge also of his astonishment on perceiving the photograph on which he had been so intent, and faithfully preserved the image of the ravisher of his missing property, with the aid of a magnifying glass, which the artist had in his pocket, the dress and features of the thief were perfectly discernible. Furnished with this important clue, the artist hastened to the police authorities of the little town, and showed them the features of the thief With the aid of this indication, hastily transmitted to the various police stations on the borders of the forest, the guardians of the peace entered upon the task of recovering the stolen property; and a couple of hours afterwards the thief was taken, and the artist had the satisfaction of recovering his coat, and all the contents of its pockets, minus only the packet of luncheon which the rascal had already appropriated beyond recall —*Cor. The Iowa Gold Stories a Humbug.—Mr. John Daily, of Osceola, Clark county, Iowa, writes to the Indianapolis Journal that the stories of large quantities of gold having been found in Iowa are all false. Mr D. says that he lives in the vicinity of the Clark county mines. He says:

I am acquainted with those who have been trying to work them, and know something of the success they have had. There have been found, in no instance, pieces that would exceed in magnitude a small wheat grain, and shaped like flaxseed. As to the profitableness of the business, no person has yet made enough to justify him him in continuing at it, although men would willingly labor for seventy-five cents cash per day.

Our country is being flooded with strangers coming from the different States, big with the expectation of soon realizing a fortune by mining. The disappointment is so great that they become disgusted with everything connected with Clark county, although it has much splendid land, good timber, and fine farms, and thriving towns and villages; yet they can see nothing of its natural agricultural advantages, on account of their disappointment.

Robert Dale Owen Converted.—Private letters from the Hon. Robert Dale Owen, United States Minister to the Court of Naples, written to his friends at New Harmony, announce the gratifying intelligence that he has become converted to the Christian religion. Mr Owen is well known throughout this State for his scholastic attainments, but his influence has ever been weakened heretofore by his heterodox views of Christianity.—Vincennes (Ind) Gazette.

The Atlantic Cable.—A private letter from an intelligent gentleman and a practical telegrapher who witnessed on the 29th ult., at Plymouth, England, the formal tests of the several electricians in telegraphing through the entire lenght of the Atlantic Cable, states that Prof. Hughes, with his wonderful printing telegraph machines, was able to write through the 3,000 miles of Cable, at the rate of 22 letters per minute. Equal to about seven words A degree of success which was as unexpected as it was gratifying. Prof. Whitehouse was able to write only at the rate of nineteen words in eighteen minutes, and Prof. Thompson was utterly unable to work at all through the Cable.

Strange Case.—Some time in the month of January last a man named Harrison Mauzy was committed to the Daviess County Jail, on a charge of murdering his wife. After remaining in jail a few days he was found dead and at that time Mr. Wallace was acting as jailer Wallace shortly after fled to parts unknown. An inquest was held over the body of Mauzy, and the verdict was that he came to his death by some unknown violence So things remained until quite recently, when Wallace was arrested somewhere in Illinois, and brought here on Tuesday last to answer the charge of murder. Wallace is now in jail to await his trial at the next Circuit Court —Owensboro (Ky) American.

Marriage as an Antidote.—The Buffalo Express states that a verdant but excessively loving couple belonging to Canada, upon getting married travelled across the line, and brought up at a Hotel in Cleveland. Upon retiring at night, through haste, or negligence, or ignorance, they blew out the gas instead of turning it out In the morning, while the boarders in all the adjoining rooms were half dead, the happy lovers were brighter and happier than ever. Gas couldn't smother them. The inference is (say the Express) that marriage is an antidote for poison.

☞ It is understood, however, much the President may desire to visit the West during the recess of Congress—and the having been made that such was his intention—that the pressure of public business will prevent him so doing.

SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1858.

Our Congressional Convention.—There is no call yet issued for the Congressional Convention We would suggest to the committee that it is high time the call was made and the question settled. Kendallville is a very suitable place for the meeting, and we should think the first week in August, providing the call is made immediately, would be a proper time.

County Convention.—The Democratic Committee have issued a call for a County Convention to assemble at the Court House, on Saturday, the 31st July next; the township meetings to appoint delegates to be held on the previous Saturday, July 24th.

The approaching election will be one of some interest, as we have a Clerk, Treasurer, Sheriff, County Commissioner, Senator, and two Representatives, besides Congressman and State Officers to elect. We therefore hope all good Democrats will feel it a duty to attend the township meetings, and be careful to select their very best men for delegates to the County Convention. This is essential to success, as on their selection of candidates much depends. We ought to be particularly careful to nominate not only capable men for the various offices, but also men whose democracy is unimpeached and unimpeachable, and such as every democrat in the county will feel it a bounden duty cheerfully, heartily and zealously to support All depends on the character of the delegates to whom the selection is entrusted; and we therefore repeat the admonition to all true democrats to attend the township meetings, and be particularly careful to send none but true, faithful unfaltering Democrats as delegates to the County Convention. This is a matter that has not hitherto on all occasions been as strictly attended to as it ought; and it is one that may, if further neglected, lead to difficulties and dissensions, and by weakening faith in our convention method, eventually pave the way to a disastrous defeat and the destruction of our supremacy in this county.

The convention system, properly carried out, is the only true and really democratic system of nominating candidates. If the people will only attend to it, it is the most fair system that can be devised, as the selection of candidates is left entirely to themselves, through their delegates If they neglect their duty, it may, like any other good thing, be perverted and brought into discredit. Every good democrat, then, owes it to his party to attend the meetings in his township and sustain the convention system, as the surest way of keeping up the organization and securing the success of the party.

We sometimes hear discontented and dubious democrats railing out against the dictation and control of political managers and cliques, who take the business out of the hands of conventions and usurp the nomination of candidates. We have never been able to discover any grounds for such charges, and have scarcely ever heard them made by a democrat who could be relied on to support the democratic candidates, or who was in the invariable habit of voting the pure unscratched democratic ticket.

If the people—that is, the mass of the democratic party—will only do their duty, such a thing cannot happen; the majority must rule, and the few who are supposed to constitute this much dreaded bugbear of a clique are powerless among so many; the power is in the hands of the masses, and it is their duty to use it.

As, in view of the importance of the approaching election, it is desirable to have the utmost harmony and union in our ranks and not give our enemies the opportunity to raise even the stale cry of clique against us, we therefore again urge a general attendance at the township meetings, the selection of good democrats for delegates to the convention, and the nomination of our best men for candidates.

☞ The Republican at this place is getting quite excited at its own performances, and its sanguine editor appears to indulge the dream that he is about to revolutionize the county, and "carry an entire republican ticket" It is our candid opinion, that notwithstanding his great political sagacity and unrivalled editorial ability, he slightly over-estimates his powers and influence, and will find the Allen democracy too firmly fixed in their principles to be led astray, even by his wonderful phillipics against the right of the Indiana Legislature to elect our U. S. Senators; or his equally powerful articles on the obsolete and now almost forgotten Kansas question He expects to carry this county for the republicans—or at least he says so, and we presume would not if he did think it true. We predict he will find himself minus at least 1000 votes in the accomplishment of his task. Place these two opinions on record, and see which proves nearest the truth.

☞ There is a report that the Cholera has broken out in Toledo The papers of that place make no mention of any such calamity, and as we do not see any account of the Cholera in any part of the United States, we are inclined to hope and believe that the report is utterly without foundation.

Seventh Congressional District.—Hon. Henry Secrest, of Putnam Co. has been nominated for Congress by the democratic convention for the seventh district, now represented by Hon. John G. Davis. On the 1st ballot Mr Secrest received the vote of every delegate, except those of Vigo Co. Mr Secrest is one of the ablest and best informed statesmen in the country, and will be elected by a large majority He was opposed to the Lecompton bill, but his opposition was of an honorable, manly character, avoiding the violence and ultraism which marked the course of some weaker-minded men on the first agitation of that question: He cordially accepts the English compromise as a fair and final settlement of the matter.

The Indiana Senators.—Senate on Saturday, by a decided vote adopted the report of the committee declaring that Messrs Bright and Fitch are entitled to their seats as Senators from Indiana; the former until the 3d of March, 1863, and the latter until the 3d of March. 1861.

These two cases presented the peculiar feature that there was in neither of them any other party claiming the seats, but the investigation took place in consequence of a protest from a portion of the members of the Legislature, alleging an informality in holding the convention of the two Houses at the time of the election, and against the certificate of the Governor, under the broad seal of the State, declaring that they were both duty elected

Mr Bright has been so long and so favorably known as an experienced and efficient member of the Senate for some time, indeed, the President pro tem. of the body and one so justly possessing the respect and confidence of his colleagues, that his loss could not but have been most sensibly felt in the National Councils; and thought his colleague. Mr Fitch, being a new member, (having taken his seat for the first time during the present session,) has not had either the same opportunities or the legislative experience of Mr. Bright, yet he gives the promise that he will prove a valuable accession to that important conservative branch of the National Legislature. We have no doubt therefore, that the present decision will give satisfaction even to those members of the Senate who, from convictions of duty, opposed the report of the Judiciary Committee.

☞ We copy the above from the National Intelligencer, and when we consider that it has been a life long opponent of the Democratic party, and is still opposed to it, the above indeed is a high compliment, but not higher than deserved. We commend it to the special consideration of our friend Bailey of the Republican. Great men, we are aware, will sometimes differ in opinion, and Mr. Bailey may perhaps think he is better qualified to judge in this matter than even the veteran editors of the Intelligencer, although the latter have been for almost a generation the acknowledged leaders of the opposition party, under all its various phrases and names. Self-confidence is a very commendable virtue—but it may be carried to an excess; and if the newly-fledged editor of the Republican would pay a little deference to the opinion of his seniors who may have had better opportunities for arriving at a correct conclusion than even he has; and above all, if he would endeavor to stick a little closer to the truth in his assertions, he would probably be able to accomplish more for his party than he will if he pursues his present course.

The Weather is extremely warm, having ranged from 90° to 93° for the past four or five days. Although rather uncomfortable for us unfortunate inhabitants of a dusty city, it is just the weather for the growing crops. The wheat is rapidly maturing, and looks promising; we hear of some few instances where it has suffered from the fly or weevil, and an occasional case of damage by standing water, but on the whole, if we have fine weather for the next three or four weeks, we may reasonably look for a good crop. The corn that was planted before the rain, and escaped drowning out, looks well, and the fine weather encourages the farmers to proceed with the planting, and hope for a favorable season. Agricultural matters look decidedly more cheerful than they did two weeks ago.

This extremely warm weather following so closely after the excessive rains and floods we have experienced, may reasonably be expected to cause much sickness, unless proper precautions are taken. Our city is in a filthy condition and needs a thorough cleansing; the authorities ought to have all the streets and alleys (the latter especially, many of which are perfect nuisances) immediately put in order, all stagnant water drained off, and all lots which require it filled up or properly drained; and our citizens ought to lose no time in thoroughly cleansing up their premises and removing everything offensive or detrimental to health; and above all, should have their cellars, many of which are full of stinking water, immediately pumped out and cleansed. There is perhaps nothing more likely to create sickness than this last mentioned cause, and we therefore call attention more particularly to it. Lose no time in having the cellars pumped out Neglect may lead to fatal results.

The report of the Board of Health will be found on our first page, and we direct the attention of all our citizens to its suggestions.

The Foundation Stone of the St. Mary's German Catholic Church, Lafayette Street, will be laid to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, with the usual appropriate ceremonies, by Bishop Luer, the bishop of this diocese.

This is intended to be a magnificent structure, and will, when completed, be an ornament to our city. It will be 145 by 65 feet, 40 feet high, with a steeple 175 feet, and is calculated to accommodate 2000 persons. It will be built of brick and stone, and is estimated to cost from $45,000 to $50,000. It is designed to have the building up and roofed this season; the carpenter work, finishing of the interior, &c., will probably occupy another year, and the church is expected to be ready for service by the fall or winter of 1859. The Church is large, but not more so than the wants of the congregation will require, while the durability and beauty of the structure will be a lasting monument of the zeal and liberality of those who expect to worship within its walls.

Macfarland's Theatre.—This excellent dramatic troupe is now giving a series of entertainments at Colerick's Hall, and are eminently deserving public patronage. Much as we had been led to expect from the favorable notices we have seen of them in other places, it is but justice to say, that they exceed our expectations. Last night the comedy of The Serious Family, and the farce of Perfection, or the Maid of Munster, were presented in excellent style. The audience we regret to say, owing probably to the extreme hot weather, was not so large as it ought to have been. The entire company appear to be perfectly genteel and respectable, and worthy the countenance of our community, and present an array of talent, especially in the female department, not often witnessed in travelling companies. Miss Jenny Parker is a most accomplished actress and vocalist, and her young sister, Miss J Parker, is also a graceful and clever actress; Jessie Macfarland is by far the best danseuse that ever showed her graceful proportions and astonishing agility on our boards. An excellent bill is presented for this evening, and we advise all who have any taste for theatricals to be present. The excellence of the performance will ample compensate for the inconvenience of the heat of the weather.

Pic Nic of the Harmonic Society.—The Pic Nic to come off next Saturday promises to be a most agreeable affair. Two boats have been engaged for the occasion, which will be suitably fitted up and decorated, and will start, one from near the Rockhill House, and the other from Comparet & Hubbell's dock at half past seven in the morning, and proceed to a beautiful grove known as the Elysian Fields, on the canal, four miles east of the city. The String Band of the Society and Orff's Brass Band will accompany the party, and an abundance of Ice Cream, Stawberries, Lemonade and more substantial viands will be provided.

On reaching the grove, the performances of the day will be opened by a prayer from Rev. E. Curtis; the Declaration of Independence will be read by E L. Chittenden: an Address delivered by B. W. Oakley, and an Oration by I. Jenkinson, together with music, singing, &c. After Dinner, the usual toasts will be given, and then various amusements will be presented. At an early hour in the evening the company will return to city.

Messrs. S S Morss, W Haskell, G F Stinchcomb, and A Gibford will officiate as Marshals. The Committee of Arrangements consists of G Nelson, B Morss, M H Taylor, W Latham, E L Chittenden, W L Hulse, G. F Stinchcomb, and D N Bash.

Tickets to admit a gentleman with one or more ladies, $2 00. To be obtained of any member of the committee.

As there will be no regular celebration of the Fourth in this city, we presume a large company will avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by this arrangement, and that they will have a pleasant time we cannot admit of a doubt

Newspaper Depot.—John Kitch has establish'ed a newspaper depot in the corner store of the Ewing building, on the canal, north of Reed's Drug Store, and receives by express, in advance of the mail, the Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Chicago and other daily papers, and delivers them to subscribers at publisher's rates. Such an undertaking deserves support.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.

Persuant to notice the Democrats of Allen County assembled in Mass Meeting, at the Court House of said County, on the 19th day of June, 1858, to appoint Delegates to the Congressional Convention, for the Tenth Congressional District.

Another Steamboat Explosion.—One Hundred Lives Lost.—The boilers of the steamer Pennsylvania exploded Sunday morning, at six o'clock, at Ship Island, seventy miles below Memphis. The boat burnt to the water's edge. About three hundred and fifty passengers were on board. It is believed that one hundred were killed or missing. The Diana, Imperial and Frisbee took all they could find in the water on shore.

The Imperial first arrived at the wreck of the Pennsylvania, and took a large number of her passengers to New Orleans. The Diana arrived here at eleven o'clock on Sunday night, with a large number for Louisville. At a meeting of citizens $1,000 was raised for the sufferers. Committees were appointed to collect further for their aid. Rauch, of the opera troupe, died to-day. Others were not expected to live.

Appointments Confirmed—The following appointments have been confirmed by the Senate: George H Brown, District Attorney for Rhode Island; C B McFadden, Chief Justice for Washington Territory; Wm Strong and Ed C Fitzhugh, Associate Justices for Washington Territory; John Cradlebaugh, Associate Justice for Utah; Stanley Matthews, Attorney for Southern District of Ohio; Benjamin McCulloch, Marshal for Eastern District of Texas; George S Walden, Attorney for Northern District of Alabama; George H Williams, Chief Justice, and Reuben P Boise, Associate Justice for Oregon Territory: Joseph Millen, jr., Attorney for Michigan, and Mayor J Thomas, Marshal for Wisconsin.

ST JOHNS, N. F. June 21.

The Atlantic Cable.—The government will despatch a steamer to Trinity to pilot in the Niagara as near as practicable to the point where it is decided to land the Cable. The Niagara will be expected momentarily on and after next week; but from the fact that the fleet would use no steam in reaching the middle of the Atlantic, it is quite possible that the Niagara will not reach this coast before the first of July. This office has been placed in communication with the offices at Trinity Bay, and it is understood that the Telegraph Company will place their wires hence to New York at the service of the Press and the public for the transmission of such communication connected with the great event as may be handed in for a few days subsequent to the arrival of the Niagara.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.

From the Army.—A despatch from Leavenworth (18th June) per United States Express to Boonville, says:

Private advices from the army to May 28th mention the arrival of Lieu. Armstrong at Camp Scott with 75 head of cattle. Captain Hanna, with two hundred head of cattle, was three day's march from Camp Scott. A letter from an officer high in command, expressed the opinion that the troops would not be employed against the Mormons.

The Leavenworth Times contains a letter from Ft Bridger, May 21, which says that Brigham Young's principal Mormon Elders had consented to deliver themselves into the custody of the U. S Marshal and await a trial, provided they were tried by a jury in no way connected with the army.

A party of Mormons had arrived at Camp Scott in a half starved condition. They belonged to a portion who were opposed to Young.—They represent the church as torn with dissensions. They wish to return to the States.

The reception of Col Johnston's commission as Brigadier General caused much satisfaction in the army.

Capt. Newton's Engineers had reached Camp Scott, and reported that a permanent post would be established at Fort Bridger, at which Col. Hoffman will command.

NEW YORK, June 19.

The steamship Vanderbilt has arrived below. A portion of her advices have already been received via Cape Race. She made the voyage from Cowes to New York in nine days and sixteen hours. She reports favorable weather. She brings the following news in addition to that received via Cape Race: In the House of Lords, June 8, the Earl of Clarendon asked if the Government could lay before the House any information concerning the proceedings of the British cruisers in the Gulf of Mexico. Lord Malmesbury said he had nothing but ex parte statements, but, from a conversation with the American Minister, he believed there was no great difference in the views of both countries on the question, and from the orders sent to the officers of the West India squadron, no repetition of such proceedings was likely to occur. The London Times' city article, of Tuesday, says: "The steamer Persia's advices of the feeling of America on the Gulf outrages had but a slight effect upon the funds, the decline being only ⅛, and the market soon rallied again. The leader of the Times, speaking of these outrages, says the treaties with France and America having expired, it is madness for England to assert pretensions to which no strong and independent power is likely to submit. The good done by searching foreign vessels is nothing compared with the bad blood engendered, and though many of the so-called outrages are undoubtedly exaggerations, enough is known to prove that the practice of searching vessels under the American flag ought to be ended at once. The eruption of Mt. Vesuvius still continued. On the 28th ult., with a more threatening aspect, liquid fire was pouring from several craters, and the entire valley of Atrio was a mass of flames. Villagers were fleeing in all directions, and the destruction of the town of Portici was feared. The Times' Paris correspondent says there is more commercial distress in France than at any time since the Revolution of 1848. General Almonte, the newly-appointed Mexican Minister to Spain, was expected at Paris every day. He is charged with the settlement of the difficulty between the two countries, having ample powers for that object.

Arrival of the Persia.

ST JOHNS, June 21

The R. M. steamship Persia, Capt Judkins, from Liverpool on Saturday, June 12th, was boarded off the Cape at 8 o'clock on Sunday evening by the Steamer Victoria, the newly employed news yacht of the associated press. The Persia has 128 passengers for New York. The news is quite interesting as will be seen from the subjoined summary of its points.

The Atlantic fleet sailed on the 10th.

Liverpool Breadstuffs—The market for breadstuffs was dull, but generally steady.

Richardson S. & Co', reports the weather favorable for the growing crops. Flour was quiet. Western canal 20a21s. Philadelphia & Baltimore 21a21s 6d. Ohio 21s 6da23s Wheat dull at the decline of Tuesday reported per the Vanderbilt. Red western 5s 6da5s 7d Southern white 7sa7s 2d. Corn quiet 34s 4da34s 9d for Yellow 32-a32s 6d for white.

Provision Market.—The Liverpool provision market was generally steady. Beef quiet, but steady, holders offered freely but showed no disposition to press sales Pork firm at last quotations Bacon was also firm Lard dull at 56s, an extreme price in retail. Tallow was nominal.

A new weekly line of steamships, of which the Indian Empire, formerly the United States, is the pioneer, was ready for operation. The Indian Empire with the colonial and U. S. mails, would leave Galway for Halifax and New York on Friday last. She was expected to run from Galway to Halifax in 8 days.

The terms upon which the Cagliari affairs has been settled, are as follows: Naples agrees to compensate the English engineers with £3 000 to place the Cagliari at the disposal of Queen Victoria, and to liberate the Sardinian prisoners forthwith.

The warlike preparations going on in France attract the attention of the English Press and Parliament.

In the House of Commons, Mr D'Israeli repudiated all idea of danger of a war with France, and said, the relations of the two powers were of the most amicable nature.

Mr Fitzgerald had stated in the House of Commons, that Mr Mason the American Minister at Paris labored under grave misapprehensions in representing England as acquiescing in the free labor movement.

On the 10th, in the House of Lords, on motion of Lord Brougham, a bill was read the first time, the object of which was to render the fraudulent negotiation of bills of exchange penal. The bill abolishing property qualifications for members of Parliament, was debated and read the second time. The bill extending the franchise in counties to holders of £10 tenements, the same as in boroughs, was brought up a second time for reading. The government opposed any action upon the measure at present, but, upon a test vote, there was a majority of 58 against the government, and the bill was read the 2d time.

On the 11th, in the House of Commons, in reply to an enquiry, Lord Stanley said: The Government had sent a dispatch to India disapproving of the policy of annexation, and disavowing the annexation of Dahr.

The India reports were taken up, and after the rejection of the proposition by Lord John Russell, to limit the council to 12 members, it was resolved that it should consist of not more than 15 or less than 12.

India—Sir Hugh Rose had completely defeated the enemy, at Gowey, killing 500 men and capturing 7 guns, He was within 14 miles of Calpee on the fourteenth of May, and it was expected the attack would be made on the 16th. The garrison at Shah Jehanpore 600 strong, was surrounded by 8,000 rebels with 15 guns, but no fears were entertained for their safety, relief being near. A village in central India had been stormed, after an obstinate resistance, and all the male inhabitants put to the sword.

The dates from Bombay received by telegraph from Malta are to the 21st of May. The British had entire possession of Rholicund. The enemy deserted Bareilly as the British approached An attack on Calpee was expected in a few days. Oude was quieting down.

The Bank of France has increased its specie nearly seventy million francs in a month.

The Atlantic telegraphic fleet expected to reach mid ocean and commence the operation of laying the cable about the 20th of June they would proceed the under sail. The Agamemnon was towed out of Plymouth Sound at 9 o'clock A. M. On the 10th the Niagara left under steam at 11 o'clock The Squadron subsequently started under canvass with a northerly breeze.

The Spanish journals say that Concha remains Governor General of Cuba.

A misunderstanding between Austria and France was considered imminent.

WASHINGTON, June 21.

Colonel Kane arrived here last night, bringing despatches from Gov. Cumming, whom he left at Camp Scott on the 16th of May. They were delivered to the President of the United States.

Contrary to reports widely circulated, Kane does not admit there has been any such want of harmony between Gov Cumming and Gen Johnston, as would jeopardize the public interest. He speaks in eulogistic terms of the high state of discipline in which the latter maintained his forces, and of the praiseworthy spirit manifested by the army during the winter. The friends of the administration are much pleased with the manner in which he is understood to allude to the conduct of Mr. Cumming, saying he is deserving the gratitude of the country There was great hope in Utah, as elsewhere, that the war was at an end. A peace party had been formed and was sufficiently strong, in time to arrest the Mormon forces against our own, last spring It was the impression in Utah that Brigham Young, (who openly espoused the cause of the United States) would in this respect be able to maintain his position. There was at one time strong opposition to him, before emigration was resolved upon, but ever since this feeling of hostility has been subsiding.

WASHINGTON, June 22.

Sufficient intelligence has been received to leave no doubt that Capt Marcy's command has reached Camp Scott in Safety. It was the intention of Gov Cumming when last heard from to proceed at once to open a trade with the valley; many of the mormons were understood to own more cattle than they were desirous of carrying away and of which they were anxious to dispose. The safety and general welfare of the troops at Camp Scott, and elsewhere, between that post and the U. S., may be reckoned on with confidence. The Mormon troops had been entirely withdrawn from the approaches to Salt Lake though the people threatened to return, if the army advanced before they secured the wheat harvest. Gov Cumming says that it may be regarded as safe for emigrants from the U. S. to proceed to California via Salt Lake, the road being entirely open.

WASHINGTON, June 22.

The official advices received from England are of a more favorable character towards this country, and disavow intentional offences against our flag, and mention the fact that prompt orders have been issued to discontinue the visits which have given rise to the present difficulties Her Majesty's Government does not insist on visitation or search as a right, but as both nations are trying to put a stop to the Slave Trade there is desired a mutual understanding or arrangements as to the proper and most acceptible manner of ascertaining the character of suspected slavers. This is the mooted point The tenor of the despatches was far from being unsatisfactory—in fact, the doctrine so maintained by our government is considered as practically acknowledged by Great Britain. The differences between the two countries are not such as cannot be amicably accommodated.

It is understood that the Cabinet to day had under consideration the affairs of Utah, which are so complicated as to require great caution in their management. From the present indications all the troops now on the way will continue the march to Utah. What additional measure will be pursued will depend on the character of the next official despatches from that quarter.

NEW YORK, June 24.

The Tribune correspondence says: Much doubt is still entertained here as to the final purposes of the Mormons and the unpublished despatches of Governor Cumming convey some apprehension, which Colonel Kane's repeated conferences have not removed. At last official accounts, they had possession of the mountain passes, and the ultimate design of the exodus a matter wholly of speculation. For this reason, among others, that may not be disclosed, it is deemed most prudent, if not absolutely necessary, to maintain a show of effectual force to second the civil officers in asserting the Federal authority.

The Courier correspondence says: Earl Malmsbury's despatches to Lord Napier express the hope that the President will reconsider the despatches of Secretary Cass to Lord Napier of the 10th of April, declining further stipulation for the prevention of the Slave Trade; and that he will agree to a convention for the correction of the abuses of the American. Full reparation is promised for recent occurences.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: Col Kane was in conference this morning with the President and Secretary of War. He expressed the opinion, that there is still cause for apprehending danger from the Mormons. His statements are not entirely satisfactory. He has certain inexplicable reservations difficult to understand. When it was suggested that the mission of the Peace Commissioners was too late, he said, that they had still abundant opportunity for useful exercise. They meet again to morrow, after which, the disposition of General Johnston's command and the advancing reinforcements will be determined.

ST. LOUIS, June 21.

The Kansas City Journal of Commerce—Extra of the 19th—says that a mass meeting was held at Fort Scott, Kansas, on the 15th. to take into consideration the best means for the adjustment of the difficulties in that region. Resolutions were unanimously adopted to the following effect: We will proceed through the civil organization of the county of Bourbon, and the township therein, in accordance with the law approved in February, 1858, and agree to refer all past offences against the Laws of the Grand Jury; we agree to refrain from prosecutions and vexations arrests for imaginary or petty offences and discountenance such proceedings from whatever source they may come we agree to exert ourselves to preserve the peace and assist in enforcing the laws; we agree to take no part in presumption claim quarrels, but to leave the contestants, to settle their claims according to law; we agree to hold every citizen of Fort Scott to a strict accountability for an assault or other unlawful act against any person whatever, we agree to afford whatever protection circumstances require to the citizens of Fort Scott, travelling in Bourbon County.

Gov. Denver agrees to withdraw the troops as soon as the town and county organization is completed, and he is satisfied that peace is fully restored.

Gov. Denver addressed the meeting and approved the resolutions.

The Wabash and Erie Canal.

Editor Courier:—To meet the general inquiry as to the extent of injury to this work, by the great flood of the 11th of June, I request the publication of this brief statement.

East of Lagro the canal is unharmed Thence to Peru the damage is but little, and will be repaired by to-morrow night. Between Peru and the lower end of slack water, there are several breaks, and much sand washed into the canal Boats may reach Delphi and Pittsburgh in about two weeks from this time, and Wildcat by the 10th or 12th of July. Between Delphi and Montezuma the damage is very heavy—much greater than ever before caused by a single flood since the canal was constructed, twenty years ago.

The largest injury is at Wildcat. Besides several break in the guard-bank and tow-path, and the loss of the fine bridge over the creek, a new channel for the stream was formed around the north of the dam, taking out the abutment The dam itself remains secure. In the repair eighty to one hundred feet will be added to its length, making the whole work, in that vicinity safer than heretofore.

The acqueduct over Wea Creek, one hundred and twenty feet in length, was wholly swept out Its destruction was hastened by the timber of the railroad bridges, with other driftwood brought down by the torrent. This structure is of wood, and can be rebuilt in a short time.

The superstructure of Shawnee acqueduct 90 feet long, is also gone, though the stone abutments are believed to be little injured.

A new channel is formed around the south end of the Shawnee Dam and one abutment taken out, as at Wildcat. The dam is safe. This is a small structure, and, this year, will not be essential to the opening of navigation

At Coal Creek a breach was made through the guard bank, and the stream passes around dam, causing heavy damage to the earthwork, though the dam and its abutments, with the two guard-locks and bridge, are uninjured.

In addition to the damage to the structures named, there are numerous breaks in the banks of the canal. The repairs have already been commenced, and will be prosecuted with assiduity, and the utmost dispatch, so as to resume navigation throughout, in time for the earliest shipments of the growing wheat crop.

J. L. WILLIAMS.

Lafayette, June 18, 1858.

Cairo—It is impossible to ascertain the damage with any accuracy, but it is not near as had been generally supposed, and in most instances can be easily repaired.

Only light-built and unsubstantial houses and shanties have floated off; of these there may be about forty, but of no great value. Perhaps twelve or fifteen buildings of better classes have been moved from their foundations more or less. There is no danger apprehended to any properly-built houses, even those which are set upon pins

From a few buildings the property was removed by cutting through the roofs.

The jail, a heavy wooden structure, was floated off, and moved some two hundred yards toward the north.

A number of cottages in the upper part of the town, known as "Edwardsville," have their roofs just visible above the water

At Mr. Jorgensen's, the highest location in town, the depth of water is seven feet

It is believed, by persons competent to judge, that the subsidence of the waters will leave a deposit of eighteen inches in the town, which will do much toward compensating for the damages. The Cairo Company's Agent talks very cheerfully of the prospects of the town, and says that all damage will be repaired as soon as the water falls, and the levees are to be raised and made eighty feet in width all round. It was a sixteen foot levee in which the break occurred. The crevasse is only about one hundred and fifty feet in length, and about ten feet deep. It is situated three hundred feet from the Mississippi River, and a quarter of a mile from the junction of the Ohio and Mississippi Levees.

The fall of the portion of the new hotel building to which reference is made in our report, was not attributable in any degree to the pressure of the water, as the walls have been out of line for some months, and its fall before this was confidently expected. Other large buildings, upon which there is the same pressure of water, will stand without any indication of weakness, and it is not expected that they will be at all affected by the pressure of any water upon them, however high.

The President.—Forney's Press says:

Mr Buchanan is not well, but the fatigue will soon pass off. He has labored with immense assiduity and care. The truth is, the President is the working-man of his Administration. He oversees everything. He intends to do his duty, and he does it. There is not a member of his Cabinet who does half his daily labor. He rises early and works late.

DIED,—On Saturday, June 19th, at the residence of Dr. Huxford, MRS. Z. A. wife of A. R. HENDERSON, in the 32d year of her age.

The deceased though comparatively a stranger in our midst, leaves many friends to mourn her early death.

——, In Lake Township, on Monday last, aged 60 years, MR. JOHN DOUGHERTY, one of the first settlers in that township.

——, On Saturday last, of hemorrhage of the lungs, CHARLES W. LEWIS, aged 26 years, son of the late Major Samuel Lewis of this place. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his early death. His remains were interred on Monday last, attended in the funeral procession by the Masonic and Odd Fellow Societies, and Fire Company, besides many citizens.

HALL OF FT. WAYNE LODGE, NO. 14, I.O.O F.
Monday Evening, June 21st, 1858.

Among the regular proceedings of the meeting of said Lodge, were the following:

The special committee appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of this Lodge, upon the death of our late brother Charles W. Lewis, made the following

REPORT.

Whereas, The late dispensation of Almighty Providence in removing from among us, by the hand of death, our much esteemed brother C W. Lewis, having fallen with sad and solemn weight upon our hearts, we would, while bowing in Divine submission to the Divine will, humbly express our appreciation of the great worth and exalted virtue of our deceased Brother. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Lewis our Lodge has lost one of its brightest ornaments, and most valued members; our country a good and worthy citizen; but by his family, upon whom his loss falls heaviest, he will ever be remembered as a worthy son, loving husband and kind brother.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathise with the bereaved family in their great affliction, and tender them the assurance that we share with them in the sorrow that is upon us all.

Resolved, That a copy of the above, signed by our officers and under the seal of our Lodge, be forwarded to the widow of our late Brother.

A Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of Summit City Lodge 170, F. & A. M. of Fort Wayne, held on the occasion of the death of Brother Charles W. Lewis, the committee before appointed for that purpose made the following

REPORT.

Whereas, It has pleased an All-wise Providence again to visit our Brotherhood, and take from among us our well beloved brother Charles W. Lewis, thereby renewing unto us the solemn lesson that "in the midst of life we are in death," and, while we bow in acquiescence to the dispensation which has filled our hearts with sadness, we may still rejoice in the full assurance that our brother has been raised to better and worthier associations, Be it therefore

Resolved, That in the death of our brother Charles W. Lewis, this Lodge has lost one of its worthiest and best members, community a good citizen, and his family one whose place can never be supplied.

Resolved, That in their deep affliction, we tender to the widow and family of our deceased Brother our heartfelt sympathy, and the assurance that we share with them in their sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing, properly certified by the officers of this Lodge be presented to the widow of our deceased Brother

I. JENKINSON.
EDWARD L. FORCE,
WM. H. NEWMAN.

Which preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted as the sentiment of this Lodge, and the papers of this city respectfully requested to give them publication.

ALERT HOOK & LADDER CO. NO. 1.
Fireman's Hall, June 21st, 1858.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

Whereas, It hath pleased Almighty God to take from our midst our beloved Friend and associate Charles W Lewis:

Resolved, That by the death of our worthy brother Charles W. Lewis, who was ever on the "Alert," and one of the first to "Haste to the Rescue," we lose a true hearted Fireman, and a social companion at our meetings, and in the ranks, whether on parade or on duty.

Resolved, That while we deplore the loss of a worthy member, we also deeply sympathize with his widow and orphan child, who mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and loving father; and

Resolved, That we implore the blessing of God to rest upon the afflicted family always

Resolved, That in token of our sincerity we drape our Hall and Truck in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days; also

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have the foregoing resolutions published in our city papers and a copy of the same be sent to the deceased brother's family.

Dr. Roback's Theory and Practice.

It would seem that Dr Roback's "Scandinavian Remedies" have taken the highest rank among the standard medicines of the day. His theory is, that in whatever organ disease may show itself, its roots are in the blood. Hence his famous Swedish curative, the Blood Purifier and the Blood Pills, are designed to act specifically upon the sanguineous fluid. One thing cannot be disputed, they produce most salutary effects even in apparently hopeless Individuals who have suffered for years from dyspepsia, scrofula, eruptions of the skin, bronchitis, asthma, general prostration, liver complaint, rheumatism, neuralgia, and many other distressing maladies, report themselves, over their own signatures, as radically cured by a course of these Remedies—The claims of Dr. Roback's advertisements are heretofore supported by proof. See Advertisement.

FOURTH OF JULY ODE.

Dr. Roback's Greeting

TO THE UNIVERSAL NATION:

Hail glorious day, beneath whose azure sky,
A giant nation from the womb of Time
First sprang to life, and Liberty on high,
To an admiring world by right divine
Claimed the new-born as hers, while tyranny
Cowered beneath that sun's resplendent rays,
Which blazed propitious on a land so free
As men and angels mingled hyms of praise:

All hail, Columbia; o'er the rolling wave
Thy stars and stripes in many a fearful fight
Have floated proudly, while thy sons so brave,
With dauntless hearts, and stern, relentless might,
Nobly have battled for thy rights and fame,
Winning from despots of the olden world
Fear and respect; long may thy name
Beam with bright hope, thy flag be aye unfurled.

But not in sanguinary war's red path,
No father in the cause of peace and joy—
No groans of anguish, but the merry laugh
Should welcome to our land the blue-eyed boy,
The God of Love, the Cornucopia's horn
Be emptied on thy hills and vales so free,
Thus may thy children greet the natal morn,
Of fair Columbia and of Liberty.

Ruddy checked health, with blessed, joyous train
Of happy fancies, still shall bless the land;
From Roback's Swedish herbs flies direful pain—
Dyspepsia's baffled, and the trembling hand
Of the poorer nervous wretch no longer shakes;
From his far famed Scandinavian remedies
Fever and ague quails, while health awakes,
And dire disease, with all its horrors, dies.

Corrupted blood, pure as the limpid stream,
Soon 'neath their magic influence courses free;
The dull dyspeptic's eye with health will gleam
Sparkles and rings the laugh in jollity.
Neuralgia, too, to all its horrid guise,
Is cured as certain as that day succeeds
The darksome night; and thus as surely flies
All lung complaints before his remedy.

Yet one more agent in the glorious strife—
Of battling Death he called up at his will—
Another new and joyous lease of life
I, brought by his Blood Purifier and Pill;
To all who have acquired the horrid taint,
Acute or chronic, as it chance to be
Of diseased liver. Quickly the complaint
Shall fly, and leave that organ whole and free.

Thus having to my patrons now proclaimed
The health inspiring virtues which possess
These medicines throughout the land, so famed
As having thousands upon thousands blessed,
I bid you all adieu; and may this day
Be ever cherished by the free and brave,
And Freedom's sun, with bright and genial ray,
Still gild the stars which o'er us proudly wave.

Great Bargains

For the Ladies of Fort Wayne!

AT KING'S,

Calhoun Street.

IN acknowledging the liberal and extensive patronage bestowed on the

NEW BONNET EMPORIUM,

since its opening, and in furtherance of extending the coming Fall Business of 1858, we shall commence our First Annual SELLING OFF

On Monday, June 21st.

And in order to effect an entire clearing of our magnificent SPRING and SUMMER

BONNETS, MANTILLAS, &c.

We beg to refer our patrons to the following reduction of prices, the whole of which will be sold

WITHOUT RESERVE.

As we stated in our opening advertisement, the 7th of April—the whole of our Goods were purchased for CASH, and from the first Houses in the East and Importers; our purchases were in sweeping LARGE LOTS, and our offers were such for the same, which effected, together with our experience in the markets, a saving of fully 50 per cent. below any other house in Indiana. At the same time we were compelled to take a large and extensive assortment, as our hitherto displayed stock abundantly testify. This will be our motto of doing business; and as each season revolves—Spring and Fall—at the advancement of each, we shall hold our Annual Selling off!

In order to sell out for the comming season.

The principal articles of great reduction and beauty now offered for sale, will be all our

PARIS MILLINERY,

I. M. SINGER'S

Patent Sewing Machine,

of the State of Pennsylvania (except the counties of Erie, Alleghaney and Philadelphia) State of Wisconsin, and the northern part of Indiana.

THE world wide reputation of these machines renders puffing unnecessary. All who have used Singer's Machines testify to their superior merits over all others. Over 12,000 have been sold and are now in active operation, and not one has proved a failure! By simply changing the needle and thread the same machine will execute perfectly every variety of work, coarse or fine, on cloth or leather. From $200 to $500 a year can be cleared by an individual using this machine more than can be cleared by hand.

Singer has also brought out a new

FAMILY MACHINE,

highly ornamented, which for beauty and expedition far surpasses all other Family Machines. These machines use two threads, forming a lock stitch in the centre of the goods sewed, and making a perfect back stitch on both sides of the cloth, which makes a seam much stronger and harder to rip than hand sewing, and dose not use more than two thirds as much thread as the chain stitch machine.

These machines are for sale by the undersigned, at his office on North Fifth Street, opposite Good's Hotel, Reading, Pennsylvania.

DR. ROBACK'S

BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD PILLS.

DISEASE VANQUISHED

BY

Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Remedies.

AFTER YEARS OF STUDY AND EXPERIMENT, Dr. Roback, the eminent Swedish Physician, succeeded in producing a medicine from twenty three different species of mountain herbs of his native land, which acts directly upon the cause of disease in the blood, and by restoring the corrupted fountain of life, to a condition of health and purity, expels disease from the system, wherever it may be located, or whatever may be its character. Indigestion, nervous complaints, epileptic and other fits, coughs, consumption in its early stages, sore throat, bronchitis, fever and ague, asthma, low spirits, sexual incapacity feminine weakness, prickling of the skin, symptomatic of paralysis, rheumatism, neuralgia, tumor, cancer, diabetes, lassitude and debility, diarrhea, and all other disorders of the organs of respiration, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach, the nerves of the muscular fiber, are unerringly cured by this preparation. It is to the materies morbi or seeds of disease what an alkali is to an acid; it neutralizes them with absolute certainty, while at the same time it regulates the secretions, removes obstructions from the bowels, creates appetite, renews bodily vigor, and regenerates every animal function. Such is the nature, such are the effects of Dr. Roback's famous Scandinavian Blood Purifier, which if taken in conjunction with the Scandinavian Blood Pills, will not only obliterate the most painful disease, but prevent their recurrence, and lengthen life beyond the ordinary span.

In the SCANDINAVIAN VEGETABLE BLOOD PILLS, Dr Roback presents the result of twenty years of experience, hard study and experiments as to what a perfect pill should be. No one can doubt their superiority after one single trial. Price of the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, $1 per bottle, or $5 per half dozen. Scandinavian Blood Pills, 25 cents per box, or five for $1.

Peru, Miami County, Ind., Aug. 4, 1854.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK: I have received so much benefit from your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, that I have thought it my duty, and it is no less my inclination, to give you a plain statement of my case. I was for years afflicted with that bane of all comfort, and efficiency in business, dyspepsia. To recapitulate all the so-called remedies which I have used to rid myself of this disease, would indeed make a melancholy catalogue. I also consulted with the best physicians I could hear of. I was induced to try your remedies through the persuasions of a friend, and after using them a few days was greatly benefitted, and in a short time, less than a month, I was entirely and permanently cured. I was also afflicted with the most violent nervous headache, which I suppose was produced by my disordered stomach, for when my dyspepsia left me, my headach left with it. I now feel better in every respect than I have for ten years.

Very truly yours, JOHN S. DEMUTH.

From the Rev. Mr. McMullen, Pastor of the Roberts Chapel:

Indianapolis, Oct. 5, 1857.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—I have used your Blood Purifier for a nervous affection, from which I have suffered much at times. While it is pleasant to the taste it certainly has a happy effect upon the nerves. Please accept my thanks for your kind regards and acts and believe me,

Yours, J. W. T. McMULLEN.

Cincinnati, Friday, Sept. 15th.

Dr. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—Having been afflicted with neuralgia or rheumatism for the past year and a half, and having seen your medicine, called the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, highly recommended gentlemen with whom I am acquainted, I was induced to try it, but not before I had used various other medicines. After using two bottles, I felt the effect very sensibly, and using two more, I found myself perfectly cured. You will allow me, therefore, to congratulate you upon making a discovery in medicine which is proving itself to be a worker of such wonders in the disease of the human family.

GEORGE S. BENNET,
Local Editor Cincinnati Daily Enquirer.

Indianapolis, Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1857.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—Having been troubled for several years with extreme debility and weakness, so much so that I was unable to attend to my ordinary business at times, and having heard of the wonderful cures that your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Pills were effecting I was induced by a friend to try them.

I have been using the Purifier for the last twelve months, and find the medicine fully equal to its recommendation. So valuable is it to me that I cannot now dispense with the use of it at my advanced age of life—seventy-seven years.

I cheerfully give this information for the benefit of those similarly affected. MORRIS MORRIS.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD

OF

RICH GLOSSY HAIR,

Completely Preserved TO THE GREATEST AGE.

AND who that is gray would not have it restored to former color; or bald, but would have the growth restored, or troubled with dandruff and itching but would have it removed, or troubled with scrofula, scald head, or other eruptions, but would be cured, or with sick head ache (neuralgia), but would be cured. It will also remove all pimples from the face and skin. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will do all this; see circular and the following:

Ann Harbor, November 5, 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have heard much said of the wonderful effects of your Hair Restorative, but having been so often cheated by quackery and quack nostrums, hair dyes, &c., I was disposed to place your Restorative in the same category with the thousand and one loudly trumpeted quack remedies, until I met you in Lawrence County, some months since, when you gave me such assurance as induced the trial of your Restorative in my family—first by my good wife, whose hair had become very thin and entirely white, and before exhausting one of your large bottles, her hair was restored nearly to its original beautiful brown color, and had thickened and become beautiful and glossy upon, and entirely over the head; she continues to use it, not simply because of its beautifying effects upon the hair, but because of its healthful influence upon the head and mind. Others of my family and friends are using your Restorative with the happiest effects; therefore my skepticism and doubts in reference to its character and value are entirely removed, and I can and do most cordially and confidentially recommend its use by all who would have their hair restored from white or grey (by reason of sickness or age) to original color and beauty, and by all young persons who would have their hair beautiful and glossy.

Very truly and gratefully yours,
SOLOMON MANN.

Friend Wood: I was long time after I saw you at Bloomfield before I got the bottle of Restorative for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Detroit, and when I got it we concluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as the surest test of its power. It has done all that you assured me it would do; and others of my family and friends, having witnessed its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as entitled to the highest consideration you claim for it.

Again, very respectfully and truly, yours,
SOLOMON MANN.

Carlyle, Ill., June 28, 1852.

I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely grey, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and have no doubt permanently so.

Mr. Blifkin's Baby.

That first bady was a great institution. As soon as he came into this "breathing world," as the late Wm. Shakspeare has it, he took command in our house. Everything was subservient to him! The baby was the balance wheel that regulated everything. He regulated the temperature, he regulated the food, he regulated the servants, he regulated me. For the first six months of that precious existence he had me up on an average six times a night.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "bring that light here, do; the baby looks strangely; I'm so afraid it will have a fit."

Of course the lamp was brought, and of course the baby lay sucking his fist like a little white bear as he was.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "I think I feel a draught of air; I wish you would get up and see if the window is not open a little, because baby might get sick."

Nothing was the matter with the window, as I knew very well.

"Mr. Blifkins," says my wife, just as I was going to sleep again, "that lamp, as you have placed it, shines directly in baby's eyes—strange that you have no more consideration."

I arranged the light and went to bed again. Just as I was dropping off to sleep,

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "did you think to buy that broma to-day for the baby?"

"My dear," said I, "will you do me injustice to believe that I could overlook the matter so essential to the comfort of that inestimable child."

She apologised very handsomely, but made her anxiety the scapegoat. I forgave her, and without saying a word more to her I addressed myself to sleep.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, shaking me, "you must not snore so, you will wake up the baby."

"Jest so—jest so," said I, half asleep, thinking I was Solon Shingle.

"Mr Blifkins," said my wife, "will you get up and hand me the warm gruel from the nurse lamp for baby—the dear child! if it wasn't for his mother I don't know what he would do. How can you sleep so, Mr. Blifkin's."

"I suspect, my dear," said I, "that it is because I am tired."

"Oh, it's very well for you men to talk about being tired," said my wife; "I don't know what you would say, if you had to toil and drudge like a poor woman with a baby."

I tried to sooth her by telling her she had no patience at all, and got up for the posset. Having aided in answering the baby's requirments I stepped into bed again with the hope of sleeping."

"Mr. Bifkins," said she in a louder key. I said nothing.

"Oh, dear," said the estimable woman, in great apparent anguish, "How can a man who has arrived at the honor of a live baby of his own sleep, when he don't know that the dear creature will live till morning?"

I remained silent, and, after a while, deeming that Mrs. Blifkins has gone to sleep, I stretched my limbs for repose. How long I slept I don't know, I was awakened by a furious jab in the forehead by some sharp instrument. I started up, and Mrs. Blifkins was sitting up in bed adjusting a portion of the baby's dress. She had in a state of semi-somnolence, mistaken my head for the pillow, which she customarily used for a nocturnal pincushion. I protested against such treatment in somewhat round terms, pointing to several perforations in my forehead. She told me I should willingly bear such trifling things for the sake of the bady. I insisted upon it that I didn't think it my duty as a parent to that young immortal required the surrender of my forehead for a pincushion. This was one of many nights passed in this way. The truth was that the bady was what every man's first baby is, an atocrat—absolute and unlimited. Such was the story of Blifkins as he related it to us the other day. It is a little exaggerated picture of almost every man's experience.—Saturday Evening Gazette.

Where the Plaster Was.

A certain doctor (rather modest young man by the way) was recently called in to see a lady who had been taken suddenly ill. The doctor found the application of a mustard plaster necessary, and accordingly went to work and made one, and laid it carefully by to prepare the lady for its application. Every thing was ready and the doctor sought the plaster; but, strange to say, it had disappeared. The doctor and the negro nurse searched high and low, in every probable place, for the missing plaster, but in vain; it was gone, no one could tell where. The nurse had not seen it since the doctor laid it on the chair. There was no other alternative but to go to work and make another, which was accordingly done. But still the question would present itself to all—what had become of the plaster? The circumstances of its having been spirited away began to tell unfavorably on the sick lady's nervous sensibility; but the doctor could not help it; he could not explain the mystery. The doctor in a deep brown study prepared to leave, and stood up before the fire to warm himself before encountering the cold without. Through the force of vulgar habit he parted his coat tails behind, when the nurse, displaying about four inches of ivory, said:

"I foun de plaster, massa doctor."

"Where?" eagerly asked the doctor, "where is it?"

"You got it ahind," said the nurse, grinning.

The doctor clapped his hands behind, and there it was sticking fast to the seat of his breeches, where he had sat down on it when it was lying on the chair. This was too much for the modest doctor. He seized his hat and bolted; nor could he be prevailed on to visit the lady during her sickness.

To Save Harness. It is the hairy side of leather that cracks; and if harness is made (if double) so that the fleshy sides are outward, and (if single) so that the hairy side is next to the horse will soften the hairy side; and, the bend being so that the flesny side is on the outside of the sedgment of the circle, no provocation is given to the inside of the circle to crack. Wagon-harness has lasted twenty years uncracked simply by this means. The harness-maker will object to it because he cannot put inferior leather in, as he otherwise could. But stirrup-leathers are made so, and so are shoes, and why not harness?

Giving Him the Strap.

There is a doctor in the north western part of this consolidated city who is especially remarkable for being, as the women call it, "short and crusty." A week or two since, he was called to visit a patient who was laboring under a severe attack of cheap whisky.

"Well, doctor, I'm down, you see; completely floored; I've got the tremendous delirium, you know!"

"Tremendous, you fool; where'd you get your rum?" queried the doctor.

"All over in spots; broke out promiscuously, doctor."

"Served you right; where did you get your rum?"

"Father died of the same disease; took him under the short ribs, and took him off bodily."

"Well, you're got to take something immediately."

"You're a trump, doctor. Here, wife, I'll take a nip of old rye."

"Lie still blockhead. Mrs B., it your husband should get worse before I return, which will be in an hour, just give him a dose of that trunk strap, maybe that'll fetch him to a sense of his folly."

The doctor sailed out grandly, and in an hour recalled in again, and found his friend of the delirium tremendous in a terrible condition, writhing and struggling with pain. His wife, a female of the plain but ignorant school, came up, and laying her hand upon the doctor's said:

"Doctor, I gave him the strap, as directed."

"Did you thrash him well?"

"Thrash him!" exclaimed the astonished woman. "No; but I cut the strap into hash, and made him swallow it."

"Oh, doctor," roared the victim, "I swallowed the leather, but I couldn't swallow the buckle."

The doctor administered a couple of pills and evaporated.

A FEW WORDS on the Rational Treatment, without medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impotency, and Impediments to marriages generally, by

B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that the many alarming complaints originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without Medicine, is in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and high successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

☞ Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. DE LANEY, 38 East 31st Street, New York City,

FRUIT TREES AND SHRUBBERY.

WE the undersigned, Proprietors of the Elm Park Nursery, and members of the firm of Fletcher, Williams & Loomis, of the Western Commercial Nursery at Indianapolis, Indiana, take this means of informing the public that we have purchased all the right, title, and interest of I. D. G. Nelson in the Elm Park Nursery, as heretofore carried on by W. H. Loomis & Co, and that every effort will be made, as heretofore, to merit the trade and confidence of the people. Having been engaged in the Nursery and Fruit business (and no other) for the past fifteen years, we are confident that we are qualified to meet the wishes of our patrons in this perticular, and to give valuable aid and advice in all matters connected with the Fruit business. The stock which we now offer for sale has been got up with the view of adaption to our soil and climate, knowing as we do that such will succeed when Eastern trees will in most cases utterly fail.

We therefore have the pleasure of offering for sale

10,000 Peach Trees

of the very best leading varieties A superior quality of the best, leading, hardy sorts.

STANDARD & DWARF PEAR TREES.

STANDARD & DWARF CHERRY TREES

Also a large collection of superior

PILES! PILES! PILES!!

This hitherto intractable disease, of every form and in every stage,

CURED BY EXTERNAL APPLICATION ONLY

Dr. Cavanaugh's PILE SALVE

WILL never fail in giving immediate relief, and positively curing the worst and most obtinate case of Hemorrhoids or Piles. It is the ONLY INFALLIBLE REMEDY KNOWN here or elsewhere for the Piles, and the result of years of patient study and investigations.

Sufferers from Piles now have a remedy at hand which will

Stand the Test of Trial,

without the fair of failure on its part to do all the proprietor claims for it,

Full directions accompanying each box; and all that is requisite is strictly to observe them, and a cure is certain to follow.

The proprietor refers to the following testimonials from gentlemen of character and standing, who have voluntarily given their certificates in its favor in regard to its efficacy in their own cases. Read them.

The following is from one of the most reliable citizens of Chicago, the late Treasurer of Cook County, Illinois:

Chicago, July 25, 1855.

Dr. Cavanaugh:—Dear Sir,—I wish hereby to make known to the afflicted that I have been troubled with the Piles for twenty years and upwards, and at times most severely. And during a recent and exceedingly painful attack a friend procured a box of your Salve, and asked me to give it a trial I did so; not however with the expectation of benefitting my disease, for truly, I had tried so many applications I had lost confidence in all. But in making use of your Salve, I soon found that it was doing me good; and really it is incredible to myself, that with only about two weeks' use of your Salve, I am so far as I can judge a well man.

I most cheerfully make this statement, believing it due both to yourself and such as may be afflicted with this most painful and trying disease. I do not hesitate to say that I consider your preparation an invaluable remedy for the Piles.

Most sincerely yours, N. N. HEALD.

The Hon Richard Yates, late member of Congress from the Springfield, Ill., district, says:

Jacksonville, Ill., Nov. 15, 1855.

Dr. Thos. H. Cavanaugh.—Dear Sir,—The preparation, Cavanaugh's Pile Salve, which you furnished, I found of great service. producing an easy and speedy cure. I do not hesitate to recommend it as an invaluable remedy for the Piles

Respectfully, RICHARD YATES.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

Mr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds, a remedy that cures

Every Kind of Humor,

FROM

The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple

TWO bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the kin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the wort kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

One to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it was caused by a canker in the stomach.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.

One to two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.

One to two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys,

Four to six bottles have cured the worst cases of dropsy.

One to three bottles has cured the worst case of piles; a relief is always experienced. What a mercy to get relief in such excruciating disease!

Since its first discovery, I have from time to time added various other herbs to it; of one of them, Hippocrates, the Father of Medicine, says: "It is an herb of Jupiter, and in the sign Leo.

"It openeth obstructions of the liver, gall and spleen; it is an especial friend to the liver, worth all other herbs put together; cooling it when too hot, and warming it when too cold.

"It createth an appetite, cureth all gone and ink ing feelings in the pit of the stomach, easeth all pains and stitches in the side.

"It cureth the jaundice by opening the gall, and restoreth the native color of the body.

"It expels all raw, vicious and slimy humors out of the body; it cleanseth all inward ulcers and congealed blood from the kidneys.

"By opening all obstructions of the spleen, it purgeth all burnt choler and melancholy vapors which riseth to the head and brain, causing distressing headache, fearful foreboding of trouble trembling of the heart, fainting and swooning.

"The herb boiled in wine is particularly good to revive the drooping spirits of the aged, and whoever has a lingering sickness after a fever, nothing restoreth him to health so quick as drinking the juice of this herb.

"The seeds boiled in water cureth the most offensive breath, and, drank at bedtime, preventeth what is commonly called nightmare, and all melancholy dreams, a disease billious people are liable to."

The Father of Medicine says of another herb in this composition, that "it is an herb of the Sun, and in the sign of Leo

"The sun is the source of all life, and ruleth the heart; and this herb is the best cordial, the greatest strengthener of the heart of any that grows; it comforteth the heart, cureth all palpitation thereof, taketh away trembling, fainting and smoothering of it; yet it must be take carefully, or severe gripings will ensue, which must be corrected with fennel seed or ginger.

"So much for this herb, between which and the adder there is the utmost antipathy, so much so that the adder will not touch him that has the herb about him."

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day;—Children over ten years, dessert spoonful;—Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions take sufficient to operate od the bowels twice a day.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Constipation Flatulency, Loss of Appetite or any Billious Complaints arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c. &c.

All of these ills yield like magic toits vilifying influence upon the system, and for a person in adaanced years, or recovering from sickness of any kind, nothing can be more conducive to their convalescence than the use of these Bitters as per directions on the bottles,

Scarcely four years have elapsed since the first introduction of "Dr. J Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters" to the public, and such has been the success of this article after its tested efficacy by a discriminating public, that during the last year nearly half a million bottles were sold, with a continuous demand in excess of the supply with all the facilities the proprietors have been able to command in its preparation.

Are you dyspeptic? Then take these Stomach Bitters.

Are you billious? Try one bottle of these Bitters, and be relieved at once.

Are you annoyed by Indigestion or constipation? Remove the cause by the free use of these Bitters.

Have you fever and ague? How many thousands in the West and South have been cured of this constitution-destroying disease by the free use of these Bitters!

All should try this great Antidote. We venture to affirm that, when Hostetters's Stomach Bitters are used, a case of Fever and Ague cannot occur: therefore, no family consulting their own interest can afford to do without it.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Inrecommending to your use Dr J Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, it is but just to state that as a simulant to the system, in imparting strength and vigor, preparatory to periodical stages, which are of times attended with much pain and trouble. we know of no preperation more happily adapted to all afflictions consequent upon this cause, and for crampts in stomach, cholera morbus, and all ailments arising from over indulgence in fruits, vegetables, ice creams, &c., it is certain and alwost instantancyus remedy, and no family should be without it.

One wineglassful taken three times each before meals, or half the quantity in the patients are in a weak condition, and increased in proportion to their strength, will be found a great tonic agent, which all will appreciate when personally satisfied of the facts, as they will be by giving the Bitters one trial.

CAUTION.

Carefulness should be our study, but more particularly when the health is at stake. Since these Bitters have, from their medical qualities, become so popular, there have been a great many concoctions called Stomach Bitters, and often represented to be the same in virtue as Dr. Hostetter's, palmed upon the public. Be careful of these vilainous compounds! Our Bitters are put up in square quart bottles, and covered with the patent metallic cap, stamped "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," and Dr. J Hostetter blown on the glass. All others are imitation.

Proceedings of the City Council.

CITY OF FORT WAYNE, June 8th, 1858.

At a meeting of the Common Council of the city of Fort Wayne, held in the Council Room, on the 8th day of June, 1858, the following with other business of general interest, was transacted:

The Board of Health made the following report:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

The undersigned, the Board of Health of the City of Fort Wayne, respectfully report, that the health of the City is now good, but that it cannot be expected to remain so, unless immediate steps be taken to improve the condition of the Streets, Alleys, Privies, Sewers, and Cess-pools; and remove the immense accumulation of filth of various kinds which exists in the City.

The Board made a tolerably thorough examination of the Streets and Alleys on yesterday, the 7th inst., and found that they were generally in a very bad condition; and therefore we would suggest—that the gutters of all those Streets which are obstructed with grass and other things, and which contain stagnant water, should be immediately cleaned out, and kept so.

The Board particularly urge the necessity of doing those things now, as more injury than good to the health of the City would result, by stirring up the filth a few weeks hence, as repeated experience and observation have demonstrated.

The Alleys also require immediate attention. The manure and other impurities which exist in almost all of them, should be removed and not allowed to accumulate. We would call the attention of the Mayor and Council to some particularly bad places which we examined. Viz:

The vacant lots on Berry Street, next Mrs. Thompson's Residence, and the Alley back of them, which receives the drainage of the Lesman House, and the Alley back of the Lesman House, appeared to be the worst places that your board saw.

The Alley between Columbia and Main Streets, from Barr to Calhoun Streets, is also in a very filthy condition; some of the lots also adjoining this Alley contain considerable stagnant water and filth, which ought to be immediately removed.

A portion of Ewing Street, between Berry and Wayne Streets, opposite Fisher's, is always filthy and offensive.

In the west end, on account of the nature of the soil, there are not so many wet and filthy places, but there are some spots that need attention, viz:

A pond on Jefferson Street, near the Bluffton Road and Mr. John H. Cochran's residence, ought to be drained or filled up; and those ponds near Mr. Withers' should be attended to, as the present ditch does not seem to perfectly drain them.

A pond opposite the Rockhill House, is caused Mr. Rumsey informed us, by obstruction of the ditch opposite Humphrey & Hurd's shop.

Some other places which contain stagnant water and filth, we noticed viz:

The cellar on the corner of Calhoun and Berry Streets.

The Lot on Berry Street opposite the Court House.

The Alley between Wayne and Washington Streets, back of the School House.

The Alley between Wayne and Washington Streets, from Calhoun to Harrison Streets.

The large drain which crosses Main and Harrison Streets, also requires some attention.

Dr. John S. Irwin, member of council, presented the following petition, which was referred to the committee on Streets, Nuisances, &c:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

Your petitioner would respectfully request your honorable body to call the attention of the Street Committee to the condition of lots No. 14, and 15 Taber's Addition, on south side of Berry St., between Lafayette and Clay Sts. The said lots are now in such a condition as to be extremely detrimental to the health of all persons in the neighborhood, and as the warm weather progresses must become much more so. And your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

JOHN S. IRWIN.

Hon. Wm. Rockhill having made a proposal to Council to sell two lots in his addition to Fort Wayne, for a Market Space, the matter was referred to the Committee on Finance with instruction to purchase. The following remonstrance against the proposed action of council in the premises was presented, read, and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

Your petitioners, residents of said city, beg leave respectfully to remonstrate against the proposed action of said council, in locating a Market House on the the lots on the north west corner of Wayne and Broadway Streets in said city. Many reasons against said action of common council might be urged,—among which might be named the following: It will convert one of the finest locations for private residences in the city, into a market space, which from its very nature will render it unpleasant as a place of residence. It will be immediately opposite to one of the principal churches of the city, where a large congregation meet for worship, and who will feel particularly annoyed by its location at that point. It will annoy many other and good citizens who have already selected that locality for their future homes, not expecting such occupation of said lots; while a better location for a Market, can be had in the large commons south of this, where there are no present residents whatever.

Signed by W. C. Shoaff and 41 others:

L. T. Bourie, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, made the following report, which he read, and on motion, it was received and ordered on file, and the accompanying ordinances referred to the committee on Fire Department:

To his Honor the Mayor and Honorable Common Council, of the City of Fort Wayne:

GENTLEMEN:—I return you my thanks for giving me the honorable office of Chief Engineer, which I will endeavor to fill to the best of my ability, with pleasure to myself and hope may prove satisfactory to you and the citizens of Fort Wayne. I have appointed George Humphrey 1st asst. and George Nelson 2nd asst. Engineers, subject to your approval, both of whom agree to serve in this capacity if agreeable to you.

No Fire Department can well get along without a Fire Association, and it has been my desire, and what I have and will strive for, to get up a well governed and well organized Fire Department, which we unfortunately have not got, but very fortunately have not required, but there is no knowing how soon the hour may be when we shall, and it is best to be prepared, or in other words, "Lock the stable door before the horse is stolen." The Firemen risk their lives and health for the protection of other men's lives and property, and by so doing do not reap the laurels of the soldier, nor are they recompensed for their labor. No! they ask it not; it is voluntary on their part, and they should be encouraged as long as they are deserving and work for a good cause. It is true, they have and expect to have something in the way of amusement sometimes, and they should not be censured if they should expend any of their funds in so doing; for if that privilege was refused them, I could not expect a Fire Department to keep up in any other way, than a hired or paid Department which would be much more expensive than volunteer Department in a city like our own.

I hope the Council will be prudent, and that it will procure all additional and necessary apparatus &c to make our Fire Department complete, and not be behind our sister cities; and I further hope they will extend their liberality to the several Fire Companies, coming under the provisions of the Fire Ordinance of the city; and in conclusion would say that all Firemen require encouragement, and they look first to you, the City Fathers, to show such encouragement as an example to our citizens that they may do likewise. In speaking thus I do not wish to be understood they have not done so already, but that they may ever do so from time to time when required.

I herewith present you a form of ordinances for your inspection and approval or disapproval, as you may deem proper, after examination and consideration, relative to the Fire Department of this city, and I would recommend their adoption.

L. T. BOURIE, Chief Eng'r.

The Difficulty with Paraguay.

Everybody knows that we have a difficulty with Paraguay, but very few know what it is or what is the cause of it. The history of the case, from the documents recently published, appears to be this:

Twelve years ago the ParaguayanGovernment issued a decree encouraging and inviting foreigners to settle there and engage in trade—by offering them lands, monopolies, &c This was done for the purpose of developing the resources and increasing the commerce of the country. "The Yankees" are always on the look out for such openings, and the invitation was responded to by the formation of an Emigrant Company in Rhode Island. The Legislature incorporated it with a capital of $300,000. The company bought and took to Paraguay steam engines, sugar mills, brick machine, rice mills, agricultural implements, &c., enough for a large colony. A large number of mechanics, farmers and others, embarked in the enterprise, and the colony was formally planted in 1853. The government received them, bestowed the promised privileges upon them, and encouraged them to enter upon a large business.

Paraguay is one of the finest timbered countries in the world, and has some of the best tobacco land in America. The company soon found that their saw mill, (the first ever built south of the Amazon and east of the Andes,) was a most lucrative property, and the cigar factory was equally profitable It happened that President Lopez found it out also.

Though nominally a Republic, Paraguay, is in fact, a despotism, and the President is an absolute dictator. With him, to covet the property and thriving business of "los Yankees" was as natural as to seize it was practicable. He fulminated three decrees, revoking their title to their lands, repudiating his contracts with them and confiscating their privileges for his own benefit. He seized their mills, vessels and machinery, and would not even let them leave the country alive, unless they would formally relinquish everything to him. It happened that an American man of war, the Water witch, Commodore Page, came along just then, took the Americans on board, in defiance of the President, and brought them home. They now demand reparation. Lopez, in reply, declares that the Water witch committed a "scandalous hostility" in taking them off, and sets up, in justification of his conduct, the plea that they had practiced fraud in obtaining the title to their lands. A little prompt and firm action on the part of our Government would bring President Lopez to terms quite easy.

The Indiana Senators.—We congratulate our readers upon the decisive vote by which the Senate on Saturday confirmed the election to that body of Hons. Jesse D. Bright and Graham N. Fitch. The republican press has been accustomed, for some time, to sneer at these gentlemen as usurpers of seats to which they were not entitled, and this has been especially the case whenever their votes have had a controlling influence in deciding important questions. At such times, the Senate has been urged to a prompt determination of the contested seats, as if the determination was sure to result in the defeat of the sitting members, however, have awaited the result with dignity, calmness, and patience. Conscious of the justice of their position, they were contented to await the triumph which they knew would not fail to come. This triumph has now been achieved, and by a most gratifying vote the Senate have decided that they are the legally elected senators from Indiana. Mr. Bright remains, therefore in the distinguished body in which he has already become eminent, and Mr. Fitch, who is associated with him, will falsify the promise of his career in the House if he does not occupy a most important position in the Senate by gentlemen as able, industrious, and faithful as Messrs. Bright and Fitch, while the Democracy of the whole country cannot but look with interest upon a result which continues to unswearing democrats in positions of the highest consequence.

The Vote on the Indiana Senatorial Contested Election Case.—The vote in the United States Senate, on the motion of Mr Trumbull, of Ill., declaring that Senators Bright and Fitch of Indiana, were NOT legally elected Senators, was as follows:

"YEAS—Broderick, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Dixon, Doolittle, Douglas, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, Houston, King, Mason, Pearce, Seward, Simmons, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson—23.

"NAYS—Allen, Benjamin, Bigler, Brown, Clay, Clingman, Davis, Fitzpatrick, Green, Gwin, Hayne, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson of Tennessee, Jones, Kennedy, Mallory, Polk Pugh, Rice, Reid, Sebastian, Slidell, Thompson of Kentucky, Thompson of New Jersey, Toombs, Wright, Yulee—30"

They were then declared unanimously elected. The vote was not strictly a party one. Senators Mason of Virginia, Douglas of Illinois, Pearce of Maryland, Broderick of California, Democrats, voted against Messrs. Bright and Fitch's right to their seats, while Kennedy of Maryland and Thompson of Kentucky, two "American" Senators, voted in their favor. This decision of the Senate will have a most wholesome effect in encouraging scenes of anarchy and violence in State Legislatures, and stop minorities from resorting to violence and revolutionary means to prevent majorities in those bodies from choosing Senators. It is high time the practice received it quitus.—Cin. Enq.

Tiffin & Fort Wayne and Clinton LineRailroads.—We noticed in a recent issue that a consolidation had been affected between those two roads, with a view to their speedy completion. By the stipulations entered into, the Tiffin & Ft. W. Company obtain to a certain extent the control of the eastern division, between Tiffin and New London. An arrangement has been entered into with certain Eastern capitalists, by which the latter agree to complete the grading and furnish the iron for the entire route, providing two companies can sell bonds enough to pay for the iron, when delivered, in installments of one-third each. The amount necessary to be raised, we understand, is about $100,000, and payment is made conditional upon the actual delivery of the iron on the track. The payment of the first installment secures the speedy completion of the entire road. In consideration of the amount paid, the subscribers are to receive first class 70 per cent. mortgage bonds of the road As they will be given only in event that the road is completed, they will be worth, to the holder, at least what they cost and possibly more. We hope that all interested in the completion of this important link in the great chain of thoroughfares, stretching from the Atlantic on the east, to the Missouri river on the West, will come up and subscribe liberally. As payment is only required in case the road is built, there is no risk run. To the City of Tiffin and the people of Seneca Co. this road will be of incalculable advantage bringing, us in direct communication with Cleveland and Philadelphia on the East and Chicago on the West.—Tiffin Tribune.

We have too few Holidays.

We have on several occasions called the attention of our readers to the fact that we have in this country too few holidays, too few rational anp innocent amusements, too much artificial sanctity and pusitanical gloom, too much devotion to unceasing drudgery and scraping up dollars, too little attention paid to social and intellectual enjoyment. A contemporary comes to our aid in this matter. He says a capital opening presents itself for any one who can invent and introduce new holidays We have just four days in the year besides Sundays, on which by poetic license (for even then it is only half true) we may say labor is generally suspended; one of them, the Fourth of July, two others serve to link the closing with the opening year, and the fourth day—Thanksgiving—comes at the gubernatorial recommendation. We want more holidays. Every month should have its day for secular amusements and relaxation from business.

Holidays now are so rare that our people hardly knew how to enjoy them. Think for example, how most people spend our national anniversary. Those who labor to get up displays for the public gratification, certainly deserve credit.—Many seek for enjoyment where they too often get only disgrace—in sinks of dissipation. Others in littlelessness doze away the day. While a wise few quietly delight the eye by the public display, and the ear and mind by the literary festivities, and end in quiet pleasures at home; or with appreciating companions seek at once the charms of nature and of social intercourse, by a pic-nic in some secluded grove. The very rarity of a day of relaxation makes it to many an irksome task to get through its hours So it is, too, in a different way, but even more generally, on Chrismas and New Years, as well as on Thanksgiving. People eat, and the holiday centers and passes with the dinner.

Those who are more used to holidays can make a better use of them. A great many are like the cook who once having a day given her as her own, never once rose from her bed, but slept the whole twenty-four hours. Aristotle's remark that a bow should not always be bent it you would retain its spring, contains the explanation of this failure to use the season of relaxation well. Habits are formed so stubbornly, that when the pressure of business is removed, the mind cannot put on native elasticity. The truth is, men with us become mere drudges, and allow themselves to be swallowed up in business. More particularly is this true of the middle classes, measured by wealth, and of those who have made or are rapidly making their own fortunes. We have no doubt that this lack of relaxation is one cause of the alleged inferiority of the inhabitants of this country, as compared with others more addicted to amusements.

Give us a holiday a month. Let the youth of both sexes calculate upon it for the four weeks preceding. They will project excursions; they will invent diversions; they will learn to enjoy themselves. As in consequence they will have a fresher spirit, a more buoyant and more firmly knitted frame, and the labors of life will be much more cheerfully performed. We are not sure either, but that every one would be as rich at the end of the year, after enjoying a dozen holidays, as if stinted to two or three. The doctor's bill would be less, and there would be vastly less of the dissipation and beastliness too prevalent now on a day of festivity.

The call of the country is for more holidays He who shall introduce them will certainly have more title to the public gratitude than many who are enjoying honors to which they have no legitimate claim. Who will enter the lists to introduce more holidays?

"Floating Down the River Ohio."—The pilot of the Strader, Joseph Guthrie, on Wednesday night last was somewhat startled by the warblings of a juvenile voice, soon after the boat had passed Warsaw. There was not a house visible on either side of the river, and from whence the voice emanated would have been a mystery had not a cry been heard of 'Take me on board!' The engines were immediately stopped, the yawl sent out and a youngster relieved from a small raft upon which he was floating all alone. Dr Dunning took him in charge, and on questioning him, he said his name was Thomas Wright; that he lived in Patriot, and while playing upon some floating boards in the Ohio, he got into the current and was unable to regain the shore. When asked how he felt when in the middle of the river, and in the night, upon such a frail vessel, his reply was: "God wouldn't let me get hurt" He said he was singing "Floating down the river on the Ohio," to pass the lonely time. He was brought to the city and was yesterday delivered into the hands of his parents, at Patriot, who were greatly distressed at his absence. The little fellow would do for an Arctic explorer

A Serenade.—The Indianians in Washington turned out en masse on Saturday night, with Esputa's celebrated band, to serenade their Senators, Messrs. Bright and Fitch At about eleven o'clock they proceeded to the mansion of Mr. Bright. A son of Mr. B, a manly young lad of sixteen came out and announced that his father had not yet returned from the Senate chamber, but in his name he would return his thanks for the compliment they had paid him. The company were then invited into the house, where, where they partook of the good things set before them.

They were fortunate enough to catch Senator Fitch at home, who, after repeated calls, came forth and said:

"Indianians! I know at least half of you. My friends, I thank you for this compliment. It is late I am fatigued, and will only say that I shall fulfill the promise made to my political friends at the time I was elected: 'If God lets me live, I will serve out the full term for which I was elected;' and with such a constituency as I represent, and in such a cause as we are engaged, I feel that He WILL let me live Again, I thank you for this compliment. Good night!"

The company then gave three hearty cheers for Fitch.

The company then proceeded to the mansions and serenaded W. W. Corcoran, Esq.; Senators Pugh, Toombs, Benjamin, Slidell. Green and Sebastian. They only succeeded in catching Mr. Green at home, though he had retired to bed. He plead exhaustion; he had been at work over eleven hours, and he knew the Hoosiers—always generous—would excuse him. Missouri and Indiana were neighbors and friends, and he hoped they always would be.

After three cheers for Green, given with a will, the company, at a late hour, dispersed.—Washington Star.

Truth in a Nutshell.—The WashingtonUnion of the 3d, says:

What we have quarreled about since the organization of the Government in point of fact, has been the disposition of slavery in the public territories. This question has been fiercely discussed in Congress and throughout the North on one side, and the South on the other; and yet the North has no interest in it—no power to decide it, no right to interfere with it. The South had no more just claim over it and authority to control it than the North. Congress had no business with it—could not shape it, dislodge it, prohibit it. The people of the territories were its governors They could create or abolish it when they came up to man's estate. Thus this fright abstraction—this miserable bone of contention—this lifeless and inanimate spector—has been permitted to overshadow all the great interests of the Union, and embroil the industry of one section against the other.

The French Gazette Medicale states that, by an accident, charcoal has been discovered to be a cure for burns. By laying a piece of cold charcoal upon the burn, the pain subsides immediately. By leaving the charcoal on one hour the wound is healed, as has been demonstrated on several occasions. The remedy is cheap and simple, and certainly deserves a trial.

Allege Murderess Arrested.—Yesterday afternoon Marshal Rehm and officer Kauffman, of the detective force, arrested Caroline Katrina Frederika Schwartz, upon a charge of poisoning a man in Buffalo, N. Y., and will send her to that city to day, for trial. It appears that she came to Buffalo three weeks ago, in company with a paramour, and stopped at a German boarding house. Twelve days afterwards her paramour died in great agony. At first it was supposed that he was suffering from delirum tremens, but from some symptom in the case it was suspected he might have been poisoned and a post mortem examination was held which showed that these suspicions were correct. Mrs Schwarz had left during the man's sickness, and a description of her was sent to Marshal Rehm Yesterday afternoon she was found in the street near the Post Office, and taken into custody. She was boarding here in a house on South Canal street, near Niemeyor's Hotel.

Mrs Schwarz, from her own account, is a remarkable women, and has passed through adventures enough to make a startlingly novel, and the Ledger or Police Gazette should not permit such an eligible opportunity to escape them. She states that her father is a Major General in the army of Baden, Germany; that she has served as an officer, wearing male apparel, in the German, Russian, and French armies; that she has fought the Circassians, and the Arabs in Algiers; that she has fought four duels, and exhibits scars received in three of them; that her father is worth four millions of guilders, and that she expects to receive, within a short time, $40.000 from Germany; that she came to this country ten years ago, and three years afterwards was married, and until recently has lived with her husband on a farm two miles from Dansville, N. Y.; that she left him three or four weeks ago, because another wife with three children came over from Germany and claimed her faithless spouse.

She appears to be a highly educated woman and has a large quantity of elegant clothing. She states that the poison was administered in a glass of wine, but denies having given it herself. Last night she wept bitterly, and said she would be forced to stand a trial without the advice of friends or means to defend herself.—Chicago Tribune.

A Thief's Potograph.—Less tragical was the denouement or a larceny perpetrated the other day in the noble forest of Fontanebleau, on the great-coat and luncheon of an enthusiastic artist, who was to intent upon the work of photographing one of the loveliest sites in the picturesque solitudes of that renowned locality, to observe the cautious advance, successful operations, and triumphant retreat of a stroller, in possession of his property It was not until the conclusion of his picture that the enraptured artist bethought him of his "prog," and feeling that he had earned his refection, betook himself to a neighboring tree at whose foot he had deposited his surtout and his gouter. Judge of the poor fellow's astonishment and dismay at the loss of his property, and the seeming impossibility of discovering the thief who had so completely "sold" him! But judge also of his astonishment on perceiving the photograph on which he had been so intent, and faithfully preserved the image of the ravisher of his missing property, with the aid of a magnifying glass, which the artist had in his pocket, the dress and features of the thief were perfectly discernible. Furnished with this important clue, the artist hastened to the police authorities of the little town, and showed them the features of the thief With the aid of this indication, hastily transmitted to the various police stations on the borders of the forest, the guardians of the peace entered upon the task of recovering the stolen property; and a couple of hours afterwards the thief was taken, and the artist had the satisfaction of recovering his coat, and all the contents of its pockets, minus only the packet of luncheon which the rascal had already appropriated beyond recall.—Cor. Phila. Evening Post.

The Iowa Gold Stories a Humbug.—Mr. John Daily, of Osceola, Clark county, Iowa, writes to the Indianapolis Journal that the stories of large quantities of gold having been found in Iowa are all false. Mr D. says that he lives in the vicinity of the Clark county mines. He says:

I am acquainted with those who have been trying to work them, and know something of the success they have had. There have been found, in no instance, pieces that would exceed in magnitude a small wheat grain, and shaped like flaxseed. As to the profitableness of the business no person has yet made enough to justify him in continuing at it, although men would willingly labor for seventy-five cents cash per day.

Our country is being flooded with strange coming from the different States, big with the expectation of soon realizing a fortune by mining. The disappointment is so great that they become disgusted with everything connected with Clark county, although it has much splendid land, good timber, and fine farms, and thriving towns and villages; yet they can see nothing of its natural agricultural advantages, on account of their disappointment.

Robert Dale Owen Converted.—Private letters from the Hon. Robert Dale Owen, United States Minister to the Court of Naples, written to his friends at New Harmony, announce the gratifying intelligence that he has become converted to the Christian religion. Mr Owen is well known through out this State for his scholastic attainments, but his influence has ever been weakened heretofore by his heterodox views of Christianity.—Vincennes (Ind) Gazette.

The Atlantic Cable.—A private letter from an intelligent gentleman and a practical telegrapher who witnessed on the 29th ult., at Plymouth, England, the formal tests of the several electricians in telegraphing through the entire lenght of the Atlantic Cable, states that Prof. Hughes, with his wonderful printing telegraph machines, was able to write through the 3,000 miles of Cable, at the rate of 23 letters per minute. Equal to about seven words A degree of success which was as unexpected as it was gratifying. Prof. Whitehouse was able to write only at the rate of nineteen words a eighteen minutes, and Prof. Thompson was utterly unable to work at all through the Cable.

Strange Case.—Some time in the month of January last a man named Harrison Mauzy was committed to the Daviess County Jail, on a charge of murdering his wife. After remaining in jail a few days he was found dead, and as that time Mr. Wallace was acting as jailer Wallace shortly after fled to parts unknown. An inquest was held over the body of Mauzy, and the verdict was that he came to his death by some unknown violence. So things remained until quite recently, when Wallace was arrested somewhere in Illinois, and brought here on Tuesday last to answer the charge of murder. Wallace is now in jail to await his trial at the next Circuit Court.—Owensboro (Ky) American.

Marriage as an Antidote.—The Buffalo Express states that a verdant but excessively loving couple belonging to Canada, upon getting married travelled across the line, and brought up at a Hotel in Cleveland. Upon retiring at night, through haste, or negligence, or ignorance, they blew out the gas instead of turning it out In the morning, while the boarders in all the adjoining rooms were half dead, the happy lovers were brighter and happier tha ever. Gas couldn't smother them. The inference is (say the Express) that marriage is an antidote for poison.

It is understood, however, much the President may desire to visit the West during the recess of Congress—publication having been made that such was his intention—that the pressure of public business will prevent him so doing.

Why is love like a Canal Boat? because it's an internal transport.

SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1858.

Our Congressional Convention.—There is no call yet issued for the Congressional Convention. We would suggest to the committee that it is high time the call was made and the question settled. Kendallville is a very suitable place for the meeting, and we should think the first week in August, providing the call is made immediately, would be a proper time.

County Convention.—The Democratic Committee have issued a call for a County Convention to assemble at the Court House, on Saturday, the 31st July next; the township meetings to appoint delegates to be held on the previous Saturday, July 24th.

The approaching election will be one of some interest, as we have a Clerk, Treasurer, Sheriff, County Commissioner, Senator, and two Representatives, besides Congressman and State Officers to elect. We therefore hope all good Democrats will feel it a duty to attend the township meetings, and be careful to select their very best men for delegates to the County Convention. This is essential to success, as on their selection of candidates much depends. We ought to be particularly careful to nominate not only capable men for the various offices, but also men whose democracy is unimpeached and unimpeachable, and such as every democrat in the county will feel it a bounden duty cheerfully, heartily and zealously to support. All depends on the character of the delegates to whom the selection is entrusted; and we therefore repeat the admonition to all true democrats to attend the township meetings, and be particularly careful to send none but true, faithful unfaltering Democrats as delegates to the County Convention. This is a matter that has not hitherto on all occasions been as strictly attended to as it ought; and it is one that may, if further neglected, lead to difficulties and dissensions, and by weakening faith in our convention method, eventually pave the way to a disastrous defeat and the destruction of our supremacy in this county. The convention system, properly carried out, is the only true and really democratic system of nominating candidates. If the people will only attend to it, it is the most fair system that can be devised, as the selection of candidates is left entirely to themselves, through their delegates. If they neglect their duty, it may, like any other good thing, be perverted and brought into discredit. Every good democrat, then, owes it to his party to attend the meetings in his township and sustain the convention system, as the surest way of keeping up the organization and securing the success of the party.

We sometimes hear discontented and dubious democrats railing out against the dictation and control of political managers and cliques, who take the business out of the hands of conventions and usurp the nomination of candidates. We have never been able to discover any grounds for such charges, and have scarcely ever heard them made by a democrat who could be relied on to support the democratic candidates, or who was in the invariable habit of voting the pure unscratched democratic ticket. If the people—that is, the mass of the democratic party—will only do their duty, such a thing cannot happen; the majority must rule, and the few who are supposed to constitute this much dreaded bugbear of a clique are powerless among so many; the power is in the hands of the masses, and it is their duty to use it.

As, in view of the importance of the approaching election, it is desirable to have the utmost harmony and union in our ranks and not give our enemies the opportunity to raise even the stale cry of clique against us, we therefore again urge a general attendance at the township meetings, the selection of good democrats for delegates to the convention, and the nomination of our best men for candidates.

☞ The Republican at this place is getting quite excited at its own performances, and its sanguine editor appears to indulge the dream that he is about to revolutionize the county, and "carry an entire republican ticket." It is our candid opinion, that notwithstanding his great political sagacity and unrivalled editorial ability, he slightly over-estimates his powers and influence, and will find the Allen democracy too firmly fixed in their principles to be led astray, even by his wonderful phillipics against the right of the Indiana Legislature to elect our U. S. Senators, or his equally powerful articles on the obsolete and now almost forgotten Kansas question. He expects to carry this county for the republicans—or at least he says so, and we presume would not if he did think it true. We predict he will find himself minus at least 1000 votes in the accomplishment of his task. Place these two opinions on record, and see which proves nearest the truth.

☞ There is a report that the Cholera has broken out in Toledo. The papers of that place make no mention of any such calamity, and as we do not see any account of the Cholera in any part of the United States, we are inclined to hope and believe that the report is utterly without foundation.

Seventh Congressional District.—Hon. Henry Secrest, of Putnam Co. has been nominated for Congress by the democratic convention for the seventh district, now represented by Hon. John G. Davis. On the 1st ballot Mr Secrest received the vote of every delegate, except those of Vigo Co. Mr Secrest is one of the ablest and best informed statesmen in the country, and will be elected by a large majority. He was opposed to the Lecompton bill, but his opposition was of an honorable, manly character, avoiding the violence and ultraism which marked the course of some weaker-minded men on the first agitation of that question. He cordially accepts the English compromise as a fair and final settlement of the matter.

The Indiana Senators.—Senate on Saturday, by a decided vote adopted the report of the committee declaring that Messrs Bright and Fitch are entitled to their seats as Senators from Indiana; the former until the 3d of March, 1863, and the latter until the 3d of March, 1861.

These two cases presented the peculiar feature that there was in neither of them any other party claiming the seats, but the investigation took place in consequence of a protest from a portion of the members of the Legislature, alleging an informality in holding the convention of the two Houses at the time of the election, and against the certificate of the Governor, under the broad seal of the State, declaring that they were both duly elected.

Mr Bright has been so long and so favorably known as an experienced and efficient member of the Senate for some time, indeed the President pro tem. of the body and one so justly possessing the respect and confidence of his colleagues, that his loss could not but have been most sensibly felt in the National Councils; and though his colleague, Mr. Fitch, being a new member, (having taken his seat for the first time during the present session,) has not had either the same opportunities or the legislative experience of Mr. Bright, yet he gives the promise that he will prove a valuable accession to that important conservative branch of the National Legislature. We have no doubt therefore that the present decision will give satisfaction even to those members of the Senate who, from convictions of duty, opposed the report of the Judiciary Committee.

☞ We copy the above from the National Intelligencer, and when we consider that it has been a life long opponent of the Democratic party, and is still opposed to it, the above indeed is a high compliment, but not higher than deserved. We commend it to the special consideration of our friend Bailey of the Republican. Great men, we are aware, will sometimes differ in opinion, and Mr. Bailey may perhaps think he is better qualified to judge in this matter than even the veteran editors of the Intelligencer, although the latter have been for almost a generation the acknowledged leaders of the opposition party, under all its various phrases and names. Self-confidence is a very commendable virtue—but it may be carried to an excess; and if the newly-fledged editor of the Republican would pay a little deference to the opinion of his seniors who may have had better opportunities for arriving at a correct conclusion than even he has; and above all, if he would endeavor to stick a little closer to the truth in his assertions, he would probably be able to accomplish more for his party than he will if he pursues his present course.

The Weather is extremely warm, having ranged from 90° to 93° for the past four or five days. Although rather uncomfortable for us unfortunate inhabitants of a dusty city, it is just the weather for the growing crops. The wheat is rapidly maturing, and looks promising; we hear of some few instances where it has suffered from the fly or weevil, and an occasional case of damage by standing water, but on the whole, if we have fine weather for the next three or four weeks, we may reasonably look for a good crop. The corn that was planted before the rain, and escaped drowning out, looks well, and the fine weather encourages the farmers to proceed with the planting, and hope for a favorable season. Agricultural matters look decidedly more cheerful than they did two weeks ago.

This extremely warm weather following so closely after the excessive rains and floods we have experienced, may reasonably be expected to cause much sickness, unless proper precautions are taken. Our city is in a filthy condition and needs a thorough cleansing; the authorities ought to have all the streets and alleys (the latter especially, many of which are perfect nuisances) immediately put in order, all stagnant water drained off, and all lots which require it filled up or properly drained; and our citizens ought to lose no time in thoroughly cleansing up their premises and removing everything offensive or detrimental to health; and above all, should have their cellars, many of which are full of stinking water, immediately pumped out and cleansed. There is perhaps nothing more likely to create sickness than this last mentioned cause, and we therefore call attention more particularly to it. Lose no time in having the cellars pumped out. Neglect may lead to fatal results. The report of the Board of Health will be found on our first page, and we direct the attention of all our citizens to its suggestions.

The Foundation Stone of the St. Mary's German Catholic Church, Lafayette Street, will be laid to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, with the usual appropriate ceremonies, by Bishop Luer, the bishop of this diocese. This is intended to be a magnificent structure, and will, when completed, be an ornament to our city. It will be 145 by 65 feet, 40 feet high, with a steeple 175 feet, and is calculated to accommodate 2000 persons. It will be built of brick and stone, and is estimated to cost from $15,000 to $50,000. It is designed to have the building up and roofed this season; the carpenter work, finishing of the interior, &c., will probably occupy another year, and the church is expected to be ready for service by the fall or winter of 1859. The Church is large, but not more so than the wants of the congregation will require, while the durability and beauty of the structure will be a lasting monument of the zeal and liberality of those who expect to worship within its walls.

Macfarland's Theatre.—This excellent dramatic troupe is now giving a series of entertainments at Colerick's Hall, and are eminently deserving public patronage. Much as we had been led to expect from the favorable notices we have seen of them in other places, it is but justice to say, that they exceed our expectations. Last night the comedy of The Serious Family, and the farce of Perfection, or the Maid of Munster, were presented in excellent style. The audience we regret to say, owing probably to the extreme hot weather, was not so large as it ought to have been. The entire company appear to be perfectly genteel and respectable, and worthy the countenance of our community, and present an array of talent, especially in the female department, not often witnessed in travelling companies. Miss Jenny Parker is a most accomplished actress and vocalist, and her young sister, Miss J Parker, is also a graceful and clever actress; Jessie Macfarland is by far the best danseuse that ever showed her graceful proportions and astonishing agility on our boards. An excellent bill is presented for this evening, and we advise all who have any taste for theatricals to be present. The excellence of the performance will ample compensate for the inconvenience of the heat of the weather.

Pic Nic of the Harmonic Society.—The Pic Nic to come off next Saturday promises to be a most agreeable affair. Two boats have been engaged for the occasion, which will be suitably fitted up and decorated, and will start, one from near the Rockhill House, and the other from Comparett & Hubbell's dock at half-past seven in the morning, and proceed to a beautiful grove known as the Elysian Fields, on the canal, four miles east of the city. The String Band of the Society and Orff's Brass Band will accompany the party, and an abundance of Ice Cream, Stawberries, Lemonade, and more substantial viands will be provided.

On reaching the grove, the performances of the day will be opened by a prayer from Rev. E. Curtis; the Declaration of Independence will be read by E. L. Chittenden: an Address delivered by B. W. Oakley, and an Oration by I. Jenkinson, together with music, singing, &c. After Dinner, the usual toasts will be given, and then various amusements will be presented. At an early hour in the evening the company will return to city.

Messrs. S S Morss, W Haskell, G F Stinchcomb, and A Gibford will officiate as Marshals. The Committee of Arrangements consists of G Nelson, B Morss, M H Taylor, W Latham, E L Chittenden, W L Hulse, G. F Stinchcomb, and D N Bash.

Tickets to admit a gentleman with one or more ladies, $2 00. To be obtained of any member of the committee.

As there will be no regular celebration of the Fourth in this city, we presume a large company will avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by this arrangement, and that they will have a pleasant time we cannot admit of a doubt.

Newspaper Depot.—John Kitch has established a newspaper depot in the corner store of the Ewing building, on the canal, north of Reed's Drug Store, and receives by express, in advance of the mail, the Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Chicago and other daily papers, and delivers them to subscribers at publisher's rates. Such an undertaking deserves support.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.

Persuant to notice the Democrats of Allen County assembled in Mass Meeting, at the Court House of said County, on the 19th day of June, 1858, to appoint Delegates to the Congressional Convention, for the Tenth Congressional District.

On motion of Peter Nodestine, David B. Litchfield was called to the chair; and on motion of Wm. S Smith, Wm. D. Henderson was chosen Secretary.

On motion of Peter Nodestine, a committee of seven was appointed to select delegates for said Convention.

The committee retired, and on returning reported the following list of delegates, which was unanimously concurred in:

From Scipio Township—John Berrier.
Springfield.—A. Metzger, and J. Shuf[illegible]
Cedar Creek.—J. Champer.
Perry.—W. T. Hunter, T. M. Andrews.
Eel River.—John Dolin.
Lake.—D. B. Litchfield.

Another Steamboat Explosion.—One Hundred Lives Lost.—The boilers of the steamer Pennsylvania exploded Sunday morning at six o'clock, at Ship Island, seventy miles below Memphis. The boat burnt to the water's edge. About three hundred and fifty passengers were on board. It is believed that one hundred were killed or missing. The Diana, Imperial and Frisbee took all they could find in the water on shore.

The Imperial first arrived at the wreck of the Pennsylvania, and took a large number of her passengers to New Orleans. The Diana arrived here at eleven o'clock on Sunday night, with a large number for Louisville. At a meeting of citizens $1,000 was raised for the sufferers. Committees were appointed to collect further for their aid. Rauch, of the opera troupe, died to-day. Others were not expected to live.

Appointments Confirmed.—The following appointments have been confirmed by the Senate: George H Brown, District Attorney for Rhode Island; C B McFadden, Chief Justice for Washington Territory; Wm Strong and Ed C Fitzhugh, Associate Justices for Washington Territory; John Cradlebaugh, Associate Justice for Utah; Stanley Matthews, Attorney for Southern District of Ohio; Benjamin McCulloch, Marshal for Eastern District of Texas; George S Walden, Attorney for Northern District of Alabama; George H Williams, Chief Justice; and Reuben P Boise, Associate Justice for Oregon Territory; Joseph Millen, jr., Attorney for Michigan, and Mayor J Thomas, Marshal for Wisconsin.

St Johns, N. F. June 21.

The Atlantic Cable.—The government will despatch a steamer to Trinity to pilot in the Niagara as near as practicable to the point where it is decided to land the Cable. The Niagara will be expected momentarily on and after next week; but from the fact that the fleet would use no steam in reaching the middle of the Atlantic, it is quite possible that the Niagara will not reach this coast before the first of July. This office has been placed in communication with the offices at Trinity Bay, and it is understood that the Telegraph Company will place their wires hence to New York at the service of the Press and the public for the transmission of such communication connected with the great event as may be handed in for a few days subsequent to the arrival of the Niagara.

St. Louis, June 20.

From the Army.—A despatch from Leavenworth (18th June) per United States Express to Boonville, says:

Private advices from the army to May 28th mention the arrival of Lieu. Armstrong at Camp Scott with 75 head of cattle. Captain Hanna, with two hundred head of cattle, was three day's march from Camp Scott. A letter from an officer high in command, expressed the opinion that the troops would not be employed against the Mormons.

The Leavenworth Times contains a letter from Ft Bridger, May 21, which says that Brigham Young's principal Mormon Elders had consented to deliver themselves into the custody of the U. S Marshal and await a trial, provided they were tried by a jury in no way connected with the army.

A party of Mormons had arrived at Camp Scott in a half starved condition. They belonged to a portion who were opposed to Young.—They represent the church as torn with dissensions. They wish to return to the States.

The reception of Col Johnston's commission as Brigadier General caused much satisfaction in the army.

Capt Newton's Engineers had reached Camp Scott, and reported that a permanent post would be established at Fort Bridger, at which Col. Hoffman will command.

Arrival of the Steamship Vanderbilt in New York

New York, June 19.

The steamship Vanderbilt has arrived below. A portion of her advices have already been received via Cape Race. She made the voyage from Cowes to New York in nine days and sixteen hours. She reports favorable weather. She brings the following news in addition to that received via Cape Race: In the House of Lords, June 3, the Earl of Clarendon asked if the Government could lay before the House any information concerning the proceedings of the British cruisers in the Gulf of Mexico. Lord Malmesbury said he had nothing but ex parte statements, but, from a conversation with the American Minister, he believed there was no great difference in the views of both countries on the question, and, from the orders sent to the officers of the West India squadron, no repetition of such proceedings was likely to occur. The London Times' city article, of Tuesday, says: "The steamer Persia's advices of the feeling of America on the Gulf outrages had but a slight effect upon the funds, the decline being only ⅛, and the market soon rallied again. The leader of the Times, speaking of these outrages, says the treaties with France and America having expired, it is madness for England to assert pretensions to which no strong and independent power is likely to submit. The good done by searching foreign vessels is nothing compared with the bad blood engendered, and though many of the so-called outrages are undoubtedly exaggerations, enough is known to prove that the practice of searching vessels under the American flag ought to be ended at once. The eruption of Mt. Vesuvius still continued. On the 28th ult., with a more threatening aspect, liquid fire was pouring from several craters, and the entire valley of Atrio was a mass of flames. Villagers were fleeing in all directions, and the destruction of the town of Portici was feared. The Times' Paris correspondent says there is more commercial distress in France than at any time since the Revolution of 1848. General Almonte, the newly-appointed Mexican Minister to Spain, was expected at Paris every day. He is charged with the settlement of the difficulty between the two countries, having ample powers for that object.

Arrival of the Persia.

St Johns, June 21

The R. M. steamship Persia, Capt Judkins, from Liverpool on Saturday, June 12th, was boarded off the Cape at 8 o'clock on Sunday evening by the Steamer Victoria, the newly employed news yacht of the associated press. The Persia has 128 passengers for New York. The news is quite interesting as will be seen from the subjoined summary of its points.

The Atlantic fleet sailed on the 10th.

Liverpool Breadstuffs.—The market for breadstuffs was dull but generally steady.

Richardson S. & Co., reports the weather favorable for the growing crops. Flour was quiet. Western canal 20a21s; Philadelphia & Baltimore 21a21s 6d. Ohio 21s 6da23s. Wheat dull at the decline of Tuesday reported per the Vanderbilt. Red western 5s 6da5s 7d. Southern white 7sa7s 2d. Corn quiet 34s 4da34s 9d for Yellow 32a32s 6d for white.

Provision Market.—The Liverpool provision market was generally steady. Beef quiet, but steady, holders offered freely but showed no disposition to press sales. Pork firm at last quotations. Bacon was also firm. Lard dull at 56s, an extreme price in retail. Tallow was nominal.

A new weekly line of steamships, of which the Indian Empire, formerly the United States, is the pioneer, was ready for operation. The Indian Empire with the colonial and U. S. mails, would leave Galway for Halifax and New York on Friday last. She was expected to run from Galway to Halifax in 8 days.

The terms upon which the Cagliari affairs has been settled, are as follows: Naples agrees to compensate the English engineers with £3 000 to place the Cagliari at the disposal of Queen Victoria, and to liberate the Sardinian prisoners forthwith.

The warlike preparations going on in France attract the attention of the English Press and Parliament.

In the House of Commons, Mr D'Israeli repudiated all idea of danger of a war with France, and said, the relations of the two powers were of the most amicable nature.

Mr Fitzgerald had stated in the House of Commons, that Mr Mason the American Minister at Paris labored under grave misapprehensions in representing England as acquiescing in the free labor movement.

On the 10th, in the House of Lords, on motion of Lord Brougham, a bill was read the first time, the object of which was to render the fraudulent negotiation of bills of exchange penal. The bill abolishing property qualifications for members of Parliament, was debated and read the second time. The bill extending the franchise in counties to holders of £10 tenements, the same as in boroughs, was brought up a second time for reading. The government opposed any action upon the measure at present, but, upon a test vote, there was a majority of 58 against the government, and the bill was read the 2d time.

On the 11th, in the House of Commons, in reply to an enquiry, Lord Stanley said: The Government had sent a dispatch to India disapproving of the policy of annexation, and disavowing the annexation of Dahr.

The India reports were taken up, and after the rejection of the proposition by Lord John Russell, to limit the council to 12 members, it was resolved that it should consist of not more than 15 or less than 12.

India.—Sir Hugh Rose had completely defeated the enemy at Gowey, killing 500 men and capturing 7 guns. He was within 14 miles of Calpee on the fourteenth of May, and it was expected the attack would be made on the 16th. The garrison of Shah Jehanpore 600 strong, was surrounded by 8,000 rebels, with 15 guns, but no fears were entertained for their safety, relief being near. A village in central India had been stormed after an obstinate resistance, and all the male inhabitants put to the sword.

The dates from Bombay received by telegraph from Malta are to the 21st of May. The British had entire possession of Rholicund. The enemy deserted Bareilly as the British approached. An attack on Calpee was expected in a few days. Oude was quieting down.

The Bank of France has increased its specie nearly seventy million francs in a month.

The Atlantic telegraphic fleet expected to reach mid ocean and commence the operation of laying the cable about the 20th of June they would proceed the under sail. The Agamemnon was towed out of Plymouth Sound at 9 o'clock A. M. On the 10th the Niagara left under steam at 11 o'clock. The Squadron subsequently started under canvass with a northerly breeze.

The Spanish journals say that Concha remains Governor General of Cuba.

A misunderstanding between Austria and France was considered imminent.

Washington, June 21.

Colonel Kane arrived here last night, bringing despatches from Gov. Cumming, whom he left at Camp Scott on the 16th of May. They were delivered to the President of the United States.

Contrary to reports widely circulated, Kane does not admit there has been any such want of harmony between Gov Cumming and Gen Johnston, as would jeopardize the public interest. He speaks in eulogistic terms of the high state of discipline in which the latter maintained his forces, and of the praiseworthy spirit manifested by the army during the winter. The friends of the administration are much pleased with the manner in which he is understood to allude to the conduct of Mr. Cumming, saying he is deserving the gratitude of the country. There was great hope in Utah, as elsewhere, that the war was at an end. A peace party had been formed and was sufficiently strong, in time to arrest the Mormon forces against our own, last spring. It was the impression in Utah that Brigham Young, (who openly espoused the cause of the United States) would in this respect be able to maintain his position. There was at one time strong opposition to him, before emigration was resolved upon, but ever since this feeling of hostility has been subsiding.

Washington, June 22.

Sufficient intelligence has been received to leave no doubt that Capt Marcy's command has reached Camp Scott in Safety. It was the intention of Gov Cumming when last heard from to proceed at once to open a trade with the valley; many of the mormons were understood to own more cattle than they were desirous of carrying away and of which they were anxious to dispose. The safety and general welfare of the troops at Camp Scott, and elsewhere, between that post and the U. S. may be reckoned on with confidence. The Mormon troops had been entirely withdrawn from the approaches to Salt Lake though the people threatened to return, if the army advanced before they secured the wheat harvest. Gov Cumming says that it may be regarded as safe for emigrants from the U. S., to proceed to California via Salt Lake, the road being entirely open.

Washington, June 22.

The official advices received from England are of a more favorable character towards this country, and disavow intentional offences against our flag, and mention the fact that prompt orders have been issued to discontinue the visits which have given rise to the present difficulties. Her Majesty's Government does not insist on visitation or search as a right, but as both nations are trying to put a stop to the Slave Trade there is desired a mutual understanding or arrangements as to the proper and most acceptible manner of ascertaining the character of suspected slavers. This is the mooted point. The tenor of the despatches was far from being unsatisfactory—in fact, the doctrine so maintained by our government is considered as practically acknowledged by Great Britain. The differences between the two countries are not such as cannot be amicably accommodated.

It is understood that the Cabinet to day had under consideration the affairs of Utah, which are so complicated as to require great caution in their management. From the present indications all the troops now on the way will continue the march to Utah. What additional measure will be pursued will depend on the character of the next official despatches from that quarter.

New York, June 24.

The Tribune correspondence says: Much doubt is still entertained here as to the final purposes of the Mormons and the unpublished despatches of Governor Cumming convey some apprehension, which Colonel Kane's repeated conferences have not removed. At last official accounts, they had possession of the mountain passes, and the ultimate design of the exodus a matter wholly of speculation. For this reason, among others, that may not be disclosed, it is deemed most prudent, if not absolutely necessary, to maintain a show of effectual force to second the civil officers in asserting the Federal authority.

The Courier correspondence says: Earl Malmsbury's despatches to Lord Napier express the hope that the President will reconsider the despatches of Secretary Cass to Lord Napier of the 10th of April, declining further stipulation for the prevention of the Slave Trade; and that he will agree to a convention for the correction of the abuses of the American. Full reparation is promised for recent occurences.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: Col Kane was in conference this morning with the President and Secretary of War. He expressed the opinion that there is still cause for apprehending danger from the Mormons. His statements are not entirely satisfactory. He has certain inexplicable reservations difficult to understand. When it was suggested that the mission of the Peace Commissioners was too late, he said, that they had still abundant opportunity for useful exercise. They meet again to morrow, after which, the disposition of General Johnston's command and the advancing reinforcements will be determined.

St. Louis, June 21.

The Kansas City Journal of Commerce—Extra of the 19th—says that a mass meeting was held at Fort Scott, Kansas, on the 15th, to take into consideration the best means for the adjustment of the difficulties in that region. Resolutions were unanimously adopted to the following effect: We will proceed through the civil organization of the county of Bourbon, and the township therein, in accordance with the law approved in February, 1858, and agree to refer all past offences against the Laws of the Grand Jury; we agree to refrain from prosecutions and vexations arrests for imaginary or petty offences and discountenance such proceedings from whatever source they may come we agree to exert ourselves to preserve the peace and assist in enforcing the laws; we agree to take no part in presumption claim quarrels, but to leave the contestants, to settle their claims according to law; we agree to hold every citizen of Fort Scott to a strict accountability for an assault or other unlawful act against any person whatever, we agree to afford whatever protection circumstances require to the citizens of Fort. Scott, travelling in Bourbon County.

Gov. Denver agrees to withdraw the troops as soon as the town and county organization is completed, and he is satisfied that peace is fully restored.

Gov. Denver addressed the meeting and approved the resolutions.

John Hamilton was President at the meeting

[From the Lafayette Courier]

The Wabash and Erie Canal.

Editor Courier:—To meet the general inquiry as to the extent of injury to this work, by the great flood of the 11th of June, I request the publication of this brief statement.

East of Lagro the canal is unharmed. Thence to Peru the damage is but little, and will be repaired by to-morrow night. Between Peru and the lower end of slack water, there are several breaks, and much sand washed into the canal. Boats may reach Delphi and Pittsburgh in about two weeks from this time, and Wildcat by the 10th or 12th of July. Between Delphi and Montezuma the damage is very heavy—much greater than ever before caused by a single flood since the canal was constructed, twenty years ago.

The largest injury is at Wildcat. Besides several break in the guard-bank and tow-path, and the loss of the fine bridge over the creek, a new channel for the stream was formed around the north of the dam, taking out the abutment. The dam itself remains secure. In the repair eighty to one hundred feet will be added to its length, making the whole work, in that vicinity safer than heretofore.

The acqueduct over Wea Creek, one hundred and twenty feet in length, was wholly swept out. Its destruction was hastened by the timber of the railroad bridges, with other driftwood brought down by the torrent. This structure is of wood, and can be rebuilt in a short time.

The superstructure of Shawnee acqueduct 90 feet long, is also gone, though the stone abutments are believed to be little injured.

A new channel is formed around the south end of the Shawnee Dam, and one abutment taken out, as at Wildcat. The dam is safe. This is a small structure, and, this year, will not be essential to the opening of navigation.

At Coal Creek a breach was made through the guard bank, and the stream passes around dam, causing heavy damage to the earthwork, though the dam and its abutments, with the two guard-locks and bridge, are uninjured.

In addition to the damage to the structures named, there are numerous breaks in the banks of the canal. The repairs have already been commenced, and will be prosecuted with asiduity, and the utmost dispatch, so as to resume navigation throughout, in time for the earliest shipments of the growing wheat crop.

J. L. WILLIAMS.

Lafayette, June 18, 1858.

Cairo.—It is impossible to ascertain the damage with any accuracy; but it is not near as had been generally supposed, and in most instances can be easily repaired.

Only light-built and unsubstantial houses and shanties have floated off; of these there may be about forty, but of no great value. Perhaps twelve or fifteen buildings of better classes have been moved from their foundations more or less. There is no danger apprehended to any properly-built houses, even those which are set upon pins.

From a few buildings the property was removed by cutting through the roofs.

The jail, a heavy wooden structure, was floated off, and moved some two hundred yards toward the north.

A number of cottages in the upper part of the town, known as "Edwardsville," have their roofs just visible above the water.

At Mr. Jorgensen's, the highest location in town, the depth of water is seven feet.

It is believed, by persons competent to judge, that the subsidence of the waters will leave a deposit of eighteen inches in the town, which will do much toward compensating for the damages. The Cairo Company's Agent talks very cheerfully of the prospects of the town, and says that all damage will be repaired as soon as the water falls, and the levees are to be raised and made eighty feet in width all round. It was a sixteen foot levee in which the break occurred. The crevasse is only about one hundred and fifty feet in length, and about ten feet deep. It is situated three hundred feet from the Mississippi River, and a quarter of a mile from the junction of the Ohio and Mississippi Levees.

The fall of the portion of the new hotel building, to which reference is made in our report, was not attributable in any degree to the pressure of the water, as the walls have been out of line for some months, and its fall before this was confidently expected. Other large buildings, upon which there is the same pressure of water, will stand without any indication of weakness, and it is not expected that they will be at all affected by the pressure of any water upon them, however high.

The President.—Forney's Press says:

Mr Buchanan is not well, but the fatigue will soon pass off. He has labored with immense assiduity and care. The truth is, the President is the working-man of his Administration. He oversees everything. He intends to do his duty, and he does it. There is not a member of his Cabinet who does half his daily labor. He rises early and works late.

DIED,—On Saturday, June 19th, at the residence of Dr. Huxford, Mrs. Z. A. wife of A. R. Henderson, in the 32d year of her age.

The deceased though comparatively a stranger in our midst, leaves many friends to mourn her early death.

——, In Lake Township, on Monday last, aged 60 years, Mr. John Dougherty, one of the first settlers in that township.

——, On Saturday last, of hemorrhage of the lungs, Charles W. Lewis, aged 26 years, son of the late Major Samuel Lewis of this place. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his early death. His remains were interred on Monday last, attended in the funeral procession by the Masonic and Odd Fellow Societies, and Fire Company, besides many citizens.

Hall of Ft. Wayne Lodge, No. 14, I.O.O.F.
Monday Evening, June 21st, 1858.

Among the regular proceedings of the meeting of said Lodge, were the following:

The special committee appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of this Lodge, upon the death of our late brother Charles W. Lewis, made the following

REPORT.

Whereas, The late dispensation of Almighty Providence in removing from among us, by the hand of death, our much esteemed brother C W. Lewis, having fallen with sad and solemn weight upon our hearts, we would, while bowing in Divine submission to the Divine will, humbly express our appreciation of the great worth and exalted virtue of our deceased Brother. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Lewis our Lodge has lost one of its brightest ornaments, and most valued members; our country a good and worthy citizen; but by his family, upon whom his loss falls heaviest, he will ever be remembered as a worthy son, loving husband and kind brother.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathise with the bereaved family in their great affliction, and tender them the assurance that we share with them in the sorrow that is upon us all.

Resolved, That a copy of the above, signed by our officers and under the seal of our Lodge, be forwarded to the widow of our late Brother.

I. JENKISON,
MOSES DRAKE, Jr.,
WM. H. BROOKS.

Which was unanimously adopted, and ordered to be published in the city papers.

E. Bostick, Sec'y.

A Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of Summit City Lodge 170, F. & A. M. of Fort Wayne, held on the occasion of the death of Brother Charles W. Lewis, the committee before appointed for that purpose made the following

REPORT.

Whereas, It has pleased an All-wise Providence again to visit our Brotherhood, and take from among us our well beloved brother Charles W. Lewis, thereby renewing unto us the solemn lesson that, "in the midst of life we are in death," and, while we bow in acquiescence to the dispensation which has filled our hearts with sadness, we may still rejoice in the full assurance that our brother has been raised to better and worthier associations, Be it therefore

Resolved, That in the death of our brother Charles W. Lewis, this Lodge has lost one of its worthiest and best members, community a good citizen, and his family one whose place can never be supplied.

Resolved, That in their deep affliction, we tender to the widow and family of our deceased Brother our heartfelt sympathy, and the assurance that we share with them in their sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing, properly certified by the officers of this Lodge be presented to the widow of our deceased Brother

Alert Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1.
Fireman's Hall, June 21st, 1858.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

Whereas, It hath pleased Almighty God to take from our midst our beloved Friend and associate Charles W Lewis:

Resolved, That by the death of our worthy brother Charles W. Lewis, who was ever on the "Alert," and one of the first to "Haste to the Rescue," we lose a true hearted Fireman, and a social companion at our meetings, and in the ranks, whether on parade or on duty.

Resolved, That while we deplore the loss of a worthy member, we also deeply sympathize with his widow and orphan child, who mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and loving father; and

Resolved, That we implore the blessing of God to rest upon the afflicted family always.

Resolved, That in token of our sincerity we drape our Hall and Truck in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days; also

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have the foregoing resolutions published in our city papers and a copy of the same be sent to the deceased brother's family.

Dr. Roback's Theory and Practice.

It would seem that Dr Roback's "Scandinavian Remedies" have taken the highest rank among the standard medicines of the day. His theory is, that in whatever organ disease may show itself, its roots are in the blood. Hence his famous Swedish curatives, the Blood Purifier and the Blood Pills, are designed to act specifically upon the sanguineous fluid. One thing cannot be disputed, they produce most salutary effects even in apparently hopeless Individuals who have suffered for years from dyspepsia, scrofula, eruptions of the skin, bronchitis, asthma, general prostration, liver complaint, rheumatism, neuralgia, and many other distressing maladies, report themselves, over their own signatures, as radically cured by a course of these Remedies.—The claims of Dr. Roback's advertisements are heretofore supported by proof. See Advertisement.

FOURTH OF JULY ODE.

Dr. Roback's Greeting

TO THE UNIVERSAL NATION:

Hail glorious day, beneath whose azure sky,
A giant nation from the womb of Time
First sprung to life, and Liberty on high,
To an admiring world by right divine
Claimed the new-born as hers, while tyranny
Cowered beneath that sun's resplendent rays,
Which blazed propitious on a land so free
As men and angels mingled hymns of praise.

All hail, Columbia; o'er the rolling wave
Thy stars and stripes in many a fearful fight
Have floated proudly, while thy sons so brave,
With dauntless hearts, and stern, resistless might,
Nobly have battled for thy rights and fame,
Winning from despots of the olden world
Fear and respect; long may thy name
Beam with bright hope, thy flag be aye unfurled.

But not in sanguinary war's red path,
Nor rather in the cause of peace and joy—
Nor groans of anguish, but the merry laugh
Should welcome to our land the blue-eyed boy,
The God of Love, the Cornucopia's horn
Be emptied on thy hills and vales so free;
Thus may thy children greet the natal morn,
Of fair Columbia and of Liberty.

Ruddy-cheeked health, with blessed, joyous train
Of happy fancies, still shall bless the land;
From Roback's Swedish herbs flies direful pain—
Dyspepsia's baffled, and the trembling hand
Of the poor nervous wretch no longer shakes;
From his far famed Scandinavian remedies
Fever and ague quails, while health awakes,
And dire disease, with all its horrors, flies.

Corrupted blood, pure as the limpid stream,
Soon 'neath their magic influence courses free;
The dull dyspeptic's eye with healthful gleam
Sparkles and rings the laugh in jollity.
Neuralgia, too, in all its horrid guise,
Is cured as certain as that day succeeds
The darksome night; and this as surely flies
All lung complaints before his remedy.

Yet one more agent in the glorious strife,
Obeying [illegible] is called up at his will—
Another new and joyous lease of life
Is brought by his Blood Purifier and Pill
To all who have acquired the horrid taint,
Acute or chronic, as it chance to be
Of diseased liver. Quickly the complaint
Shall fly, and leave that organ whole and free.

Thus having to my patrons now proclaimed
The health inspiring virtues which possess
These medicines throughout the land, so famed
As having thousands upon thousands blessed,
I bid you all adieu; and may this day
Be ever cherished by the free and brave,
And Freedom's sun, with bright and genial ray,
Still gild the stars which o'er us proudly wave.

For sale in Fort Wayne by H. B. Reed & Co. and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the United States and Canadas.

B. RANDALL,

PROPRIETOR OF

I. M. SINGER'S

Patent Sewing Machine,

of the State of Pennsylvania (except the counties of Erie, Aleghaney and Philadelphia) State of Wisconsin, and the northern part of Indiana.

THE world wide reputation of these machines renders puffing unnecessary. All who have used Singer's Machines testify to their superior merits over all others. Over 12,000 have been sold and are now in active operation, and not one has proved a failure! By simply changing the needle and thread the same machine will execute perfectly every variety of work, coarse or fine, on cloth or leather. From $200 to $500 a year can be cleared by an individual using this machine more than can be cleared by hand.

Singer has also brought out a new

FAMILY MACHINE,

highly ornamented, which for beauty and expedition far surpasses all other Family Machines. These machines use two threads, forming a lock stitch in the centre of the goods sewed, and making a perfect back stitch on both sides of the cloth, which makes a seam much stronger and harder to rip than hand sewing, and does not use more than two thirds as much thread as the chain stitch machine.

These machines are for sale by the undersigned, at his office on North Fifth Street, opposite Good's Hotel, Reading, Pennsylvania;

Also by T. E. EVANSON, Traveling Agent in Indiana. Silk, Needles, Oil, and Thread for sale by T. E. EVANSON,

DR. ROBACK'S

BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD PILLS.

DISEASE VANQUISHED

BY

Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Remedies.

AFTER YEARS OF STUDY AND EXPERIMENT, Dr. Roback, the eminent Swedish Physician, succeeded in producing a medicine from twenty-three different species of mountain-herbs of his native land, which acts directly upon the cause of disease in the blood, and by restoring the corrupted fountain of life, to a condition of health and purity, expels disease from the system, wherever it may be located, or whatever may be its character. Indigestion, nervous complaints, epileptic and other fits, coughs, consumption in its early stages, sore throat, bronchitis, fever and ague, asthma, low spirits, sexual incapacity, feminine weakness, pricking of the skin, symptomatic of paralysis, rheumatism, neuralgia, tumor, cancer, diabetes, lassitude and debility, diarrhea, and all other disorders of the organs of respiration, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach, the nerves of the muscular fiber, are unerringly cured by this preparation. It is to the materies morbi or seeds of diseas what an alkali is to an acid: it neutralizes them, with absolute certainty, while at the same time it regulates the secretions, removes obstructions from the bowels, creates appetite, renews bodily vigor, and regenerates every animal function. Such is the nature, such are the effects of Dr. Roback's famous Scandinavian Blood Purifier, which if taken in conjunction with the Scandinavian Blood Pills, will not only obliterate the most painful disease, but prevent their recurrence, and lengthen life beyond the ordinary span.

In the SCANDINAVIAN VEGETABLE BLOOD PILLS, Dr. Roback presents the result of twenty years of experience, hard study and experiments as to what a perfect pill should be. No one can doubt their superiority after one single trial. Price of the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, $1 per bottle, or $5 per half dozen. Scandinavian Blood Pills, 25 cents per box, or five for $1.

PERU, Miami County, Ind., Aug. 4, 1854.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK: I have received so much benefit from your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, that I have thought it my duty, and it is no less my inclination, to give you a plain statement of my case. I was for years afflicted with that bane of all comfort, and efficiency in business, dyspepsia. To recapitulate all the so-called remedies which I have used to rid myself of this disease, would indeed make a melancholy catalogue. I also consulted with the best physicians I could hear of. I was induced to try your remedies through the persuasions of a friend, and after using them a few days was greatly benefitted, and in a short time, less than a month, I was entirely and permanently cured. I was also afflicted with the most violent nervous headache, which I suppose was produced by my disordered stomach; for when my dispepsia left me, my headach left with it. I now feel better in every respect than I have for ten years.

Very truly yours, JOHN S. DEMUTH.

From the Rev. Mr. McMULLEN, Pastor of the Roberts Chapel:

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 5, 1857.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—I have used your Blood Purifier for a nervous affection, from which I have suffered much at times. While it is pleasant to the taste it certainly has a happy effect upon the nerves. Please accept my thanks for your kind regards and acts and believe me, Yours, J. W. T. McMULLEN.

CINCINNATI, Friday, Sept. 15, 1857.

Dr. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—Having been afflicted with neuralgia or rheumatism for the past year and a half, and having seen your medicine, called the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, highly recommended gentlemen whom I am acquainted, I was induced to try it; but not before I had used various other medicines. After using two bottles, I felt its effect very sensibly, and using two more, I found myself perfectly cured. You will allow me, therefore, to congratulate you upon making a discovery in medicine which is proving itself to be a worker of such wonders in the disease of human family. GEORGE S. BENNET,

Local Editor Cincinnati Daily Enquirer.

INDIANAPOLIS, Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1857.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—Having been troubled for several years with extreme debility and weakness, so much so that I was unable to attend to my ordinary business at times, and having heard of the wonderful cures that your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Pills were effecting I was induced by a friend to try them.

I have been using the Purifier for the last twelve months, and find the medicine fully equal to its recommendation. So valuable is it to me that I cannot now dispense with the use of it at my advanced age of life—seventy-seven years.

I cheerfully give this information for the benefit of those similarly affected. MORRIS MORRIS.

AND who that is gray would not have it restored to former color; or bald, but would have the growth restored, or troubled with dandruff and itching but would have it removed, or troubled with scrofula, scald head or other eruptions, but would be cured, or with sick head ache (neuralgia), but would be cured. It will also remove all pimples from the face and skin. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will do all this; see circular and the following:

ANN ARBOR, November 5, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir, I have heard much said of the wonderful effects of your Hair Restorative, but having been so often cheated by quackery and quack nostrums, hair eyes, &c., I was disposed to place your Restorative in the same category with the thousand and one loudly-trumpeted quack remedies, until I met you in Lawrence County, some months since, when you gave me such assurance as induced the trial of your Restorative in my family—first by my good wife, whose hair had become very thin and entirely white, and before exhausting one of your large bottles, her hair was restored nearly to its original beautiful brown color, and had thickened and become beautiful and glossy upon, and entirely over the head; she continues to use it, not simply because of its beautifying effects upon the hair, but because of its healthful influence upon the head and mind. Others of my family and friends are using your Restorative with the happiest effects; therefore my skepticism and doubts in reference to its character and value are entirely removed, and I can and do most cordially and confidentially recommend its use by all who would have their hair restored from white or grey (by reason of sickness or age) to original color and beauty, and by all young persons who would have their hair beautiful and glossy.

Very truly and gratefully yours, SOLOMON MANN.

FRIEND WOOD: I was long time after I saw you at Bliesfield before I got the bottle of Restorative for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Detroit, and when I got it we concluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as the surest test of its power. It has done all that you assured me it would do; and others of my family and friends, having witnessed its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as entitled to the highest consideration you claim for it.

Again, very respectfully and truly, yours,

SOLOMON MANN.

CARLYLE, ILL., June 28, 1853.

I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and have no doubt permanently so.

Mr. Blifkin's Baby.

That first bady was a great institution. As soon as he came into this "breathing world," as the late Wm. Shakspeare has it, he took command in our house. Everything was subservient to him! The baby was the balance wheel that regulated everything. He regulated the temperature, he regulated the food, he regulated the servants, he regulated me For the first six months of that precious existence he had me up on an average six times a night.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "bring that light here, do; the baby looks strangely; I'm so afraid it will have a fit."

Of course the lamp was brought, and of course the baby lay sucking his fist like a little white bear as he was.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "I think I feel a draught of air; I wish you would get up and see if the window is not open a little, because baby might get sick."

Nothing was the matter with the window, as I knew very well.

"Mr Blifkins," says my wife, just as I was going to sleep again, "that lamp, as you have placed it, shines directly in baby's eyes—strange that you have no more consideration."

I arranged the light and went to bed again Just as I was dropping off to sleep.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "did you think to buy that broma to-day for the baby?"

"My dear," said I, "will you do me injustice to believe that I could overlook the matter so essential to the comfort of that inestimable child."

She apologised very handsomely, but made her anxiety the scapegoat. I forgave her, and without saying a word more to her I addressed myself to sleep.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, shaking me, "you must not snore so, you will wake up the baby."

"Jest so—jest so," said I, half asleep, thinking I was Solon Shingle.

"Mr Blifkins," said my wife, "will you get up and hand me the warm gruel from the nurse lamp for baby—the dear child! if it wasn't for his mother I don't know what he would do. How can you sleep so, Mr. Blifkin's."

"I suspect, my dear," said I, "that it is because I am tired."

"Oh, it's very well for you men to talk about being tired," said my wife; "I don't know what you would say, if you had to toil and drudge like a poor woman with a baby"

I tried to sooth her by telling her she had no patience at all, and got up for the posset Having aided in answering the baby's requirments I stepped into bed again with the hope of sleeping.

"Mr. Bifkins," said she in a louder key. I said nothing.

"Oh, dear," said the estimable woman, in great apparent anguish, "How can a man who has arrived at the honor of a live baby of his own sleep, when he don't know that the dear creature will live till morning?"

I remained silent, and, after a while, deeming that Mrs. Blifkins has gone to sleep, I stretched my limbs for repose. How long I slept I don't know, I was awakened by a furious jab in the forehead by some sharp instrument. I started up, and Mrs. Blifkins was sitting up in bed adjusting a portion of the baby's dress. She had in a state of semi-somnolence, mistaken my head for the pillow, which she customarly used for a nocturnal pincushion I protested against such treatment in somewhat round terms, pointing to several perforations in my forehead. She told me I should willingly bear such trifling things for the sake of the bady. I insisted upon it that I didn't think it my duty as a parent to that young immortal required the surrender of my forehead for a pincushion. This was one of many nights passed in this way. The truth was that the bady was what every man's first baby is, an atocrat—absolute and unlimited. Such was the story of Blifkins as he related it to us the other day. It is a little exaggerated picture of almost every man's experience.—Saturday Evening Gazette.

Where the Plaster Was.

A certain doctor (rather modest young man by the way) was recently called in to see a lady who had been taken suddenly ill. The doctor found the application of a mustard plaster necessary, and accordingly went to work and made one and laid it carefully by to prepare the lady for its application. Every thing was ready and the doctor sought the plaster; but, strange to say, it had disappeared. The doctor and the negro nurse searched high and low, in every probable place, for the missing plaster, but in vain; it was gone, no one could tell where The nurse had not seen it since the doctor laid it on the chair. There was no other alternative but to go to work and make another, which was accordingly done. But still the question would present itself to all—what had become of the plaster? The circumstances of its having been spirited away began to tell unfavorably on the sick lady's nervous sensibility; but the doctor could not help it; he could not explain the mystery. The doctor in a deep brown study prepared to leave, and stood up before the fire to warm himself before encountering the cold without. Through the force of vulgar habit he parted his coat tails behind, when the nurse, displaying about four inches of ivory, sa'd:

"I foun de plaster, massa doctor."

"Where?" eagerly asked the doctor, "where is it?"

"Yon got it abind," said the nurse, grinning.

The doctor clapped his hands behind, and there it was sticking fast to the seat of his breeches, where he had sat down on it when it was lying on the chair. This was too much for the modest doctor. He seited his hat and bolted; nor could he be prevailed on to visit the lady during her sickness.

To Save Harness. It is the hairy side of leather that cracks; and if harness is made (if double) so that the fleshy sides are outward, and (if single) so that the hairy side is next to the horse will soften the hairy side; and, the bend being so that the flesny side is on the outside of the sedgment of the circle, no provocation is given to the inside of the circle to crack. Wagon-harness has lasted twenty years uncracked simply by this means The harness maker will object to it because he cannot put inferior leather in, as he otherwise could. But stirrup-leathers are made so, and so are shoes, and why not harness?

The Leviathan—This monster steamship, it is announced by the company, will not make her contemplated trip to Portland, Maine, until next spring. She will then commence running regularly between Holyhead or Liverpool and Portland, making the trip, it is expected, in seven days

Giving Him the Strap.

There is a doctor in the north western part of this consolidated city who is especially remarkable for being, as the women call it, "short and crusty." A week or two since, he was called to visit a patient who was laboring under a severe attack of cheap whisky.

"Well, doctor, I'm down, you see; completely floored; I've got the tremendous delirium, you know!"

"Tremendous, you fool; where'd you get your rum?" queried the doctor.

"All over in spots; broke out promiscuously, doctor."

"Served you right; where did you get your rum?"

"Father died of the same disease; took him under the short ribs, and took him off bodily."

"Well, you've got to take something immediately."

"You're a trump, doctor. Here, wife, I'll take a dip of old rye."

"Le still blockhead. Mrs B, if your husband should get worse before I return, which will be in an hour, just give him a dose of that trunk strap, maybe that'll fetch him to a sense of his folly."

The doctor sailed out grandly, and in an hour hailed in again; and found his friend of the delirium tremendous in a terrible condition, writhing and struggling with pain. His wife, a female of the plain but ignorant school, came up, and laying her hand upon the doctor's said.

"Doctor, I gave him the strap, as directed."

"Did you thrash him well?"

"Thrash him!" exclaimed the astonished woman "No; but I cut the strap into hash, and made him swallow it."

"Oh, doctor," roared the victim, "I swallowed the leather, but I couldn't swallow the buckle."

The doctor administered a couple of pills and evaporated.

without the fair of failure on its part to do all the proprietor claims for it,

Full directions accompanying each box; and all that is requisite is strictly to observe them, and a cure is certain to follow.

The proprietor refers to the following testimonials from gentlemen of character and standing, who have voluntarily given their certificates in its favor in regard to its efficacy in their own cases. Read them.

The following is from one of the most reliable citizens of Chicago, the late Treasurer of Cook County Illinois:

Chicago, July 25, 1855.

Dr. Cavanaugh:—Dear Sir,—I wish hereby to make known to the afflicted that I have been troubled with the Piles for twenty years and upwards. and at times most severely. And during a recent and exceedingly painful attack a friend procured a box of your Salve, and asked me to give it a trial I did so; not however with the expectation of benefiting my disease, for truly, I had tried so many applications I had lost confidence in all. But in making use of your Salve, I soon found that is was doing me good; and really it is incredible to myself, that with only about two weeks' use of your Salve, I am so far as I can judge a well man

I most cheerfully make this statement, believing it due both to yourself and such as may be afflicted with this most painful and trying disease. I do not hesitate to say that I consider your preparation an invaluable remedy for the Piles.

Most sincerely yours, I. N. N. HEALD.

The Hon Richard Yates, late member of Congress from the Springfield, Ill., district, says:

Jacksonville, Ill., Nov. 15, 1855.

Dr. Thos. H. Cavanaugh.—Dear Sir,—The preparation, Cavanaugh's Pile Salve, which you furnished, I found of great service producing an easy and speedy cure. I do not hesitate to recommend it as an invaluable remedy for the Piles

Respectfully, RICHARD YATES.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

Mr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds, a remedy that cures

Every Kind of Humor,

FROM

The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple

TWO bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

One to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it was caused by a canker in the stomach.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.

One to two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.

One to two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys.

Four to six bottles have cured the worst cases of dropsy.

One to three bottles has cured the worst case of piles; a relief is always experienced. What a mercy to get relief in such excruciating disease!

Since its first discovery, I have from time to time added various other herbs to it; of one of them, Hippocrates, the Father of Medicine, says: "It is an herb of Jupiter, and in the sign Leo

"It openeth obstructions of the liver, gall and spleen: it is an especial friend to the liver, worth all other herbs put together; cooling it when too hot, and warming it when too cold.

"It createth an appetite, cureth all gone and inking feelings in the pit of the stomach, easeth all pains and stitches in the side.

"It cureth the jaundice by opening the gall, and restoreth the native color of the body.

"It expels all raw, vicious and slimy humors out of the body; it cleanseth all inward ulcers and congealed blood from the kidneys.

"By opening all obstructions of the spleen, it purgeth all burnt choler and melancholy vapors which riseth to the head and brain, causing distressing headache, fearful forebodings of trouble trembling of the heart, fainting and swooning.

"The herb boiled in wine is particularly good to revive the drooping spirits of the aged, and whoever has a lingering sickness after a fever, nothing restoreth him to health so quick as drinking the juice of this herb.

"The seeds boiled in water cureth the most offensive breath, and, drank at bedtime, preventeth what is commonly called nightmare, and all melancholy dreams, a disease bilious people are liable to"

The Father of Medicine says of another herb in this composition that "it is an herb of the Sun, and in the sign of Leo

"The sun is the source of all life, and ruleth the heart; and this herb is the best cordial, the greatest strengthener of the heart of any that grows; it comforteth the heart, cureth all palpitation thereof, taketh away trembling, fainting and smoothering of it; yet it must be take carefully, or severe gripings will ensue, which must be corrected with fennel seed or ginger.

"So much for this herb, between which and the adder there is the utmost antipathy, so much so that the adder will not touch him that has the herb about him."

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE Adults, one table spoonful per day;—Children over ten years, dessert spoonful;—Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

D. J. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS
Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Constipation, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite or any Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c. &c.

All of these ills yield like magic to its vilifying influence upon the system, and for a person in advanced years, or recovering from sickness of any kind, nothing can be more conducive to their convalescence than the use of these Bitters as per directions on the bottles.

Scarcely four years have elapsed since the first introduction of "Dr. J Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters" to the public, and such has been the success of this article after its tested efficacy by a discriminating public, that during the last year nearly half a million bottles were sold, with a continuous demand in excess of the supply with all the facilities the proprietors have been able to command in its preparation.

Are you dyspeptic? Then take these Stomach Bitters.

Are you billious? Try one bottle of these Bitters, and be relieved at once.

Are you annoyed by Indigestion or constipation? Remove the cause by the free use of these Bitters.

Have you fever and ague? How many thousands in the West and South have been cured of this constitution destroying disease by the free use of these Bitters!

All should try this great Antidote. We venture to affirm that, when Hostetters's Stomach Bitters are used, a case of Fever and Ague cannot occur; therefore, no family consulting their own interest can afford to do without it.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

In recommending to your use Dr J Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, it is but just to state that as a stimulant to the system, in imparting strength and vigor, preparatory to periodical stages, which are of times attended with much pain and trouble, we know of no preparation more happily adapted to all afflictions consequent upon this cause, and for cramps in stomach, cholera morbus, and all ailments arising from over indulgence in fruits, vegetables, ice creams, &c., it is certain and almost instantaneous remedy, and no family should be without it.

One wineglassful taken three times each before meals, or half the quantity i the patients are in a weak condition, and increased in proportion to their strength, will be found a great tonic agent, which all will appreciate when personally satisfied of the facts, as they will be by giving the Bitters one trial.

☞ CAUTION. ☜

Carefulness should be our study, but more particularly when the health is at stake. Since these Bitters have, from their medical qualities, become so popular, there have been a great many concoctions called Stomach Bitters, and often represented to be the same in virtue as Dr. Hostetter's, palmed upon the public. Be careful of these villainous compounds! Our Bitters are put up in square quart bottles, and covered with the patent metallic cap, stamped "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," and Dr. J Hostetter blown on the glass. All others are imitation.

Proceedings of the City Council.

CITY OF FORT WAYNE, June 8th, 1858.

At a meeting of the Common Council of the city of Fort Wayne, held in the Council Room, on the 8th day of June, 1858, the following, with other business of general interest, was transacted:

The Board of Health made the following report:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

The undersigned, the Board of Health of the City of Fort Wayne, respectfully report, that the health of the City is now good, but that it cannot be expected to remain so, unless immediate steps be taken to improve the condition of the Streets, Alleys, Privies, Sewers, and Cess-pools; and remove the immense accumulation of filth of various kinds which exists in the City.

The Board made a tolerably thorough examination of the Streets and Alleys on yesterday, the 7th inst., and found that they were generally in a very bad condition; and therefore we would suggest—that the gutters of all those Streets which are obstructed with grass and other things, and which contain stagnant water, should be immediately cleaned out, and kept so.

The Board particularly urge the necessity of doing those things now, as more injury than good to the health of the City would result, by stirring up the filth a few weeks hence, as repeated experience and observation have demonstrated.

The Alleys also require immediate attention. The manure and other impurities which exist in almost all of them, should be removed and not allowed to accumulate. We would call the attention of the Mayor and Council to some particularly bad places which we examined. Viz:

The vacant lots on Berry Street, next Mrs. Thompson's Residence, and the Alley back of them, which receives the drainage of the Lesman House, and the Alley back of the Lesman House, appeared to be the worst places that your board saw.

The Alley between Columbia and Main Streets, from Barr to Calhoun Streets, is also in a very filthy condition; some of the lots also adjoining this Alley contain considerable stagnant water and filth, which ought to be immediately removed.

A portion of Ewing Street, between Berry and Wayne Streets, opposite Fisher's, is always filthy and offensive.

In the west end, on account of the nature of the soil, there are not so many wet and filthy places, but there are some spots that need attention, viz:

A pond on Jefferson Street, near the Bluffton Road and Mr. John H. Cochran's residence, ought to be drained or filled up; and those ponds near Mr. Withers' should be attended to, as the present ditch does not seem to perfectly drain them.

A pond opposite the Rockhill House, is caused Mr. Rumsey informed us, by obstruction of the ditch opposite Humphrey & Hurd's shop.

Some other places which contain stagnant water and filth, we noticed viz:

The cellar on the corner of Calhoun and Berry Streets.

The Lot on Berry Street opposite the Court House.

The Alley between Wayne and Washington Streets, back of the School House.

The Alley between Wayne and Washington Streets, from Calhoun to Harrison Streets.

J. B. ROBINSON, President.
L. MEINDERMAN.
B. S. WOODWORTH, Sec'ry,

Dr. John S. Irwin, member of council, presented the following petition, which was referred to the committee on Streets, Nuisances, &c:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

Your petitioner would respectfully request your honorable body to call the attention of the Street Committee to the condition of lots No. 14, and 15 Taber's Addition, on south side of Berry St., between Lafayette and Clay Sts. The said lots are now in such a condition as to be extremely detrimental to the health of all persons in the neighborhood, and as the warm weather progresses must become much more so. And your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

JOHN S. IRWIN.

Hon. Wm. Rockhill having made a proposal to Council to sell two lots in his addition to Fort Wayne, for a Market Space, the matter was referred to the Committee on Finance with instruction to purchase. The following remonstrance against the proposed action of council in the premises was presented, read, and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

Your petitioners, residents of said city, beg leave respectfully to remonstrate against the proposed action of said council, in locating a Market House on the the lots on the north west corner of Wayne and Broadway Streets in said city. Many reasons against said action of common council might be urged,—among which might be named the following: It will convert one of the finest locations for private residences in the city, into a market space, which from its very nature will render it unpleasant as a place of residence. It will be immediately opposite to one of the principal churches of the city, where a large congregation meet for worship, and who will feel particularly annoyed by its location at that point. It will annoy many other and good citizens who have already selected that locality for their future homes, not expecting such occupation of said lots; while a better location for a Market, can be had in the large commons south of this, where there are no present residents whatever.

Signed by W. C. Shoaff and 41 others:

L. T. Bourie, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, made the following report, which he read, and on motion, it was received and ordered on file, and the accompanying ordinances referred to the committee on Fire Department:

To his Honor the Mayor and Honorable Common Council, of the City of Fort Wayne:

GENTLEMEN:—I return you my thanks for giving me the honorable office of Chief Engineer, which I will endeavor to fill to the best of my ability, with pleasure to myself and hope may prove satisfactory to you and the citizens of Fort Wayne. I have appointed George Humphrey 1st asst. and George Nelson 2nd asst Engineers, subject to your approval, both of whom agree to serve in this capacity if agreeable to you.

No Fire Department can well get along without a Fire Association, and it has been my desire, and what I have and will strive for, to get up a well governed and well organized Fire Department, which we unfortunately have not got, but very fortunately have not required, but there is no knowing how soon the hour may be when we shall, and it is best to be prepared, or in other words, "Lock the stable door before the horse is stolen." The Firemen risk their lives and health for the protection of other men's lives and property, and by so doing do not reap the laurels of the soldier, nor are they recompensed for their labor. No! they ask it not; it is voluntary on their part, and they should be encouraged as long as they are deserving and work for a good cause. It is true, they have and expect to have something in the way of amusement sometimes, and they should not be censured if they shou'd expend any of their funds in so doing; for if that privilege was refused them, I could not expect a Fire Department to keep up in any other way, than a hired or paid Department which would be much more expensive than volunteer Department in a city like our own.

I hope the Council will be prudent, and that it will procure all additional and necessary apparatus &c to make our Fire Department complete, and not be behind our sister cities; and I further hope they will extend their liberality to the several Fire Companies, coming under the provisions of the Fire Ordinance of the city; and in conclusion would say that all Firemen require encouragement, and they look first to you, the City Fathers, to show such encouragement as an example to our citizens that they may do likewise. In speaking thus I do not wish to be understood they have not done so already, but that they may ever do so from time to time when required.

I herewith present you a form of ordinances for your inspection and approval or disapproval, as you may deem proper, after examination and consideration, relative to the Fire Department of this city, and I would recommend their adoption.

L. T. BOURIE, Chief Eng'r.
Fort Wayne, June 8th, 1858.

The Difficulty with Paraguay.

Everybody knows that we have a difficulty with Paraguay, but very few know what it is or what is the cause of it. The history of the case, from the documents recently published, appears to be this:

Twelve years ago the Paraguayan Government issued a decree encouraging and inviting foreigners to settle there and engage in trade—by offering them lands, monopolies, &c. This was done for the purpose of developing the resources and increasing the commerce of the country. "The Yankees" are always on the look out for such openings, and the invitation was responded to by the formation of an Emigrant Company in Rhode Island. The Legislature incorporated it with a capital of $300,000. The company bought and took to Paraguay steam engines, sugar mills, brick machine, rice mills, agricultural implements, &c., enough for a large colony. A large number of mechanics, farmers and others, embarked in the enterprise, and the colony was formally planted in 1853. The government received them, bestowed the promised privileges upon them, and encouraged them to enter upon a large business.

Paraguay is one of the finest timbered countries in the world, and has some of the best tobacco land in America. The company soon found that their saw mill, (the first ever built south of the Amazon and east of the Andes,) was a most lucrative property, and the cigar factory was equally profitable. It happened that President Lopez found it out also.

Though nominally a Republic, Paraguay, is in fact, a despotism, and the President is an absolute dictator. With him, to covet the property and thriving business of "los Yankees" was as natural as to seize it was practicable. He fulminated three decrees, revoking their title to their lands, repudiating his contracts with them and confiscating their privileges for his own benefit. He seized their mills, vessels and machinery, and would not even let them leave the country alive, unless they would formally relinquish everything to him. It happened that an American man of war, the Water witch, Commodore Page, came along just then, took the Americans on board, in defiance of the President, and brought them home. They now demand reparation. Lopez, in reply, declares that the Water witch committed a "scandalous hostility" in taking them off, and sets up, in justification of his conduct, the plea that they had practiced fraud in obtaining the title to their lands. A little prompt and firm action on the part of our Government would bring President Lopez to terms quite easy.

The Indiana Senators.—We congratulate our readers upon the decisive vote by which the Senate on Saturday confirmed the election to that body of Hons. Jesse D. Bright and Graham N. Fitch. The republican press has been accustomed, for some time, to sneer at these gentlemen as usurpers of seats to which they were not entitled, and this has been especially the case whenever their votes have had a controlling influence in deciding important questions. At such times, the Senate has been urged to a prompt determination of the contested seats, as if the determination was sure to result in the defeat of the sitting members, however, have awaited the result with dignity, calmness, and patience. Conscious of the justice of their position, they were contented to await the triumph which they knew would not fail to come. This triumph has now been achieved, and by a most gratifying vote the Senate have decided that they are the legally elected senators from Indiana. Mr. Bright remains, therefore in the distinguished body in which he has already become eminent, and Mr. Fitch, who is associated with him, will falsify the promise of his career in the House if he does not occupy a most important position in the Senate by gentlemen as able, industrious, and faithful as Messrs. Bright and Fitch, while the Democracy of the whole country cannot but look with interest upon a result which continues to unswearing democrats in positions of the highest consequence.

The Vote on the Indiana Senatorial Contested Election Case.—The vote in the United States Senate, on the motion of Mr. Trumbull, of Ill., declaring that Senators Bright and Fitch of Indiana, were NOT legally elected Senators, was as follows

"YEAS—Broderick, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Dixon, Doolittle, Douglas, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, Houston, King, Mason, Pearce, Seward, Simmons, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson—23.

"NAYS—Allen, Benjamin, Bigler, Brown, Clay, Clingman, Davis, Fitzpatrick, Green, Gwin, Hayne, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson of Tennessee, Jones, Kennedy, Mallory, Polk Pugh, Rice, Reid, Sebastian, Slidell, Thompson of Kentucky, Thompson of New Jersey, Toombs, Wright, Yulee—30"

They were then declared unanimously elected. The vote was not strictly a party one. Senators Mason of Virginia, Douglas of Illinois, Pearce of Maryland, Broderick of California, Democrats, voted against Messrs. Bright and Fitch's right to their seats, while Kennedy of Maryland and Thompson of Kentucky, two "American" Senators, voted in their favor. This decision of the Senate will have a most wholesome effect in encouraging scenes of anarchy and violence in State Legislatures, and stop minorities from resorting to violence and revolutionary means to prevent majorities in those bodies from choosing Senators. It is high time the practice received its quietus.—Cin. Enq.

Tiffin & Fort Wayne and Clinton Line Railroads.—We noticed in a recent issue that a consolidation had been affected between these two roads, with a view to their speedy completion. By the stipulations entered into, the Tiffin & Ft. W. Company obtain to a certain extent the control of the eastern division, between Tiffin and New London. An arrangement has been entered into with certain Eastern capitalists, by which the latter agree to complete the grading and furnish the iron for the entire route, providing two companies can sell bonds enough to pay for the iron, when delivered in installments of one-third each. The amount necessary to be raised, we understand, is about $100,000, and payment is made conditional upon the actual delivery of the iron on the track. The payment of the first installment secures the speedy completion of the entire road. In consideration of the amount paid, the subscribers are to receive first class 70 per cent. mortgage bonds of the road. As they will be given only in event that the road is completed, they will be worth, to the holder, at least what they cost and possibly more. We hope that all interested in the completion of this important link in the great chain of thoroughfares, stretching from the Atlantic on the east, to the Missouri river on the West, will come up and subscribe liberally. As payment is only required in case the road is built, there is no risk run. To the City of Tiffin and the people of Seneca Co. this road will be of incalculable advantage bringing, us in direct communication with Cleveland and Philadelphia on the East and Chicago on the West.—Tiffin Tribune.

From the Philadelphia Argus.

We have too few Holidays.

We have on several occasions called the attention of our readers to the fact that we have in this country too few holidays, too few rational and innocent amusements, too much artificial sanctity and puritanical gloom, too much devotion to unceasing drudgery and scraping up dollars, too little attention paid to social and intellectual enjoyment. A contemporary comes to our aid in this matter. He says a capital opening presents itself for any one who can invent and introduce new holidays. We have just four days in the year besides Sundays, on which by poetic license (for even then it is only half true) we may say labor is generally suspended; one of them, the Fourth of July, two others serve to link the closing with the opening year, and the fourth day—Thanksgiving—comes at the gubernatorial recommendation. We want more holidays. Every month should have its day for secular amusements and relaxation from business.

Holidays now are so rare that our people hardly know how to enjoy them. Think for example, how most people spend our national anniversary. Those who labor to get up displays for the public gratification, certainly deserve credit.—Many seek for enjoyment where they too often get only disgrace—in sinks of dissipation. Others in listlessness dose away the day. While a wise few quietly delight the eye by the public display, and the ear and mind by the literary festivities, and end in quiet pleasures at home: or with appreciating companions seek at once the charms of nature and of social intercourse, by a pic-nic in some secluded grove. The very rarity of a day of relaxation makes it to many an irksome task to get through its hours. So it is, too, in a different way, but even more generally, on Christmas and New Years, as well as on Thanksgiving. People eat, and the holiday comes and passes with the dinner.

Those who are more used to holidays can make a better use of them. A great many are like the cook who once having a day given her as her own, never once rose from her bed, but slept the whole twenty-four hours. Aristotle's remark that a bow should not always be bent if you would retain its spring, contains the explanation of this failure to use the season of relaxation well. Habits are formed so stubbornly, that when the pressure of business is removed, the mind cannot put on native elasticity. The truth is, men with us become mere drudges, and allow themselves to be swallowed up in business. More particularly is this true of the middle classes, measured by wealth, and of those who have made or are rapidly making their own fortunes. We have no doubt that this lack of relaxation is one cause of the alleged inferiority of the inhabitants of this country, as compared with others more addicted to amusements.

Give us a holiday a month. Let the youth of both sexes calculate upon it for the four weeks preceding. They will project excursions; they will invent diversions; they will learn to enjoy themselves. As in consequence they will have a fresher spirit, a more buoyant and more firmly knitted frame, and the labors of life will be much more cheerfully performed. We are not sure either, but that every one would be as rich at the end of the year, after enjoying a dozen holidays, as if stinted to two or three. The doctor's bill would be less, and there would be vastly less of the dissipation and beastliness too prevalent now on a day of festivity.

The call of the country is for more holidays He who shall introduce them will certainly have more title to the public gratitude than many who are enjoying honors to which they have no legitimate claim. Who will enter the lists to introduce more holidays?

"Floating Down the River Ohio."—The pilot of the Strader, Joseph Guthrie, on Wednesday night last was somewhat startled by the warblings of a juvenile voice, soon after the boat had passed Warsaw. There was not a house visible on either side of the river, and from whence the voice emanated would have been a mystery had not a cry been heard of "Take me on board!" The engines were immediately stopped, the yawl sent out and a youngster relieved from a small raft upon which he was floating all alone. Dr Dunning took him in charge and on questioning him, he said his name was Thomas Wright; that he lived in Patriot, and while playing upon some floating boards in the Ohio, he got into the current and was unable to regain the shore. When asked how he felt when in the middle of the river, and in the night, upon such a frail vessel, his reply was: "God wouldn't let me get hurt" He said he was singing "Floating down the river on the Ohio," to pass the lonely time. He was brought to the city and was yesterday delivered into the hands of his parents, at Patriot, who were greatly distressed at his absence. The little fellow would do for an Arctic explorer

A Serenade.—The Indianians in Washington turned out en masse on Saturday night, with Esputa's celebrated band, to serenade their Senators, Messrs. Bright and Fitch. At about eleven o'clock they proceeded to the mansion of Mr. Bright. A son of Mr. B., a manly young lad of sixteen came out and announced that his father had not yet returned from the Senate chamber, but in his name he would return his thanks for the compliment they had paid him. The company were then invited into the house, where, where they partook of the good things set before them.

They were fortunate enough to catch Senator Fitch at home, who, after repeated calls, came forth and said:

"Indianians! I know at least half of you. My friends, I thank you for this compliment. It is late. I am fatigued, and will only say that I shall fulfil the promise made to my political friends at the time I was elected: 'If God lets me live, I will serve out the full term for which I was elected;' and with such a constituency as I represent, and in such a cause as we are engaged, I feel that He WILL let me live. Again, I thank you for this compliment. Good night!"

The company then gave three hearty cheers for Fitch.

The company then proceeded to the mansion and serenaded W. W Corcoran Esq; Senators Pugh, Toombs, Benjamin, Slidell, Green and Sebastian. They only succeeded in catching Mr. Green at home, though he had retired to bed. He plead exhaustion; he had been at work over eleven hours, and he knew the Hoosiers—always generous—would excuse him. Missouri and Indiana were neighbors and friends, and he hoped they always would be.

After three cheers for Green, given with a will, the company, at a late hour, dispersed.—Washington Star.

Truth in a Nutshell.—The Washington Union of the 3d, says:

What we have quarreled about since the organization of the Government in point of fact, has been the disposition of slavery in the public territories. This question has been fiercely discussed in Congress and throughout the North on one side, and the South on the other; and yet the North has no interest in it—no power to decide it, no right to interfere with it. The South had no more just claim over it and authority to control it than the North. Congress had no business with it—could not shape it, dislodge it, prohibit it. The people of the territories were its governors. They could create or abolish it when they came up to man's estate. Thus this fright abstraction—this miserable bone of contention—this lifeless and inanimate specter—has been permitted to overshadow all the great interests of the Union, and embroil the industry of one section against the other.

☞ The French Gazette Medicale states that, by an accident, charcoal has been discovered to be a cure for burns. By laying a piece of cold charcoal upon the burn, the pain subsides immediately. By leaving the charcoal on one hour the wound is healed, as has been demonstrated on several occasions. The remedy is cheap and simple, and certainly deserves a trial.

Alleged Murderess Arrested.—Yesterday afternoon Marshal Rehm and officer Kauffman, of the detective force, arrested Caroline Katrina Frederika Schwartz, upon a charge of poisoning a man in Buffalo, N. Y., and will send her to that city to-day, for trial. It appears that she came to Buffalo three weeks ago, in company with a paramour, and stopped at a German boarding house. Twelve days afterwards her paramour died in great agony. At first it was supposed that he was suffering from delirium tremens, but from some symptom in the case it was suspected he might have been poisoned and a post mortem examination was held which showed that those suspicions were correct. Mrs Schwarz had left during the man's sickness, and a description of her was sent to Marshal Rehm. Yesterday afternoon she was found in the street near the Post Office, and taken into custody. She was boarding here in a house on South Canal street, near Niemeyer's Hotel.

Mrs Schwarz, from her own account, is a remarkable woman, and has passed through adventures enough to make a startlingly novel, and the Ledger or Police Gazette should not permit such an eligible opportunity to escape them. She states that her father is a Major General in the army of Baden, Germany; that she has served as an officer, wearing male apparel, in the German, Russian, and French armies; that she has fought the Circassians, and the Arabs in Algiers; that she has fought four duels, and exhibits scars received in three of them; that her father is worth four millions of guilders, and that she expects to receive, within a short time, $40,000 from Germany; that she came to this country ten years ago, and three years afterwards was married, and until recently has lived with her husband on a farm two miles from Danville, N. Y.; that she left him three or four weeks ago, because another wife with three children came over from Germany and claimed her faithless spouse.

She appears to be a highly educated woman and has a large quantity of elegant clothing. She states that the poison was administered in a glass of wine, but denies having given it herself. Last night she wept bitterly, and said she would be forced to stand a trial without the advice of friends or means to defend herself.—Chicago Tribune.

A Thief's Potograph.—Less tragical was the denouement of a larceny perpetrated the other day in the noble forest of Fontainebleau, on the great-coat and luncheon of an enthusiastic artist, who was so intent upon the work of photographing one of the loveliest sites in the picturesque solitudes of that renowned locality, to observe the cautious advance, successful operations, and triumphant retreat of a stroller, in possession of his property. It was not until the conclusion of his picture that the enraptured artist bethought him of his "prog," and feeling that he had earned his refection, betook himself to a neighboring tree at whose foot he had deposited his surtout and his gouter. Judge of the poor fellow's astonishment and dismay at the loss of his property, and the seeming impossibility of discovering the thief who had so completely "sold" him! But judge also of his astonishment on perceiving the photograph on which he had been so intent, and faithfully preserved the image of the ravisher of his missing property, with the aid of a magnifying glass, which the artist had in his pocket, the dress and features of the thief were perfectly discernible. Furnished with this important clue, the artist hastened to the police authorities of the little town, and showed them the features of the thief. With the aid of this indication, hastily transmitted to the various police stations on the borders of the forest, the guardians of the peace entered upon the task of recovering the stolen property; and a couple of hours afterwards the thief was taken, and the artist had the satisfaction of recovering his coat, and all the contents of its pockets, minus only the packet of luncheon which the rascal had already appropriated beyond recall.—Cor. Phila. Evening Post.

The Iowa Gold Stories a Humbug.—Mr. John Daily, of Osceola, Clark county, Iowa, writes to the Indianapolis Journal that the stories of large quantities of gold having been found in Iowa are all false. Mr D. says that he lives in the vicinity of the Clark county mines. He says:

I am acquainted with those who have been trying to work them, and know something of the success they have had. There have been found, in no instance, pieces that would exceed in magnitude a small wheat grain, and shaped like flaxseed. As to the profitableness of the business no person has yet made enough to justify him in continuing at it, although men would willingly labor for seventy-five cents cash per day.

Our country is being flooded with stran,ers coming from the different States, big with the expectation of soon realizing a fortune by mining. The disappointment is so great that they become disgusted with everything connected with Clark county, although it has much splendid land, good timber, and fine farms, and thriving towns and villages; yet they can see nothing of its natural agricultural advantages, on account of their disappointment.

Robert Dale Owen Converted.—Private letters from the Hon. Robert Dale Owen, United States Minister to the Court of Naples, written to his friends at New Harmony, announce the gratifying intelligence that he has become converted to the Christian religion. Mr Owen is well known throughout this State for his scholastic attainments, but his influence has ever been weakened heretofore by his heterodox views of Christianity.—Vincennes (Ind) Gazette.

The Atlantic Cable.—A private letter from an intelligent gentleman and a practical telegrapher who witnessed on the 29th ult., at Plymouth, England, the formal tests of the several electricians in telegraphing through the entire lenght of the Atlantic Cable, states that Prof. Hughes, with his wonderful printing telegraph machines, was able to write through the 3,000 miles of Cable, at the rate of 23 letters per minute. Equal to about seven words. A degree of success which was as unexpected as it was gratifying. Prof. Whitehouse was able to write only at the rate of nineteen words a eighteen minutes, and Prof. Thompson was utterly unable to work at all through the Cable.

Strange Case.—Some time in the month of January last a man named Harrison Mauzy was committed to the Daviess County Jail, on a charge of murdering his wife. After remaining in jail a few days he was found dead and at that time Mr. Wallace was acting as jailer. Wallace shortly after fled to parts unknown. An inquest was held over the body of Mauzy, and the verdict was that he came to his death by some unknown violence. So things remained until quite recently, when Wallace was arrested somewhere in Illinois, and brought here on Tuesday last to answer the charge of murder. Wallace is now in jail to await his trial at the next Circuit Court.—Owensboro (Ky.) American.

Marriage as an Antidote.—The Buffalo Express states that a verdant but excessively loving couple belonging to Canada, upon getting married travelled across the line, and brought up at a Hotel in Cleveland. Upon retiring at night, through haste, or negligence, or ignorance, they blew out the gas instead of turning it out. In the morning, while the boarders in all the adjoining rooms were half dead, the happy lovers were brighter and happier than ever. Gas couldn't smother them. The inference is (says the Express) that marriage is an antidote for poison.

☞ It is understood, however, much the President may desire to visit the West during the recess of Congress—publication having been made that such was his intention—that the pressure of public business will prevent him so doing.

Why is love like a Canal Boat? Because it is an internal transport.

SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1858.

Our Congressional Convention.—There is no call yet issued for the Congressional Convention. We would suggest to the committee that it is high time the call was made and the question settled. Kendallville is a very suitable place for the meeting, and we should think the first week in August, providing the call is made immediately, would be a proper time.

County Convention.—The Democratic Committee have issued a call for a County Convention to assemble at the Court House, on Saturday, the 31st July next; the township meetings to appoint delegates to be held on the previous Saturday, July 24th.

The approaching election will be one of some interest as we have a Clerk, Treasurer, Sheriff, County Commissioner, Senator, and two Representatives, besides Congressman and State Officers to elect. We therefore hope all good Democrats will feel it a duty to attend the township meetings, and be careful to select their very best men for delegates to the County Convention. This is essential to success, as on their selection of candidates much depends. We ought to be particularly careful to nominate not only capable men for the various offices, but also men whose democracy is unimpeached and unimpeachable, and such as every democrat in the county will feel it a bounden duty cheerfully, heartily and zealously to support. All depends on the character of the delegates to whom the selection is entrusted; and we therefore repeat the admonition to all true democrats to attend the township meetings, and be particularly careful to send none but true, faithful unfaltering Democrats as delegates to the County Convention. This is a matter that has not hitherto on all occasions been as strictly attended to as it ought; and it is one that may, if further neglected, lead to difficulties and dissensions, and by weakening faith in our convention method, eventually pave the way to a disastrous defeat and the destruction of our supremacy in this county.

The convention system, properly carried out, is the only true and really democratic system of nominating candidates. If the people will only attend to it, it is the most fair system that can be devised, as the selection of candidates is left entirely to themselves, through their delegates. If they neglect their duty, it may, like any other good thing, be perverted and brought into discredit. Every good democrat, then, owes it to his party to attend the meetings in his township and sustain the convention system, as the surest way of keeping up the organization and securing the success of the party.

We sometimes hear discontented and dubious democrats railing out against the dictation and control of political managers and cliques, who take the business out of the hands of conventions and usurp the nomination of candidates. We have never been able to discover any grounds for such charges, and have scarcely ever heard them made by a democrat who could be relied on to support the democratic candidates, or who was in the invariable habit of voting the pure unscratched democratic ticket.

If the people—that is, the mass of the democratic party—will only do their duty, such a thing cannot happen; the majority must rule, and the few who are supposed to constitute the much dreaded bugbear of a clique are powerless among so many; the power is in the hands of the masses, and it is their duty to use it.

As in view of the importance of the approaching election, it is desirable to have the utmost harmony and union in our ranks and not give our enemies the opportunity to raise even the stale cry of clique against us, we therefore again urge a general attendance at the township meetings, the selection of good democrats for delegates to the convention, and the nomination of our best men for candidates.

☞ The Republican at this place is getting quite excited at its own performances, and its sanguine editor appears to indulge the dream that he is about to revolutionize the county, and carry an entire republican ticket! It is our candid opinion, that notwithstanding his great political sagacity and unrivalled editorial ability, he vastly overestimates his powers and influence, and will find the Allen democracy too firmly fixed in their principles to be led astray even by his wonderful philippics against the right of the Indiana Legislature to elect our U. S. Senators, or his equally powerful articles on the obsolete and now almost forgotten Kansas question. He expects to carry this county for the republicans—or at least he says so, and we presume would not if he did think it true. We predict he will find himself minus at least 1000 votes in the accomplishment of his task. Place these two opinions on record, and see which proves nearest the truth.

☞ There is a report that the Cholera has broken out in Toledo. The papers of that place make no mention of any such calamity, and as we do not see any account of the Cholera in any part of the United States, we are inclined to hope and believe that the report is utterly without foundation.

Seventh Congressional District.—Hon. Henry Secrest, of Putnam Co. has been nominated for Congress by the democratic convention for the seventh district, now represented by Hon. John G. Davis. On the 1st ballot Mr Secrest received the vote of every delegate, except those of Vigo Co. Mr Secrest is one of the ablest and best informed statesmen in the country, and will be elected by a large majority. He was opposed to the Lecompton bill, but his opposition was of an honorable, manly character, avoiding the violence and ultraism which marked the course of some weaker-minded men on the first agitation of that question. He cordially accepts the English compromise as a fair and final settlement of the matter.

The Indiana Senators.—Senate on Saturday, by a decided vote adopted the report of the committee declaring that Messrs Bright and Fitch are entitled to their seats as Senators from Indiana; the former until the 3d of March, 1863, and the latter until the 3d of March 1861.

These two cases presented the peculiar feature that there was in neither of them any other party claiming the seats, but the investigation took place in consequence of a protest from a portion of the members of the Legislature, alleging an informality in holding the convention of the two Houses at the time of the election, and against the certificate of the Governor, under the broad seal of the State, declaring that they were both duly elected.

Mr Bright has been so long and so favorably known as an experienced and efficient member of the Senate for some time, indeed, the President pro tem. of the body and one so justly possessing the respect and confidence of his colleagues, that his loss could not but have been most sensibly felt in the National Councils; and though his colleague, Mr Fitch, being a new member, (having taken his seat for the first time during the present session,) has not had either the same opportunities or the legislative experience of Mr. Bright, yet he gives the promise that he will prove a valuable accession to that important conservative branch of the National Legislature. We have no doubt therefore, that the present decision will give satisfaction even to those members of the Senate who, from convictions of duty, opposed the report of the Judiciary Committee.

☞ We copy the above from the National Intelligencer, and when we consider that it has been a life long opponent of the Democratic party, and is still opposed to it, the above indeed is a high compliment, but not higher than deserved. We commend it to the special consideration of our friend Bailey of the Republican. Great men, we are aware, will sometimes differ in opinion, and Mr. Bailey may perhaps think he is better qualified to judge in this matter than even the veteran editors of the Intelligencer, although the latter have been for almost a generation the acknowledged leaders of the opposition party, under all its various phrases and names. Self confidence is a very commendable virtue—but it may be carried to an excess; and if the newly-fledged editor of the Republican would pay a little deference to the opinion of his seniors who may have had better opportunities for arriving at a correct conclusion than even he has; and above all, if he would endeavor to stick a little closer to the truth in his assertions, he would probably be able to accomplish more for his party than he will if he pursues his present course.

The Weather is extremely warm, having ranged from 90° to 93° for the past four or five days. Although rather uncomfortable for us unfortunate inhabitants of a dusty city, it is just the weather for the growing crops. The wheat is rapidly maturing, and looks promising; we hear of some few instances where it has suffered from the fly or weevil, and an occasional case of damage by standing water, but on the whole, if we have fine weather for the next three or four weeks, we may reasonably look for a good crop. The corn that was planted before the rain, and escaped drowning out, looks well, and the fine weather encourages the farmers to proceed with the planting, and hope for a favorable season. Agricultural matters look decidedly more cheerful than they did two weeks ago.

This extremely warm weather following so closely after the excessive rains and floods we have experienced, may reasonably be expected to cause much sickness, unless proper precautions are taken. Our city is in a filthy condition and needs a thorough cleansing; the authorities ought to have all the streets and alleys (the latter especially, many of which are perfect nuisances) immediately put in order, all stagnant water drained off, and all lots which require it filled up or properly drained; and our citizens ought to lose no time in thoroughly cleansing up their premises and removing everything offensive or detrimental to health; and above all, should have their cellars, many of which are full of stinking water, immediately pumped out and cleansed. There is perhaps nothing more likely to create sickness than this last mentioned cause, and we therefore call attention more particularly to it. Lose no time in having the cellars pumped out. Neglect may lead to fatal results.

The report of the Board of Health will be found on our first page, and we direct the attention of all our citizens to its suggestions.

The Foundation Stone of the St. Mary's German Catholic Church, Lafayette Street, will be laid to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, with the usual appropriate ceremonies, by Bishop Luer, the bishop of this diocese.

This is intended to be a magnificent structure, and will, when completed, be an ornament to our city. It will be 115 by 65 feet, 45 feet high, with a steeple 175 feet, and is calculated to accommodate 2050 persons. It will be built of brick and stone, and is estimated to cost from $45,000 to $50,000. It is designed to have the building up and roofed this season; the carpenter work, finishing of the interior, &c., will probably occupy another year, and the church is expected to be ready for service by the fall or winter of 1859. The Church is large, but not more so than the wants of the congregation will require, while the durability and beauty of the structure will be a lasting monument of the zeal and liberality of those who expect to worship within its walls.

Macfarland's Theatre.—This excellent dramatic troupe is now giving a series of entertainments at Colerick's Hall, and are eminently deserving public patronage. Much as we had been led to expect from the favorable notices we have seen of them in other places, it is but justice to say, that they exceed our expectations. Last night the comedy of The Serious Family, and the farce of Perfection, or the Maid of Munster, were presented in excellent style. The audience we regret to say, owing probably to the extreme hot weather, was not so large as it ought to have been. The entire company appear to be perfectly genteel and respectable, and worthy the countenance of our community, and present an array of talent, especially in the female department, not often witnessed in travelling companies. Miss Jenny Parker is a most accomplished actress and vocalist, and her younger sister, Miss J. Parker, is also a graceful and clever actress; Jessie Macfarland is by far the best danseuse that ever showed her graceful proportions and astonishing agility on our boards. An excellent bill is presented for this evening, and we advise all who have any taste for theatricals to be present. The excellence of the performance will amply compensate for the inconvenience of the heat of the weather.

Pic Nic of the Harmonic Society.—The Pic Nic to come off next Saturday promises to be a most agreeable affair. Two boats have been engaged for the occasion, which will be suitably fitted up and decorated, and will start, one from near the Rockhill House, and the other from Comparet & Hubbell's dock at half-past seven in the morning, and proceed to a beautiful grove known as the Elysian Fields, on the canal, four miles east of the city. The String Band of the Society and Orff's Brass Band will accompany the party, and an abundance of Ice Cream, Stawberries, Lemonade, and more substantial viands will be provided.

On reaching the grove, the performances of the day will be opened by a prayer from Rev. E. Curtis; the Declaration of Independence will be read by E. L. Chittenden; an Address delivered by R. W. Oakley, and an Oration by I. Jenkinson, together with music, singing, &c. After Dinner, the usual toasts will be given, and then various amusements will be presented. At an early hour in the evening the company will return to city.

Messrs. S S Morss, W Haskell, G F Stinchcomb, and A Gibford will officiate as Marshals. The Committee of Arrangements consists of G Nelson, B Morss, M H Tayler, W Latham, E L Chittenden, W L Hulse, G F Stinchcomb, and D N Bash.

Tickets to admit a gentleman with one or more ladies, $2 00. To be obtained of any member of the committee.

As there will be no regular celebration of the Fourth in this city, we presume a large company will avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by this arrangement, and that they will have a pleasant time we cannot admit of a doubt.

Newspaper Depot.—John Kitch has established a newspaper depot in the corner store of the Ewing building, on the canal, north of Reed's Drug Store, and receives by express, in advance of the mail, the Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Chicago and other daily papers, and delivers them to subscribers at publisher's rates. Such an undertaking deserves support.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.

Pursuant to notice the Democrats of Allen County assembled in Mass Meeting, at the Court House of said County, on the 19th day of June, 1858, to appoint Delegates to the Congressional Convention, for the Tenth Congressional District.

On motion of Peter Nodestine, David B. Litchfield was called to the chair; and on motion of Wm. S Smith, Wm. D. Henderson was chosen Secretary.

On motion of Peter Nodestine, a committee of seven was appointed to select delegates for said Convention.

The committee retired, and on returning reported the following list of delegates, which was unanimously concurred in:

From Scipio Township—John Berrier.
Springfield.—A. Metzger, and J. Shutt
Cedar Creek—J. Champer.
Perry.—W. T. Hunter, T. M. Andrews.
Eel River.—John Dolin.
Lake—D. B. Litchfield.
Washington.—C. Shu lts
St. Joseph.—U. Nodestine.
Milan.—W. H. Eckles.
Maumee.—U. Saylor.
Jackson.—Wm Smith.
Jefferson.—Henry Dickerson.
Adams.—W. H. McDonald.
Aboite.—Charles McCormick.
Lafayette.—Jacob Hill.
Pleasant.—John A. Robison.
Marion.—Nelson McLain, and S. Biggs.
Madison.—John Shaffer.
Monroe.—John Burger.
Wayne.—F. P. Randall, W. S. Smith, C. Pepenbrink, L. Wolke, M. Cody, A. Tolerton, D. H. Colerick, B. Trentman, E. Vordermark, P. J. Wise.

On motion of S. Edsall,

Resolved, that each Township fill its own delegation.

On motion of Wm. S. Smith, the Convention adjourned.

Another Steamboat Explosion.—One Hundred Lives Lost.—The boilers of the steamer Pennsylvania exploded Sunday morning, at six o'clock, at Ship Island, seventy miles below Memphis. The boat burnt to the water's edge. About three hundred and fifty passengers were on board. It is believed that one hundred were killed or missing. The Diana, Imperial and Frisbie took all they could find in the water on shore.

The Imperial first arrived at the wreck of the Pennsylvania, and took a large number of her passengers to New Orleans. The Diana arrived here at eleven o'clock on Sunday night, with a large number for Louisville. At a meeting of citizens $1,000 was raised for the sufferers. Committees were appointed to collect further for their aid. Rauch, of the opera troupe, died to-day. Others were not expected to live.

Appointments Confirmed.—The following appointments have been confirmed by the Senate: George H Brown, District Attorney for Rhode Island; C B McFadden, Chief Justice for Washington Territory; Wm Strong and Ed C Fitzhugh, Associate Justices for Washington Territory; John Cradlebaugh, Associate Justice for Utah; Stanley Matthews, Attorney for Southern District of Ohio; Benjamin McCulloch, Marshal for Eastern District of Texas; George S Walden, Attorney for Northern District of Alabama; George H Williams, Chief Justice, and Reuben P Boise, Associate Justice for Oregon Territory; Joseph Miller, jr., Attorney for Michigan, and Mayor [illegible] Thomas, Marshal for Wisconsin.

St Johns, N. F. June 21.

The Atlantic Cable.—The government will despatch a steamer to Trinity to pilot in the Niagara as near as practicable to the point where it is decided to land the Cable. The Niagara will be expected momentarily on and after next week; but from the fact that the fleet would use no steam in reaching the middle of the Atlantic, it is quite possible that the Niagara will not reach this coast before the first of July. This office has been placed in communication with the offices at Trinity Bay, and it is understood that the Telegraph Company will place their wires hence to New York at the service of the Press and the public for the transmission of such communication connected with the great event as may be handed in for a few days subsequent to the arrival of the Niagara.

St. Louis, June 20.

From the Army.—A despatch from Leavenworth (18th June) per United States Express to Booneville, says:

Private advices from the army to May 25th mention the arrival of Lieu. Armstrong at Camp Scott with 75 head of cattle. Captain Hanna, with two hundred head of cattle, was three day's march from Camp Scott. A letter from an officer high in command, expressed the opinion that the troops would not be employed against the Mormons.

The Leavenworth Times contains a letter from Ft Bridger, May 21, which says that Brigham Young's principal Mormon Elders had consented to deliver themselves into the custody of the U. S. Marshal and await a trial, provided they were tried by a jury in no way connected with the army.

A party of Mormons had arrived at Camp Scott in a half starved condition. They belonged to a portion who were opposed to Young.—They represent the church as torn with dissensions. They wish to return to the States.

The reception of Col Johnston's commission as Brigadier General caused much satisfaction in the army.

Capt Newton's Engineers had reached Camp Scott, and reported that a permanent post would be established at Fort Bridger, at which Col. Hoffman will command.

Arrival of the Steamship Vanderbilt in New York

New York, June 19.

The steamship Vanderbilt has arrived below. A portion of her advices have already been received via Cape Race. She made the voyage from Cowes to New York in nine days and sixteen hours. She reports favorable weather. She brings the following news in addition to that received via Cape Race: In the House of Lords, June 8, the Earl of Clarendon asked if the Government could lay before the House any information concerning the proceedings of the British cruisers in the Gulf of Mexico. Lord Malmesbury said he had nothing but ex parte statements, but, from a conversation with the American Minister, he believed there was no great difference in the views of both countries on the question, and, from the orders sent to the officers of the West India squadron, no repetition of such proceedings was likely to occur. The London Times' city article of Tuesday, says: "The steamer Persia's advices of the feeling of America on the Gulf outrages had but a slight effect upon the funds, the decline being only ⅛, and the market soon rallied again. The leader of the Times, speaking of these outrages says the treaties with France and America having expired, it is madness for England to assert pretensions to which no strong and independent power is likely to submit. The good done by searching foreign vessels is nothing compared with the bad blood engendered, and though many of the so called outrages are undoubtedly exaggerations, enough is known to prove that the practice of searching vessels under the American flag ought to be ended at once. The eruption of Mt. Vesuvius still continued. On the 28th ult., with a more threatening aspect, liquid fire was pouring from several craters, and the entire valley of Atrio was a mass of flames. Villagers were fleeing in all directions, and the destruction of the town of Portici was feared. The Times' Paris correspondent says there is more commercial distress in France than at any time since the Revolution of 1848. General Almonte, the newly-appointed Mexican Minister to Spain, was expected at Paris every day. He is charged with the settlement of the difficulty between the two countries, having ample powers for that object.

Arrival of the Persia

St Johns, June 21

The R. M. steamship Persia, Capt Judkins, from Liverpool on Saturday, June 12th, was boarded off the Cape at 8 o'clock on Sunday evening by the Steamer Victoria, the newly employed news yacht of the associated press. The Persia has 128 passengers for New York. The news is quite interesting, as will be seen from the subjoined summary of its points.

The Atlantic fleet sailed on the 10th.

Liverpool Breadstuffs.—The market for breadstuffs was dull, but generally steady.

Richardson S & Co. reports the weather favorable for the growing crops. Flour was quiet Western canal 20s21s. Philadelphia & Baltimore 21s21s 6d. Ohio 21s 6da23s. Wheat dull at the decline of Tuesday reported per the Vanderbilt. Red western 5s 6da5s 7d. Southern white 7sa7s 3d. Corn quiet 34s 4da34s 6d for Yellow 32sa32s 6d for white.

Provision Market.—The Liverpool provision market was generally steady. Beef quiet, but steady, holders offered freely but showed no disposition to press sales. Pork firm at last quotations. Bacon was also firm. Lard dull at 56s, an extreme price in retail. Tallow was nominal.

A new weekly line of steamships, of which the Indian Empire, formerly the United States, is the pioneer, was ready for operation. The Indian Empire with the colonial and U. S. mails would leave Galway for Halifax and New York on Friday last. She was expected to run from Galway to Halifax in 8 days.

The terms upon which the Cagliari affairs has been settled, are as follows: Naples agrees to compensate the English engineers with £3,000 to place the Cagliari at the disposal of Queen Victoria, and to liberate the Sardinian prisoners forthwith.

The warlike preparations going on in France attract the attention of the English Press and Parliament.

In the House of Commons, Mr D'Israeli repudiated all idea of danger of a war with France, and said, the relations of the two powers were of the most amicable nature.

Mr Fitzgerald had stated in the House of Commons, that Mr Mason the American Minister at Paris favored under grave misapprehensions in representing England as acquiescing in the free labor movement.

On the 10th, in the House of Lords, on motion of Lord Brougham, a bill was read the first time, the object of which was to render the fraudulent negotiation of bills of exchange penal. The bill abolishing property qualifications for members of Parliament, was debated and read the second time. The bill extending the franchise in counties to holders of £10 tenements, the same as in boroughs, was brought up a second time for reading. The government opposed any action upon the measure at present, but, upon a test vote, there was a majority of 58 against the government, and the bill was read the 2d time.

On the 11th, in the House of Commons, in reply to an enquiry, Lord Stanley said: The Government had sent a dispatch to India disapproving of the policy of annexation, and disavowing the annexation of Dabr.

The India reports were taken up, and after the rejection of the proposition by Lord John Russell, to limit the council to 12 members, it was resolved that it should consist of not more than 15 or less than 12.

India.—Sir Hugh Rose had completely defeated the enemy, at Gowey, killing 500 men and capturing 7 guns. He was within 14 miles of Culpee on the fourteenth of May, and it was expected the attack would be made on the 16th. The garrison of Shah Johdnpore 600 strong, was surrounded by 8,000 rebels, with 15 guns, but no fears were entertained for their safety, relief being near. A village in central India had been stormed, after an obstinate resistance, and all the male inhabitants put to the sword.

The dates from Bombay received by telegraph from Malta are to the 21st of May. The British had taken possession of Rhidicand. The enemy deserted Bajelly as the British approached. An attack on Calpee was expected in a few days. Oude was quieting down.

The Bank of France has increased its specie nearly seventy million francs in a month.

The Atlantic telegraphic fleet expected to reach mid ocean and commence the operation of laying the cable about the 20th of June they would proceed the under sail. The Agamemnon was towed out of Plymouth Sound at 9 o'clock A. M. On the 10th the Niagara left under steam at 11 o'clock. The Squadron subsequently started under canvass with a northerly breeze.

The Spanish journals say that Concha remains Governor General of Cuba.

A misunderstanding between Austria and France was considered imminent.

Washington, June 21.

Colonel Kane arrived here last night, bringing despatches from Gov. Cumming, whom he left at Camp Scott on the 10th of May. They were delivered to the President of the United States.

Contrary to reports widely circulated, Kane does not admit there has been any such want of harmony between Gov Cumming and Gen Johnston, as would jeopardize the public interest. He speaks in eulogistic terms of the high state of discipline in which the latter maintained his force, and of the praiseworthy spirit manifested by the army during the winter. The friends of the administration are much pleased with the manner in which he is understood to allude to the conduct of Mr. Cumming, saying he is deserving the gratitude of the country. There was great hope in Utah, as elsewhere, that the war was at an end. A peace party had been formed and was sufficiently strong, in time to arrest the Mormon forces against our own, last spring. It was the impression in Utah that Brigham Young, (who openly espoused the cause of the United States) would in this respect be able to maintain his position. There was at one time strong opposition to him, before emigration was resolved upon, but ever since this feeling of hostility has been subsiding.

Washington, June 22.

Sufficient intelligence has been received to leave no doubt that Capt Marcy's command has reached Camp Scott in Safety. It was the intention of Gov Cumming when last heard from to proceed at once to open a trade with the valley; many of the mormons were understood to own more cattle than they were desirous of carrying away and of which they were anxious to dispose. The safety and general welfare of the troops at Camp Scott and elsewhere, between that post and the U. S. may be reckoned on with confidence. The Mormon troops had been entirely withdrawn from the approaches to Salt Lake though the people threatened to return, if the army advanced before they secured the wheat harvest. Gov Cumming says that it may be regarded as safe for emigrants from the U S., to proceed to California via Salt Lake, the road being entirely open.

Washington, June 22.

The official advices received from England are of a more favorable character towards this country, and disavow intentional offences against our flag, and mention the fact that prompt orders have been issued to discontinue the visits which have given rise to the present difficulties. Her Majesty's Government does not insist on visitation or search as a right, but as both nations are trying to put a stop to the Slave Trade, there is desired a mutual understanding or arrangements as to the proper and most acceptable manner of ascertaining the character of suspected slavers. This is the mooted point. The tenor of the despatches was far from being unsatisfactory—in fact, the doctrine so maintained by our government is considered as practically acknowledged by Great Britain. The differences between the two countries are not such as cannot be amicably accommodated.

It is understood that the Cabinet to day had under consideration the affairs of Utah, which are so complicated as to require great caution in their management. From the present indications all the troops now on the way will continue the march to Utah. What additional measures will be pursued will depend on the character of the next official despatches from that quarter.

New York, June 21.

The Tribune correspondence says: Much doubt is still entertained here as to the final purposes of the Mormons and the unpublished despatches of Governor Cumming convey some apprehension, which Colonel Kane's repeated conferences have not removed. At last official accounts, they had possession of the mountain passes, and the ultimate design of the exodus a matter wholly of speculation. For this reason, among others, that may not be disclosed, it is deemed most prudent, if not absolutely necessary, to maintain a show of effectual force to second the civil officers in asserting the Federal authority.

The Courier correspondence says: Earl Malmesbury's despatches to Lord Napier express the hope that the President will reconsider the despatches of Secretary Cass to Lord Napier of the 10th of April, declining further stipulation for the prevention of the Slave Trade; and that he will agree to a convention for the correction of the abuses of the American. Full reparation is promised for recent occurrences.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: Col Kane was in conference this morning with the President and Secretary of War. He expressed the opinion that there is still cause for apprehending danger from the Mormons. His statements are not entirely satisfactory. He has certain inexplicable reservations difficult to understand. When it was suggested that the mission of the Peace Commissioners was too late, he said, that they had still abundant opportunity for useful exercise. They meet again to morrow, after which, the disposition of General Johnston's command and the advancing reinforcements will be determined.

St. Louis, June 21.

The Kansas City Journal of Commerce—Extra of the 19th—says that a mass meeting was held at Fort Scott, Kansas, on the 15th, to take into consideration the difficulties in that region. Resolutions were unanimously adopted to the following effect: We will proceed through the civil organization of the county of Bourbon, and the township therein, in accordance with the law approved in February, 1858, and agree to refer all past offences against the Laws of the Grand Jury; we agree to refrain from prosecutions and vexatious arrests for imaginary or petty offences and discountenance such proceedings from whatever source they may come we agree to exert ourselves to preserve the peace and assist in enforcing the laws; we agree to take no part in preemption claim quarrels, but to leave the contestants to settle their claims according to law; we agree to hold every citizen of Fort Scott to a strict accountability for an assault or other unlawful act against any person whatever, we agree to afford whatever protection circumstances require to the citizens of Fort Scott, travelling in Bourbon County.

Gov. Denver agrees to withdraw the troops as soon as the town and county organization is completed, and he is satisfied that peace is fully restored.

Gov. Denver addressed the meeting and approved the resolutions.

[From the Lafayette Courier]

The Wabash and Erie Canal.

Editor Courier:—To meet the general inquiry as to the extent of injury to this work, by the great flood of the 12th of June, I request the publication of this brief statement.

East of Logan the canal is unharmed. Thence to Peru the damage is but little, and will be repaired by to-morrow night. Between Peru and the lower end of slack water, there are several breaks, and much sand washed into the canal. Boats may reach Delphi and Pittsburgh in about two weeks from this time, and Wildcat by the 10th or 12th of July. Between Delphi and Montezuma the damage is very heavy—much greater than ever before caused by a single flood since the canal was constructed, twenty years ago.

The largest injury is at Wildcat. Besides several breaks in the guard-bank and tow path, and the loss of the fine bridge over the creek, a new channel for the stream was formed around the north of the dam, taking out the abutment. The dam itself remains secure. In the repair eighty to one hundred feet will be added to its length, making the whole work, in that vicinity safer than heretofore.

The aqueduct over Wea Creek, one hundred and twenty feet in length, was wholly swept out. Its destruction was hastened by the timber of the railroad bridges, with other driftwood brought down by the current. This structure is of wood, and can be rebuilt in a short time.

The superstructure of Shawnee aqueduct 80 feet long, is also gone, though the stone abutments are believed to be little injured.

A new channel is formed around the south end of the Shawnee Dam and one abutment taken out, as at Wildcat. The dam is safe. This is a small structure, and, this year, will not be essential to the opening of navigation.

At Coal Creek a breach was made through the guard bank, and the stream passes around it, causing heavy damage to the earthwork, though the dam and its abutments, with the two guardlocks and bridge, are uninjured.

In addition to the damage to the structures named, there are numerous breaks in the banks of the canal. The repairs have already been commenced, and will be prosecuted with assiduity, and the utmost dispatch, so as to resume navigation throughout, in time for the earliest shipments of the growing wheat crop.

J. L. WILLIAMS.

Lafayette, June 18 1858.

Cairo.—It is impossible to ascertain the damage with any accuracy, but it is not near as bad been generally supposed, and in most instances can be easily repaired.

Only light-built and unsubstantial houses and shanties have floated off; of these there may be about forty, but of no great value. Perhaps twelve or fifteen buildings of better classes have been moved from their foundations more or less. There is no danger apprehended to any properly-built houses, even those which are set upon piles.

From a few buildings the property was removed by cutting through the roofs.

The jail, a heavy wooden structure, was floated off, and moved some two hundred yards toward the north.

At Mr. Jorgensen's, the highest location in town, the depth of water is seven feet.

It is believed, by persons competent to judge, that the subsidence of the waters will leave a deposit of eighteen inches in the town, which will do much toward compensating for the damages. The Cairo Company's Agent talks very cheerfully of the prospects of the town, and says that all damage will be repaired as soon as the water falls, and the levees are to be raised and made eighty feet in width all round. It was a sixteen foot levee in which the break occurred. The crevasse is only about one hundred and fifty feet in length, and about ten feet deep. It is situated three hundred feet from the Mississippi River, and a quarter of a mile from the junction of the Ohio and Mississippi Levees.

The fall of the portion of the new hotel building, to which reference is made in our report, was not attributable in any degree to the pressure of the water, as the walls have been out of line for some months, and its fall before this was confidently expected. Other large buildings upon which there is the same pressure of water, will stand without any indication of weakness, and it is not expected that they will be at all affected by the pressure of any water upon them, however high.

The President.—Forney's Press says:

Mr Buchanan is not well, but the fatigue will soon pass off. He has labored with immense assiduity and care. The truth is, the President is the working-man of his Administration. He oversees everything. He intends to do his duty, and he does it. There is not a member of his Cabinet who does half his daily labor. He rises early and works late.

DIED,—On Saturday, June 19th, at the residence of Dr. Huxford, Mrs. Z. A. wife of A. R. Henderson, in the 32d year of her age.

The deceased though comparatively a stranger in our midst, leaves many friends to mourn her early death

——In Lake Township, on Monday last, aged 60 years, Mr. John Devenbert, one of the first settlers in that township.

——On Saturday last, of hemorrhage of the lungs, Charles W. Lewis, aged 26 years, son of the late Major Samuel Lewis of this place. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his early death. His remains were interred on Monday last, attended to the funeral procession, by the Masonic and Odd Fellow Societies, and Fire Company, besides many citizens.

Hall of Ft. Wayne Lodge No 14, I.O.O.F.
Monday Evening, June 21st, 1858.

Among the regular proceedings of the meeting of said Lodge, were the following:

The special committee appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of this Lodge, upon the death of our late brother Charles W. Lewis, made the following

REPORT.

Whereas, The late dispensation of Almighty Providence in removing from among us, by the hand of death, our much esteemed brother C. W. Lewis, having fallen with sad and solemn weight upon our hearts, we would, while bowing in Divine submission to the Divine will, humbly express our appreciation of the great worth and exalted virtue of our deceased Brother. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Lewis our Lodge has lost one of its brightest ornaments, and most valued members; our country a good and worthy citizen; but by his family, upon whom his loss falls heaviest, he will ever be remembered as a worthy son, loving husband and kind brother.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathise with the bereaved family in their great affliction, and tender them the assurance that we share with them in the sorrow that is upon us all.

Resolved, That a copy of the above, signed by our officers and under the seal of our Lodge, be forwarded to the widow of our late Brother.

I. JENKINSON,
MOSES DRAKE, Jr.,
Wm. H. BROOKS.

Which was unanimously adopted, and ordered to be published in the city papers.

A Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of Summit City Lodge 170, F. & A. M. of Fort Wayne, held on the occasion of the death of Brother Charles W. Lewis, the committee before appointed for that purpose made the following

REPORT.

Whereas, It has pleased an All-wise Providence again to visit our Brotherhood, and take from among us our well beloved brother Charles W. Lewis, thereby renewing unto us the solemn lesson that "in the midst of life we are in death;" and, while we bow in acquiescence to the dispensation which has filled our hearts with sadness, we may still rejoice in the full assurance that our brother has been raised to better and worthier associations. Be it therefore

Resolved, That in the death of our brother Charles W. Lewis, this Lodge has lost one of its worthiest and best members, community a good citizen and his family one whose place can never be supplied.

Resolved, That in their deep affliction, we tender to the widow and family of our deceased Brother our heartfelt sympathy, and the assurance that we share with them in their sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing, properly certified by the officers of this Lodge be presented to the widow of our deceased Brother.

I. JENKINSON.
EDWARD L. FORCE,
Wm. H. NEWMAN.

Which preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted as the sentiment of this Lodge, and the papers of this city respectfully requested to give them publication.

Alert Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, Fireman's Hall, June 21st, 1858.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

Whereas, It hath pleased Almighty God to take from our midst our beloved Friend and associate Charles W. Lewis:

Resolved, That by the death of our worthy brother Charles W. Lewis, who was ever on the "Alert," and one of the first to "Haste to the Rescue," we lose a true hearted Fireman, and a social companion at our meetings, and in the ranks, whether on parade or on duty.

Resolved, That while we deplore the loss of a worthy member, we also deeply sympathise with his widow and orphan child, who mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and loving father; and

Resolved, That we implore the blessing of God to rest upon the afflicted family always

Resolved, That in token of our sincerity we drape our Hall and Truck in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days; also

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have the foregoing resolutions published in our city papers and a copy of the same be sent to the deceased brother's family

Dr. Roback's Theory and Practice.

It would seem that Dr. Roback's "Scandinavian Remedies" have taken the highest rank among the standard medicines of the day. His theory is, that in whatever organ disease may show itself, its roots are in the blood. Hence his famous Swedish curatives, the Blood Purifier and the Blood Pills, are designed to act specifically upon the sanguineous fluid. One thing cannot be disputed, they produce most salutary effects even in apparently hopeless [illegible]. Individuals who have suffered for years from dyspepsia, scrofula, eruptions of the skin, bronchitis, asthma, general prostration liver complaint, rheumatism, neuralgia, and many other distressing maladies, report themselves, over their own signatures, as radically cured by a course of these Remedies.—The claims of Dr. Roback's advertisements are therefore supported by proof. See Advertisement.

FOURTH OF JULY ODE.

Dr. Roback's Greeting

TO THE UNIVERSAL NATION:

Hail, glorious day, beneath whose azure sky,
A giant nation from the womb of Time
First sprung to life, and Liberty on high,
To an admiring world by right divine
Claimed the new-born as hers, while tyranny
Cowered beneath that sun's resplendent rays,
Which heard proclaimed o'er a land so free
As men and angels mingled hymns of praise.

All hail, Columbia; o'er the rolling wave
Thy stars and stripes, in many a fearful fight
Have [illegible] proudly, while thy sons so brave,
With dauntless hearts, and stern resistless might,
Nobly [illegible] for thy rights and fame,
Winning from despots of the olden world
Fear and respect; long may the same
Beam with bright hope, thy flag be aye unfurled.

[illegible] sanguinary war's red path,
[illegible] gather in the cause of peace and joy—
[illegible] groans of anguish, but the merry laugh
[illegible] the blue-eyed boy,
[illegible]
Re-echoed on the hills and vales so free,
[illegible] thy children greet the natal morn,
[illegible] of Liberty.

Ruddy cheeked health, with [illegible] train
[illegible] shall bless the land;
From Roback's [illegible] flies direful pain—
[illegible] and the trembling hand
[illegible] no longer shakes;
From [illegible] Scandinavian remedies
Fever and ague [illegible] while health awakes,
And [illegible] with all its horrors, flies.

[illegible] pure as the limpid stream,
[illegible] courses free;
[illegible] with health of gleam
[illegible] laugh of jollity.
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] as surely flee
[illegible] before his remedy.

[illegible] in the glorious strife
[illegible] his will—
[illegible]
[illegible] the Blood Purifier and Pill
[illegible] tainted taint,
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] whole and free.

[illegible] now proclaimed
[illegible] virtues which possess
[illegible] throughout the land, so famed [illegible] thousands blessed,
[illegible] this day
[illegible] the free and brave,
And [illegible] with bright and genial ray,
[illegible] the stars which o'er us proudly wave.

DR. KNAPP has facilities for promptly inserting Teeth in full or partial sets. His new style of raised and double backings are universally admitted to be unrivalled in strength and beauty of finish.

TeethFilled with care and fidelity.

All Work Warranted.

Acknowledgements are due to friends in the Medical Profession for favorable notices, to which the reader is referred below:

I have lately examined Teeth (or rather mere shells of teeth) successfully filled by Dr. Knapp, which had been condemned by dentists of large experience more than three years previous.

CHAS. E. STURGIS M. D.

We have had opportunities of examining a large number of full and partial sets of teeth made by Dr. Knapp, and we, unhesitatingly pronounce them in adaptation to the mouth, beauty (or naturalness) of expression, strength and purity of material, to be equalled only by the best work made in eastern cities.

B. RANDALL,

PROPRIETOR OF

I. M. SINGER'S

of the State of Pennsylvania (except the counties of Erie, Allegheny and Philadelphia) State of Wisconsin, and the southern part of Indiana.

THE world wide reputation of these machines renders puffing unnecessary. All who have used Singer's Machines testify to their superior merits over all others. Over 12 000 have been sold and are now in active operation, and not one has proved a failure! By simply changing the needle and thread the same machine will execute perfectly every variety of work, coarse or fine, on cloth or leather. From $500 to $600 a year can be cleared by an individual using this machine more than can be earned by hand.

Singer has also brought out a new

FAMILY MACHINE,

highly ornamented, which for beauty and expedition far surpasses all other Family Machines. These machines use two threads, forming a lock stitch in the centre of the goods sewed, and making a perfect back stitch on both sides of the cloth, which makes a seam much stronger and harder to rip than hand sewing, and does not use more than two thirds as much thread as the chain stitch machine.

These machines are for sale by the undersigned, at his office on North Fifth Street, opposite Good's Hotel, Reading, Pennsylvania.

Also by T. E. EVANSON, Traveling Agent in Indiana. Silk, Needles, Oil, and Thread for sale by T. E. EVANSON,

DR. ROBACK'S

BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD PILLS.

DISEASE VANQUISHED
BY
Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Remedies.

AFTER YEARS OF STUDY AND EXPERIMENT, Dr. Roback, the eminent Swedish Physician, succeeded in producing a medicine from twenty-three different species of mountain herbs of his native land, which acts directly upon the cause of disease in the blood, and by restoring the corrupted fountain of life, to a condition of health and purity, expels disease from the system, wherever it may be located, or whatever may be its character. In indigestion, nervous complaints, epileptic fits, rheumatism, coughs, consumption in its early stages, sore throat, bronchitis, fever and ague, asthma, low spirits, sexual incapacity, feminine weakness, pricking of the skin, symptoms of paralysis, rheumatism, neuralgia, tumor, cancer, diabetes, lassitude and debility, diarrhea, and all other disorders of the organs of respiration, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach, the nerves of the muscular fiber, are unerringly cured by this preparation. It is to the materies morbi or seeds of disease what an alkali is to an acid; it neutralizes them with absolute certainty, while at the same time it regulates the secretions, removes obstructions from the bowels, creates appetite, renews bodily vigor, and regenerates every animal function. Such is the nature, such are the effects of Dr. Roback's famous Scandinavian Blood Purifier, which, if taken in conjunction with the Scandinavian Blood Pills, will not only obliterate the most painful disease, but prevent their recurrence, and fortify the body against the ordinary ....

In the SCANDINAVIAN VEGETABLE BLOOD PILLS, Dr Roback presents the result of twenty years of experience, hard study and experiments as to what a perfect pill should be. No one can doubt their superiority after one single trial. Price of the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, $1 per bottle, or $5 per half dozen. Scandinavian Blood Pills, 25 cents per box, or five for $1.

Peru, Miami County, Ind., Aug. 4, 1854.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK: I have received so much benefit from your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, that I have thought it my duty, and it is no less my inclination to give you a plain statement of my case. I was for years afflicted with that bane of all comfort and efficiency in business, dyspepsia. To recapitulate all the so-called remedies which I have used to rid myself of this disease, would indeed make a voluminous catalogue. I also consulted with the best physicians I could hear of. I was induced to try your remedies through the persuasions of a friend, and after using them a few days was greatly benefitted, and in a short time, less than a month, I was entirely and permanently cured. I was also afflicted with the most violent nervous headache, which I suppose was produced by the disordered stomach, for when my dyspepsia left me, my headache left with it. I am feeling better in every respect than I have for ten years.

Very truly yours, JOHN S. DEMERTH.

From the Rev. Mr. McMullen, Pastor of the Wesleyan Chapel:

Indianapolis, Oct. 5, 1857.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir: I have used your Blood Purifier for a nervous affection, from which I have suffered much at times. While it is pleasant to the taste, it certainly has a happy effect upon the nerves. Please accept my thanks for your kind regards and acts, and believe me,

Yours, J. W. T. McMULLEN.

Cincinnati, Friday, Sept. 15 ly.

Dr. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—Having been afflicted with neuralgia or rheumatism for the past year and a half, and having seen your medicine, called the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, highly recommended by a gentleman with whom I am acquainted, I was induced to try it, but not before I had used various other remedies. After using two bottles, I felt its effect very sensibly, and using two more, I found myself perfectly cured. You will allow me, therefore, to congratulate you upon making a discovery in medicine which is proving itself to be a worker of such wonders in the diseases of the human family. GEORGE S. BENNET,

Local Editor Cincinnati Daily Enquirer

Indianapolis, Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1857.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir:—Having been troubled for several years with extreme debility and weakness, so much so that I was unable to attend to my ordinary business at times, and having heard of the wonderful cures that your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Pills were effecting I was induced by a friend to try them.

I have been using the Purifier for the last twelve months, and find the medicine fully equal to its recommendation. Favorable as it is to one at my age, I cannot now dispense with the use of it at my advanced age of life—seventy-seven years.

I cheerfully give this information for the benefit of those similarly afflicted. MORRIS MORRIS.

CIRCULAR.

On the first day of July, 1857, B. A. Fahnestock, and George W. Fahnestock, of Philadelphia, Pa., A. B. Hull, of New-York, and J. L. Schwartz, of Pittsburgh, re-associated themselves for a further term of business, under the style and firm, as heretofore, of

B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.,
B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.,
B. A. FAHNESTOCK, HULL & Co., New-York City.

In each of which three cities we continue our Wholesale Drug Business in all its branches.

Particular attention will be given to the importation of proprietary articles from abroad; and a full stock of well-established popular remedies will be kept constantly for sale. Orders for our B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S well-known Vermifuge (of which we are the SOLE PROPRIETORS and EXCLUSIVE MANUFACTURERS) should be addressed to either of the above-named establishments.

We continue the manufacture of White Lead, Red Lead, and Litharge, at Pittsburgh.

OF

RICH GLOSSY HAIR,

Completely Preserved

TO THE GREATEST AGE.

AND who that is gray would not have it restored to former color, or bald but would have the growth restored, or troubled with dandruff and itching but would have it removed, or troubled with scrofula, scald head, or other eruptions, but would be cured, or with sick head ache (neuralgia), but would be cured. It will also remove all pimples from the face and skin. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will do all this; see circular and the following.

ANN ARBOR, November 5, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: I have heard much said of the wonderful effects of your Hair Restorative, but having been so often cheated by quackery and quack nostrums, hair dyes, &c., I was disposed to place your Restorative in the same category with the thousand and one loudly trumpeted quack remedies, until I met with Rev. Mr. Kinney of Lenawee County, some four months since, when conversation turned upon the use of your Restorative, he told me that he had been using it, and that it had become very thin and entirely white, and before he had used one of your bottles, his hair was restored to its natural color, and became beautiful and glossy upon his whole head. He recommended the use of it, not simply because of its beautifying effects upon the hair, but because of its healthful influence upon the head and brain. I obtained one bottle, used it in my family, and friends are using your Restorative, and I therefore, my skeptical friends ... feel it my duty to make the same known ... I will cheerfully recommend its use to all who would have their hair restored from grayness (either from sickness or age) to original color and beauty, and by all young persons who would have their hair beautiful and glossy.

Very truly and gratefully yours,
SOLOMON MANN.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: I am not long since that I wrote you of Blue ... the bottles of your Restorative, for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Detroit, and when I got it home, I concluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as she ... It has done all that you promised ... and others of my family and friends, having witnessed its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as entitled to the highest consideration you claim for it.

Again, very respectfully and truly, yours,
SOLOMON MANN.

CARLYLE, ILL., June 27, 1855.

I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

Mr. Blifkin's Baby.

That first bady was a great institution. As soon as he came into this "breathing world," as the late Wm. Shakspeare has it, he took command in our house. Everything was subservient to him. The baby was the balance wheel that regulated everything. He regulated the temperature, he regulated the food, he regulated the servants, he regulated me. For the first six months of that precious existence he had me up on an average six times a night.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "bring that light here, do; the baby looks strangely; I'm so afraid it will have a fit."

Of course the lamp was brought, and of course the baby lay sucking his fist like a little white bear as he was.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "I think I feel a draught of air; I wish you would get up and see if the window is not open a little, because baby might get sick."

Nothing was the matter with the window, as I knew very well.

"Mr. Blifkins," says my wife, just as I was going to sleep again, "that lamp, as you have placed it shines directly in baby's eyes—strange that you have no more consideration."

I arranged the light and went to bed again. Just as I was dropping off to sleep.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "did you think to buy that Briana today for the baby?"

My dear," said I, "will you do me injustice to believe that I could overlook the matter so essential to the comfort of that inestimable child?"

She apologized very handsomely, but made her anxiety the scapegoat. I forgave her, and without saying a word more to her I addressed myself to sleep.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, shaking me, "you must not snore so, you will wake up the baby."

"Jest so—just so," said I, half asleep, thinking I was Solon Shingle.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "will you get up and hand me the warm gruel from the nurse lamp for baby—the dear child! if it wasn't for his mother I don't know what he would do. How can you sleep so, Mr. Blifkin's."

"I suspect, my dear," said I, "that it is because I am tired."

"Oh, it's very well for you men to talk about being tired," said my wife; "I don't know what you would say, if you had to toil and drudge like a poor woman with a baby."

I tried to sooth her by telling her she had no patience at all, and get up for the posset. Having aided in answering the baby's requirements I stepped into bed again with the hope of sleeping."

"Mr. Blfkins," said she in a louder key. I said nothing.

"Oh, dear," said the estimable woman, in great apparent anguish, "How can a man who has arrived at the honor of a live baby of his own sleep, when he don't know that the dear creature will live till morning?"

I remained silent, and, after a while, deeming that Mrs. Blifkins has gone to sleep, I stretched my limbs for repose. How long I slept I don't know. I was awakened by a furious jab in the forehead by some sharp instrument. I started up, and Mrs. Blifkins was sitting up in bed adjusting a portion of the baby's dress. She had in a state of semi-somnolence, mistaken my head for the pillow, which she customarily used for a nocturnal pincushion. I protested against such treatment in somewhat round terms, pointing to several perforations in my forehead. She told me I should willingly bear such trifling things for the sake of the bady. I insisted upon it that I didn't think it my duty as a parent to that young immortal required the surrender of my forehead for a pincushion. This was one of many nights passed in this way. The truth was that the bady was what every man's first baby is, an autocrat—absolute and unlimited. Such was the story of Blifkins as he related it to us the other day. It is a little exaggerated picture of almost every man's experience.—Saturday Evening Gazette.

Where the Plaster Was.

A certain doctor (rather modest young man by the way) was recently called in to see a lady who had been taken suddenly ill. The doctor found the application of a mustard plaster necessary, and accordingly went to work and made one, and laid it carefully by to prepare the lady for its application. Every thing was ready and the doctor sought the plaster; but, strange to say, it had disappeared. The doctor and the negro nurse searched high and low, in every probable place, for the missing plaster, but in vain; it was gone, no one could tell where. The nurse had not seen it since the doctor laid it on the chair. There was no other alternative but to go to work and make another, which was accordingly done. But still the question would present itself to all—what had become of the plaster? The circumstances of its having been spirited away began to tell unfavorably on the sick lady's nervous sensibility; but the doctor could not help it; he could not explain the mystery. The doctor in a deep brown study prepared to leave, and stood up before the fire to warm himself before encountering the cold without. Through the force of vulgar habit he parted his coat tails behind, when the nurse, displaying about four inches of ivory, said:

"I foun de plaster, massa doctor."

"Where?" eagerly asked the doctor, "where is it?"

"You get it ahind," said the nurse, grinning.

The doctor clapped his hands behind, and there it was sticking fast to the seat of his breeches, where he had sat down on it when it was lying on the chair. This was too much for the modest doctor. He seized his hat and bolted; nor could he be prevailed on to visit the lady during her sickness.

To Save Harness. It is the hairy side of leather that cracks; and if harness is made (if double) so that the fleshy sides are outward, and (if single) so that the hairy side is next to the horse will soften the hairy side; and, the bend being so that the fleshy side is on the outside of the sedgment of the circle, no provocation is given to the inside of the circle to crack. Wagon-harness has lasted twenty years uncracked simply by this means. The harness-maker will object to it because he cannot put inferior leather in, as he otherwise could. But stirrup-leathers are made so, and so are shoes, and why not harness?

The Leviathan.—This monster steamship, it is announced by the company, will not make her contemplated trip to Portland, Maine, until next spring. She will then commence running regularly between Holyhead or Liverpool and Portland, making the trip, it is expected, in seven days.

Giving Him the Strap.

There is a doctor in the north western part of this very dilapidated city who is especially remarkable for being, as the women call it, "short and crusty." A week or two since, he was called to visit a patient who was laboring under a severe attack of cheap whisky.

"Well, doctor, I'm down, you see; completely floored. I've got the tremendous delirium, you know!"

"Tremendous, you fool; where'd you get your rum?" queried the doctor.

"All over in spots; broke out promiscuously, doctor!"

"Served you right; where did you get your rum?"

"Father died of the same disease; took him under the short ribs, and took him off bodily."

"Well, you've got to take something immediately."

"You're a trump, doctor. Here, wife, I'll take a sip of old rye!"

"Lie still, blockhead. Mrs B, if your husband should get worse before I return, which will be in an hour, just give him a dose of that trunk strap, maybe that'll fetch him to a sense of his folly!"

The doctor sailed out grandly, and in an hour sailed in again, and found his friend of the delirium tremendous in a terrible condition, writhing and struggling with pain. His wife, a female of the plain but ignorant school, came up, and laying her hand upon the doctor's said:

"Doctor, I gave him the strap, as directed!"

"Did you thrash him well?"

"Thrash him!" exclaimed the astonished woman. "No; but I cut the strap into hash, and made him swallow it."

"Oh, doctor," roared the victim, "I swallowed the leather, but I couldn't swallow the buckle."

The doctor administered a couple of pills and evaporated!

NEW GOODS!

The Emporium of Fashion is now open.

AND STILL THEY COME with one continual rush to see one of the most Magnificent assortments of that you can find in Northern Indiana.

DRY GOODS

SILKS

of all the latest styles; Fancy Collars; besides a large stock of BLACK SILKS, that we are enabled to sell at lower prices than you will find in this market. Also

DRESS TRIMMINGS

of every grade, style and price for the million

WHITE GOODS.

A full and complete assortment.

Large stock of EMBROIDERIES of all the new patterns. A good assortment of

HOSIERY & GLOVES,

And a large assortment of all other Goods usually kept in a Dry Goods Store, too numerous to mention

All the above Goods were bought under unusually favorable circumstances, just after the recent crash in the Wall Street Banks and the consequent depreciation in the money market, and the failures of the Importers and Jobbing Houses obliged them to sell to cash customers; we availed ourselves of these great bargains, and willing to give our customers the benefit of them, we would invite all the Ladies and the balance of mankind, or we have the goods and are bound to sell them. Bring along your cash.

PILES! PILES! PILES!!

This hitherto intractable disease, of every form and in every stage,

CURED BY EXTERNAL APPLICATION ONLY

Dr. Cavanaugh's

PILE SALVE

WILL never fail in giving immediate relief, and positively curing the worst and most obstinate case of Hemorrhoids or Piles. It is the ONLY INFALLIBLE REMEDY KNOWN here or elsewhere for the Piles, and the result of years of patient study and investigations.

Sufferers from Piles now have a remedy at hand which will without the fear of failure on its part to do all the proprietor claims for it.

Full directions accompanying each box, and all that is requisite is strictly to observe them, and a cure is certain to follow.

The proprietor refers to the following testimonials from gentlemen of character and standing, who have voluntarily given their certificates in its favor in regard to its efficacy in their own cases. Read them.

The following is from one of the most reliable citizens of Chicago, the late Treasurer of Cook County Illinois:

Chicago, July 28, 1855.

Dr. Cavanaugh—Dear Sir,—I wish hereby to make known to the afflicted that I have been troubled with the Piles for twenty years and upwards, and at times most severely. And during a recent and exceedingly painful attack a friend procured a box of your Salve, and asked me to give it a trial. I did so, not however with the expectation of benefiting my disease, for truly, I had ... so many applications I had lost confidence in ... making use of your Salve, I soon found ... it was very good; and really it is Incredible ... that with only about two weeks' use of ... I am so far as I can judge a well man.

I most cheerfully make this statement, believing it due both to yourself and such as may be afflicted with this most painful and trying disease. I do not hesitate to say that I consider your preparation an invaluable remedy for the Piles.

Most sincerely yours, N. N. HEALD.

The Hon. Richard Yates, late member of Congress from the Springfield, Ill., district, says:

Jacksonville, Ill., Nov. 15 1855.

Dr. Thos. H. Cavanaugh—Dear Sir.—The preparation, Cavanaugh's Pile Salve, which you furnished, I found of great service, producing an easy and speedy cure. I do not hesitate to recommend it as an invaluable remedy for the Piles.

Respectfully, RICHARD YATES.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

Mr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds, a remedy that cures

Every Kind of Humor.

FROM

The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple

TWO bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

One to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it was caused by a canker in the stomach.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.

One to two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.

One to two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys.

Four to six bottles have cured the worst cases of dropsy.

One to three bottles has cured the worst case of piles; a relief is always experienced. What a mercy to get relief in such excruciating disease!

Since its first discovery, I have from time to time added various other herbs to it; of one of them, Hippocrates, the Father of Medicine, says: "It is an herb of Jupiter, and in the sign Leo.

"It openeth obstructions of the liver, gall and spleen; it is an especial friend to the liver, worth all other herbs put together; cooling it when too hot, and warming it when too cold.

"It createth an appetite, cureth all gone and inking feelings in the pit of the stomach, easeth all pains and stitches in the side.

"It cureth the jaundice by opening the gall, and restoreth the native color of the body.

"It expels all raw, vicious and slimy humors out of the body, it cleanseth all inward ulcers and congealed blood from the kidneys.

"By opening all obstructions of the spleen, it purgeth all burnt choler and melancholy vapors which riseth to the head and brain, causing distressing headache, fearful foreboding of trouble trembling of the heart, fainting and swooning.

"The herb boiled in wine is particularly good to revive the drooping spirits of the aged, and whosoever has a lingering sickness after a fever, nothing restoreth him to health so quick as drinking the juice of this herb.

"The seeds boiled in water cureth the most offensive breath, and, drank at bedtime, preventeth what is commonly called nightmare, and all melancholy dreams, a disease bilious people are liable to."

The Father of Medicine says of another herb in this composition, that "it is an herb of the Sun, one in the sign of Leo.

"The sun is the source of all life, and ruleth the heart; and this herb is the best cordial, the greatest strengthener of the heart of any that grows; it comforteth the heart, cureth all palpitation thereof, taketh away trembling, fainting and smothering of it; yet it must be taken carefully, or severe gripings will ensue, which must be corrected with fennel seed or ginger.

"So much for this herb, between which and the adder there is the utmost antipathy, so much so that the adder will not touch him that has the herb about him."

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table spoonful per day;—Children over ten years, dessert spoonful;—Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

and every other variety of Castings used in the western country, all on the most improved style and pattern. We invite particular attention to our and machinery for saw mills, which are the most simple, durable, economical, and easily managed of any built in this city, the saw dust and slabs supplying abundant fuel.

Those wishing to purchase in our line will do well to give us a call (or address us by letter) as we are bound not to be beat in style and prices by any establishment in the country.

REPAIRS done with neatness and despatch.

Cash paid for old Castings and Brass.
